9 KANSAS (2-6, 0-5 Big 12) vs. Iowa State (2-6, 0-5 Big 12)

Nov. 8, 2014 >> 2:30 p.m. >> TV: FOX Sports Net
Series: Kansas leads 49-38-6 >> Lawrence, Kan. >> Memorial Stadium (50,071)

THE BIG LEAD

The Kansas Jayhawks will return to the friendly confines of Memorial Stadium for the first time in nearly a month when they play host to Iowa State on Saturday, Nov. 8. Kansas will look to snap a five-game winless streak on the season and a four-game skid at the hands of the Cyclones when the two teams meet on the gridiron. Game time is slated for 2:30 p.m., with a live broadcast on FOX Sports Net.

QUICK HITS

>>Kansas owns a 578-595-58 all-time record entering Saturday's game versus Iowa State.

>>Kansas is playing its eighth-straight mid-afternoon game. The Jayhawks kicked off at Duke and Texas Tech and at home against Central Michigan at 2:30 p.m. (CT) and faced Texas, West Virginia, Oklahoma State and Baylor at 3 p.m.

>>Kansas leads the all-time series with Iowa State, 49-38-6. The Jayhawks have a 27-16-3 advantage in the series over ISU in games played in Lawrence. Iowa State has won four-straight games in the series, with three of those four outings coming in Ames. Prior to the four-game winless streak for Kansas, the Jayhawks reeled off five-consecutive wins over the Cyclones.

THIS DAY IN KANSAS FOOTBALL HISTORY

Kansas is 5-10-2 all-time in games played on Nov. 8. The Jayhawks played their first-ever game on Nov. 8 in 1896 when they defeated Nebraska, 18-4. Kansas played the Cornhuskers in eight of the 17 games it has played on Nov. 8, posting a 3-5 mark against NU in those games. The Jayhawks are 1-2-1 in Nov. 8 games versus Oklahoma. Kansas' last outing on Nov. 8 came in 2008, with a 45-35 loss at Nebraska.

KANSAS-IOWA STATE CONNECTIONS

The Jayhawks have one player from the state of Iowa on their roster, senior offensive lineman Mike Smithburg. Smithburg hails from Fairfield, Iowa in the state's southeast quadrant, nearly 150 miles from Ames. Smithburg and Kansas juniors safety Isaiah Johnson and offensive lineman Larry Mazyck each played at Iowa Western Community College in Council Bluffs, Iowa, on the state's western border with Nebraska. Four Cyclones also played at Iowa Western Community College, with fellow Reivers including RB Aaron Wimberly, DB Drake Ferch, DE Cory Morrissey and DL Tyler Harmeyer. ISU starting TE E.J. Bibbs was a teammate of Kansas starting S Cassius Sendish at Arizona Western Community College in 2012. From 2002-09, Iowa State offensive coordinator/tight ends coach Mark Mangino and offensive line coach Brandon Blaney roamed the KU sidelines together. Mangino served as the head coach during that span, while Blaney was the offensive line coach. The duo helped Kansas football to its first ever Bowl Championship Series win in the 2008 FedEx Orange Bowl over No. 5 Virginia Tech. Under Mangino and Blaney, the Jayhawks played in four bowl games, winning three of them highlighted by 2007's 12-1 season. Mangino recorded a 50-48 overall mark at the helm of the Jayhawk program. Current KU staffers--interim head coach Clint Bowen, co-offensive coordinator John Reagan and special teams coordinator Louie Matsakis--each were members of Mangino's staff at Kansas.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

All credential requests can be made on-line at www.KUAthletics.com/media. Credentials requested after Monday of the game week will not be mailed. Instead, they will be available for pickup at a location agreeable to both parties. The Kivisto Field at Memorial Stadium Media Will Call distribution location is at the base of the elevator, below the pressbox, on the West side of the stadium. Working space in Kansas' Memorial Stadium press box will be allotted on the following basis: (1) Daily newspapers covering for Sunday publication and television stations covering for weekend news programs; (2) Sports editors of Kansas daily newspapers; (3) Radio personnel for an originating broadcast; (4) Official school daily newspapers (5) Television sports directors and approved special coverage; (6) Press and TV working photographers, weekly press representatives, non-broadcasting radio representatives and internet sites whose primary purpose is to gather news and disseminate it.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Credentials for sideline photographers will be issued on the basis of circulation, with priority granted to agencies covering the participating schools on a regular basis. All photographers must pick up a photo sticker in order to be admitted to the sidelines. This may be done at the gate at the southwest corner of Memorial Stadium.

PARKING

Media parking is located in the Mississippi Street Parking Garage just south of the Kansas Union on the southeast side of Memorial Stadium. The garage is approximately two blocks away from the stadium.

PRESSBOX AND GAMEDAY SERVICES

The Kivisto Field at Memorial Stadium pressbox is located on the West side of the stadium. Entrance is at the base of the elevator located just off of Maine Street. Level eight is reserved for the print media, home and visiting radio, home and visiting booths for coaches and athletics directors, along with game and scoreboard operations. Level nine serves as the photo deck and the location for television booths. Packets with pregame information will be distributed in advance of kickoff on the day of the game. Play-by-play, quarter, halftime, final statistics, coaches and player quote sheets, are all regular services on game day. Television monitors are part of the fixtures in both home and visiting radio booths and in the main pressbox area.

WIRELESS INTERNET

Complimentary access to wireless internet is available at Memorial Stadium and information about how to access it will be available in the pressbox.

TELEPHONES

Writers wanting phone lines at their seat locations should contact the KU Telecommunications Office at (785) 864-9300 regarding installation at least two weeks prior to the game. For specific line location, please list Katy Lonergan as the contact.

WEEKLY PRESS RELEASE

Each Tuesday a complete release previewing the upcoming game and reviewing the season will be available on KUAthletics.com. The release will also be e-mailed to media requesting this service each Tuesday.

WEEKLY NEWS CONFERENCE

Kansas interim head coach Clint Bowen will conduct a weekly news conference each Tuesday during the season. The news conferences are held in the George R. Mrkonic Auditorium located in the Anderson Family Football Complex at 1 p.m. A media luncheon will be held each week in the Chancellor's Lounge at AFFC from 12-1 p.m. The Bowen news conferences are available via teleconference by calling: 877-278-8686 and using the following pin code: 027718. Assistant coaches are available upon request Tuesdays at 1:30 p.m., in the Chancellor's Lounge. To request assistant coaches, media should contact the communications office by 4 p.m., Monday via email (katyl@ku.edu).

INTERVIEWS

Contact the athletics communications office for all player or coach interview requests. Kansas players are available by request on Wednesdays in the Chancellor's Lounge from 1:45-2:15 p.m. To request players, media should contact the communications office by 12 p.m., Tuesday via email (katyl@ku.edu) with their requests for the week. Out-of-town media wishing to interview Kansas players via the telephone should also contact the communications office with their requests by 12 p.m., Tuesday. Please do not contact a player or coach without scheduling the interview through the communications office.

DIGITAL ASSETS

Head shots and selected video and audio elements will be made available throughout the season on the KU Athletics Media FTP: www.KUAthletics.com/mediaftp.

NOTABLE RECENT MEETINGS

Nov. 5, 2011 - at Iowa State 13, Kansas 10: Fueled by 300 total yards from freshman quarterback Jared Barnett and a Zach Guyer field goal with 4:40 remaining, Iowa State slipped past the Kansas Jayhawks 13-10 at Jack Trice Stadium. The Jayhawks stayed within arm's length of the Cyclones throughout the day, never trailing by more than three points. A 10-10 tie with 5:49 left in the third quarter would not be broken until Guyer kicked the eventual game-winning field goal in the waning minutes of the fourth quarter. The Jayhawk offense was sharp throughout the day, racking up 174 yards on the ground with Darrian Miller leading the KU rushing attack with 70 yards. Despite windy conditions, Jordan Webb threw for 127 yards on 13-of-21 attempts, hitting D.J. Beshears five times for 45 yards.

Oct. 10, 2009 - at No. 16 Kansas 41, Iowa State 36: Kansas WR Kerry Meier set a school record with 16 receptions for 142 yards and two touchdowns, while QB Todd Reesing tied a school record with 37 completions for a career-high 442 yards and four touchdowns as No. 16 Kansas outlasted Iowa State 41-36 at Memorial Stadium. Reesing's main two targets for the afternoon were Meier and WR Dezmon Briscoe, who had 12 catches for 186 yards and two touchdowns. Despite the offensive fire power displayed by the Jayhawks, the team needed a fourth-down stop at its own 31-yard line to solidify the win.

NOTEWORTHY

SCOUTING THE IOWA STATE OFFENSE

Iowa State's offense is averaging 25.8 points per outing and has accumulated 172 first downs on the season. The Cyclones move the chains more effectively by pass, evidenced by 98 first downs through the air compared to 57 by way of rush. ISU's ground game has only accounted for 907 yards on 259 attempts through eight games this season, breaking down to a per carry average of 3.5 yards. The Cyclones have scored nine times on the ground compared to 15 touchdowns scored as a result of pass. Iowa State quarterbacks have completed 191-of-331 passes this season while only throwing six interceptions. ISU is averaging nearly 250 yards passing per game (246.9) and in total has thrown for 1,975 yards on the year. Throughout 2014, Iowa State has conducted exactly 590 offensive plays, putting up 2,882 yards of total offense grinding out 4.9 yards per play and 360 yards per game. Inside the 20-yard line, the Cyclones are effective putting points on the board scoring touchdowns on 19-of-27 attempts, while coming away with a score 25-of-27 times. Iowa State is most effective putting points on the board in the second quarter of games, scoring 68 total points in the 15 minutes before halftime.

SCOUTING THE IOWA STATE DEFENSE

Iowa State is allowing its opponents to score 38.2 points per game and has given up 214 first downs this season. Teams are having more success running the ball to move the sticks with 110 first downs by rush compared to 85 by way of pass in 2014. Teams have racked up nearly 2,000 yards rushing on the Cyclones' defense (1,973) while scoring 29 touchdowns and averaging 246.6 yards on the ground per contest. Teams have rushed a total of 357 times and are averaging 246 yards over eight total games. Opponents' aerial assaults have completed 177-of-287 passes while throwing eight interceptions compared to just seven touchdowns. Over the course of the season, the Iowa State defense is allowing teams to have 492.6 yards of total offense per game while giving up 3,941 yards of offense on the season. So far, the Cyclones have gotten off of the field 47 percent of the time on third down (57-122) and grow increasingly stout the further they are pushed back inside their own territory. Teams have scored 90 percent of the time inside of the ISU 20-yard line, but the Cyclones only give up a touchdown 69 percent of the time (29-of-42). The fourth quarter is ISU's lowest scoring period, only giving up 63 points. The first half is when opponents do most of their damage, with 72 points in the first quarter of games and 103 in the second period.

IOWA STATE HEAD COACH PAUL RHOADS

Iowa State head coach Paul Rhoads is in his sixth season in charge of the program after taking over in 2009. Rhoads has amassed a career-record of 29-42 in his six seasons at the helm for the Cyclones. He has led ISU to three bowl games including the 2012 Autozone Liberty Bowl, 2011 New Era Pinstripe Bowl and the 2009 Insight Bowl. During his time in Ames, Rhoads has recorded three victories over ranked opponents on the road, half of the school's all-time total of road triumphs over rated teams (six). In all, Rhoads has registered four wins over ranked opponents in his five seasons. In the 17 seasons prior to Rhoads' arrival (1992-2008), the Cyclones won just nine conference road games. The Cyclones have already recorded six conference road victories under Rhoads. Upon taking over, Rhoads became the first Cyclone football coach to win seven games in his initial campaign since 1907. He was the first coach in ISU history to post a winning record in his initial Cyclone season since 1931. Rhoads' stingy defensive philosophy made him a notorious mind for calling plays from the defensive side of the ball. Prior to Iowa State, his resume includes a 2004 Big East Conference championship with the Panthers. Five of the defenses he coordinated ranked in the nation's Top 30 for scoring and three in the NCAA's Top 12 for fewest yards allowed. Rhoads' last two defenses (Auburn in 2008 and Pitt in 2007) before coming to Ames ranked 15th nationally in scoring defense and fifth in total defense, respectively. The Sporting News named him the best defensive coordinator in the Big East Conference.

KANSAS-BAYLOR LEFTOVERS

TEAM NOTES

*Prior to the game interim head coach Clint Bowen promoted wide receivers coach Eric Kiesau to co-offensive coordinator. Co-offensive coordinator John Reagan remained in the coaching booth, while Kiesau called the plays from the field.

*With 11:29 to play in the first quarter, Baylor quarterback Bryce Petty found wide receiver Corey Coleman for a 72-yard touchdown pass, completing the longest play KU has given up from scrimmage in 2014.

*Baylor's 60 points were the most given up by Kansas this season. The previous season-high was recorded when Duke scored 41 points on the Jayhawks on Sept. 13, 2014. Baylor's 60 points marked the first time since 2011 against Texas A&M that an opponent has scored 60 or more points on the Jayhawks.

*Defensively, the Jayhawks gave up a season-high 669 yards of total offense, the highest total since it surrendered 743 yards of total offense to the Bears a season ago. Prior to today, Kansas had given up 500 or more yards three times on the year.

OFFENSIVE NOTES

*Kansas' run game had no effect on Baylor's defense throughout the game. The Jayhawks posted 16 yards rushing, its lowest total since tallying 11 rushing yards against Oklahoma in 2005.

*Junior quarterback Michael Cummings finished the game with a career-high-tying 288 yards passing, notching the first time since 2009 that a Kansas quarterback threw for 200 or more yards over a span of three-straight games. In 2009, KU quarterback Todd Reesing threw for 241, 236, 256 and 498 yards in four-straight contests.

*Cummings found Harwell in the end zone with 2:12 to play in the third period for the duo's second throwing touchdown of the game. Cummings' two touchdown tosses gave him the second multi-passing touchdown performance of his career.

*Cummings' second touchdown pass to Harwell gave the transfer receiver his second multi-touchdown game as a Jayhawk.

*With his two touchdown receptions versus Baylor, Harwell has posted two games with multiple touchdown receptions, the first Jayhawk wide receiver to do so in a season since both Dezmon Briscoe and Kerry Meier accomplished the feat in 2009.

*Freshman running back Corey Avery recorded a career-long reception mark and set a new career-high with four receptions after a 49-yard catch and run with 3:04 to play in the third quarter. He finished with a career-high 92 receiving yards.

*Senior linebacker Ben Heeney lined up as a running back for the first time in his career and gained no yards on his first-career carry with 10:46 to play in the third quarter.

*Freshman running back Darious Crawley saw the most action of his career catching a pass for seven yards and running once for three yards midway through the third quarter.

DEFENSIVE NOTES

*The Kansas defense held Baylor to three plays and a punt on its opening drive of the game. Prior to that three-and-out, Baylor had only been prevented from moving the chains for a first down one time this season on its opening drive against Iowa State on Sept. 27, 2014. The KU defense hasn't allowed an opponent to get a first down on an opening drive in 4-of-8 games this season.

*Senior linebacker Ben Heeney notched the 17th double-digit tackling performance of his career after finishing the contest with 10 total stops.

*Sophomore linebacker Courtney Arnick surpassed his previous season-high five tackles with an eight-tackle performance against Baylor.

*With Baylor threatening to score inside of the KU two-yard line, senior BUCK Michael Reynolds stripped the ball loose for the third-consecutive game, marking his fourth forced fumble of the season and sixth of his career.

*Sophomore safety Fish Smithson set a career-high with nine tackles against the Bears. Smithson's previous high has been five tackles which he recorded three times this season.

SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

*Senior punter Trevor Pardula averaged 44.4 yards on five punts giving him 47 career punts of 50-yards or more in just his second season as a Jayhawk.

*Senior cornerback JaCorey Shepherd returned a career-high eight kickoffs and registered a season-high 125 kickoff return yards.

CUMMINGS CONTINUES TO RISE

Kansas junior quarterback Michael Cummings has continued to lead the Jayhawk passing game to greater heights since being inserted into the starting lineup. In his three games as the starter, Cummings has completed 61-of-99 passes, good for a completion percentage of 61.6. He has tossed four touchdowns, compared to two interceptions, while accumulating 811 yards through the air. Kansas is averaging 270.3 passing yards per game in the Killeen, Texas native's three starts. The Jayhawk offense was averaging just 154.6 passing yards per game in the five games prior to Cummings becoming the starter.

REYNOLDS WRAP

KU senior BUCK Michael Reynolds has been on a tear lately, disrupting opposing offenses with his pass rushing ability. Reynolds, who has a team-leading 11.5 tackles-for-loss, has recorded 6.0 of those TFLs during the past three outings. The Wichita, Kansas native has recorded a sack-caused-fumble in two of the last three contests and tallied 10.0 of his 11.5 TFLs in Big 12 play. Reynolds has collected all of his team-leading 5.0 sacks in the last six games, including 2.0 sacks against Oklahoma State (Oct. 11). He ranks fourth in the Big 12 and 18th in the NCAA in TFLs (1.4 per game) and sixth in the conference and 51st nationally in sacks (0.63 per game).

CAPTAIN HEENEY DOES IT AGAIN...AND AGAIN...AND AGAIN...

Ben Heeney led all FBS players on Saturday, Oct. 18 with a career-best 21 tackles in KU's game at Texas Tech. Heeney's 21 tackles are the most by any player in the Big 12 in 2014 and are the second most by any player in the NCAA this season. Heeney's 21 total tackles are the most by a Big 12 player since Baylor's Sam Holl posted 21 tackles against Kansas on Nov. 12, 2011. His 21 tackles are the most for a Kansas player since LeRoy Irvin, Sr., posted 21 stops against Missouri on Nov. 22, 1979. Among Heeney's 21 stops, were 17 solo tackles—just three short of the FBS record of 20 in a game. His 17 solo stops are the second most in Big 12 history and are the most in the NCAA in a single game since Tyler Matakevich of Temple recorded 19 solos against Idaho on Sept. 28, 2013. Heeney was so dominant on defense against Texas Tech, at one point in the first quarter, he made tackles on 7-of-9 plays, spanning two defensive series. The other two plays resulted in incomplete passes for the Red Raiders. In addition to his 21 tackles, Heeney also snagged his first interception of the season, returning it 37 yards to set up Kansas' first touchdown of the game. Heeney now has four career interceptions. As of Saturday, Nov. 1, Heeney ranks first in the NCAA and Big 12 in solo tackles (8.3 per game). He ranks first in the Big 12 and fifth in the NCAA in tackles per game (11.8 per game).

MUNDINE MOVES THE CHAINS

Kansas tight end Jimmay Mundine is having a strong senior season as he is tops among Big 12 tight ends and ranks second among KU pass catchers in receiving yards with 325 on 27 receptions. Mundine has made the most of his opportunities as a receiver as he has consistently moved the chains for the Jayhawk offense. Of his 27 catches, 18 have resulted in first downs for Kansas. For his efforts, Mundine was recently named to Phil Steele Magazine's Midseason First Team All-Big 12 and was also listed on the John Mackey Award Midseason Watch List.

HARWELL MAKES IT COUNT

Senior wide receiver Nick Harwell has been a model of consistency throughout his career. Harwell, who spent his first three collegiate campaigns at Miami (Ohio), has caught a pass in 39 of the 41 games he has suited up in from 2010-2014. Even more impressive is that the Missouri City, Texas native has caught a pass in 38-consecutive games, a streak that ranks fourth among active players in the NCAA. The following is the list of top 10 players with receptions in 30 or more-straight games:

	PLAYER	SCHOOL	GAMES

BLOCK PARTY

Kansas blocked a field goal in three-straight games (Texas, at West Virginia, Oklahoma State), marking the first time it has blocked a kick in three-consecutive games since blocking punts in three-straight outings during the 1987 season. In 1987, the Jayhawks scored safeties off of blocked punts in back-to-back-to-back games (Louisiana Tech, Southern Illinois, Nebraska). Three different Jayhawks have gotten in on the action as junior linebacker Jake Love (Texas), junior defensive lineman T.J. Semke (at West Virginia) and sophomore safety Tevin Shaw (Oklahoma State) have each gotten their hands on a field goal.

LEGATRON

Kansas punter/kicker Trevor Pardula, who was named a Ray Guy Award nominee on Friday, Oct. 31, is shattering the Jayhawk record books for punting. Pardula set the single-game punting yards record with 621 yards accumulated on 14 punts at West Virginia. Pardula's 14 punts also set a single-game record for punts by an individual at Milan Puskar Stadium. Pardula has recorded 47 career punts of 50 yards or more in just his second season as a Jayhawk. The San Jose, California native currently leads the Big 12 in punting at 44.8 yards per punt, while also ranking 16th in the NCAA.

SHEPHERD QUIETLY STANDS OUT

Jayhawk senior cornerback/kick returner JaCorey Shepherd is having an outstanding senior season on the defensive side of the ball as he has collected 10 passes defended through eight games, ranking fourth in the Big 12 Conference. The 10 passes defended come by way of nine break ups and one interception. Even more impressive, Shepherd has not surrendered a touchdown since the opening game of the season against Southeast Missouri State.

FUMBLITIS

KU senior Michael Reynolds is leading the Big 12 Conference in forced fumbles as he has caused four on the season. Reynolds' four forced fumbles rank third nationally. Three of his four forced fumbles have come while sacking the opposing quarterback. Reynolds now has six forced fumbles in his Kansas career. Overall the Jayhawks rank third in the Big 12 and 40th in the NCAA in fumbles recovered with seven on the season.

HARWELL'S HAPPY RETURNS

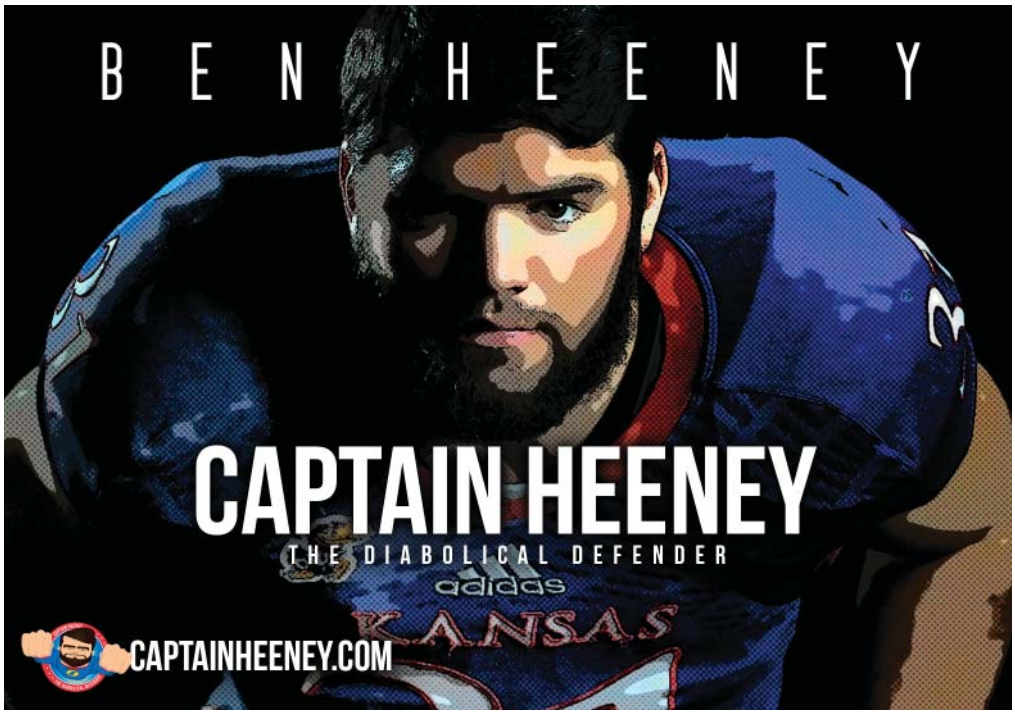
Jayhawk senior wide receiver/punt returner Nick Harwell ranks first in the Big 12 Conference in punt returns with 26.4 yards per return on five returns, including his 76-yard return for a touchdown in KU's game at West Virginia. Harwell finished the West Virginia game with 84 yards on two punt returns, earning him College Football Performance Awards punt returner of the week honors. His 26.4 yards per punt return currently ranks seventh nationally.

MUNDINE NAMED JOHN MACKEY AWARD MIDSEASON WATCH LIST

Kansas senior Jimmay Mundine was named the John Mackey Award Midseason Watch List, Monday, Oct. 13. A native of Denison, Texas, Mundine was one of two tight ends from the Big 12 Conference, and one of the 33 total honorees, selected for the committee's Midseason watch list. He leads all Big 12 tight ends in receiving yards with 294 yards on 23 receptions. Mundine had a career-best seven receptions for 82 yards in KU's last outing at Texas Tech and has combined for 12 receptions for 170 yards through the air in last two games. Semifinalists for the award will be revealed on Nov. 17 while on Nov. 24 the list will be trimmed down to three finalists. The winner of the 2014 Mackey Award will be announced on Dec. 11 as part of the Home Depot College Football Awards Red Carpet Show.

SHEPHERD TAKES HOME ROCK CHALK CHOICE AWARD

At the 2013-14 Rock Chalk Choice Awards held Sunday, Sept. 7, senior CB/NB JaCorey Shepherd was awarded the Best



Jayhawk in a Supporting Role, given to a student-athlete who demonstrates extraordinary sportsmanship, support and loyalty to teammates and Kansas Athletics. Noted for selfless decisions like volunteering his time in the community and moving from offense to defense after a successful debut season on offense, Shepherd earned honorable mention recognition from the Big 12 in 2013 after he intercepted a pair of passes and broke up 13 others while leading an improved Jayhawk secondary.

MCDONALD NAMED BIG 12 DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK (SEPT. 8)

Kansas senior cornerback Dexter McDonald was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week following his standout performance in the Jayhawks' season-opening win over Southeast Missouri State. McDonald, a native of Kansas City, Missouri, led the Kansas defense with the first multiple interception game of his career. He first picked off SEMO quarterback Kyle Snyder in the end zone and returned it 62 yards to keep the Redhawks scoreless in the first half. He then grabbed a second interception off of Snyder five minutes into the third quarter, returning it 10 yards. Additionally, McDonald was credited with two solo tackles and two pass breakups, giving him four passes defended in the game. McDonald is the first Kansas player to be honored by the Big 12 Conference in its weekly awards since running back James Sims picked up the weekly offensive award on Nov. 18, 2013. He is the first Jayhawk to pick up the conference's defensive honor since Justin Springer was tabbed for the weekly award on Sept. 11, 2010.

JAYHAWKS EARN CFPA WEEKLY HONORS

HEENEY A PRESEASON ALL-BIG 12 SELECTION

Kansas senior linebacker Ben Heeney was named to the 2014 Preseason All-Big 12 Football team as selected by members of the media. Heeney, who was an All-Big 12 Second Team selection in 2013, headed into 2014 as the conference's leading returning tackler. Last year the Hutchinson, Kansas native recorded a team-high 88 tackles and finished fourth in the conference with 8.7 tackles-per-game. Heeney also recorded double-digit tackles in six of his 10 games played a season ago and is one of six active linebackers with 200 tackles and 20 tackles for loss in the last two seasons.

ROCKCHALKWEEKLY.COM

Kansas Athletics recently launched its official online magazine, Rock Chalk Weekly. The magazine is a great tool to keep up with the latest comings and goings of KU Athletics, but also features in depth looks of the Jayhawk athletes and coaches. Rock Chalk Weekly is available via tablet (downloads available on the iTunes app store or Google play) or the web by visiting RockChalkWeekly.com.

WATCH US

The preseason watch lists kept a keen eye on several Jayhawk players during the offseason. In all, Kansas has six players nominated for an array of different national awards. Senior linebacker Ben Heeney leads the way with five national award nominations to his name. The following players on watch lists are:

Ngalu Fusimalohi - Polynesian Player of the Year
Nick Harwell - Biletnikoff Award, Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award
Ben Heeney - Lombardi Award, Butkus Award, Nagurski Award, Bednarik Award, CFPA Linebacker
Isaiah Johnson - CFPA Defensive Back
Jimmay Mundine - Mackey Award, Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award, CFPA Tight End
Trevor Pardula - Ray Guy Award, CFPA Punter

STUDENTS FIRST, ATHLETES SECOND

In 2013, 20 Jayhawks were honored for their hard work and outstanding academic achievement by the Big 12 Conference. Out of the 20 total players honored, 14 were named to the Academic All-Big 12 First Team by attaining a GPA of 3.20 or higher. KU's 14 first- team selections gave the Jayhawks three more players on the conference's first team than any other school in the Big 12.

TEAM CAPTAINS

A trio of seniors in wide receiver Nick Harwell, linebacker Ben Heeney and safety Cassius Sendish were selected by their peers as the 2014 team captains, while three other players were appointed as members of the team leadership council. Kansas conducted a players' vote during fall camp and announced the results on August 20. Members of the leadership council include seniors offensive lineman Pat Lewandowski and defensive linemen Keon Stowers and sophomore quarterback Montell Cozart.

UP NEXT

Kansas football will host TCU on Senior Day on Saturday, Nov. 15. TCU leads the all-time series with Kansas, 18-8-4, including a 2-0 mark in games since joining the Big 12 Conference. Kansas will honor its 21 seniors prior to kickoff.

INTERIM HEAD COACH

The Bowen Family: Banks, Kristie, Clint and Baylor.

Armed with 16 years on the Kansas coaching staff and 19 years overall with the program, former KU player Clint Bowen was tabbed as the Jayhawks' interim head coach Sept. 28, 2014. Bowen had previously served as the special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach in 2012, before moving over to coaching the linebackers in January of 2013, then adding the title of defensive coordinator in December of 2013.

Last season, Bowen coached KU linebacker Ben Heeney to All-Big 12 Second Team honors after he finished fourth in the conference in tackles and ranked fifth in tackles-for-loss per game.

Bowen completed a one-year stint as defensive coordinator and safeties coach for North Texas in 2011, having joined the Mean Green after spending the 2010 season at Western Kentucky, where he held the defensive coordinator position.

The Lawrence native and 1995 KU grad has returned to his roots, as he accumulated 13 years of coaching experience with the Jayhawks prior his latest return to Lawrence. He began his Kansas coaching career by working as a defensive graduate assistant coach for the Jayhawks in 1996. He then worked one season as a graduate assistant at Minnesota before returning to KU as a graduate assistant with KU in 1998-99 and then serving as assistant director of football operations during the 2000 season.

Bowen took over the role of special teams coordinator in 2001, a position he held at KU through the 2005 season. In addition to manning the special teams, Bowen also coached tight ends (2001), running backs (2002) and safeties (2003-05) during that time span.

In 2006 Bowen was promoted to co-defensive coordinator and continued coaching the Jayhawk safeties from 2003-09. Following the 2007 season he was elevated to defensive coordinator, helping guide the Jayhawks to a victory at the Insight Bowl in 2008.

During his previous stint on the KU coaching staff, the Jayhawks posted a 3-1 bowl record, including a 24-21 win over Virginia Tech in the 2008 Orange Bowl. Kansas finished the 2007 season with a 12-1 record and No. 7 national ranking in both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today coaches polls.

Bowen has had at least one of his players earn postseason All-Big 12 Conference recognition each year. The 2007 Kansas defense ranked fourth in the nation in scoring defense and ranked in the top-10 nationally in both passing defense and rushing defense.

Bowen was a hard-hitting defensive back for the Jayhawks in 1990, 1992-93, following one season at Butler County Community College. He led the KU defense in tackles in 1993 with 114 total stops. That figure ranks as the third-most tackles by a Jayhawk defensive back in school history.

Bowen was instrumental in helping the Jayhawks to an 8-4 final record, a No. 22 national ranking and a win over Brigham Young in the 1992 Aloha Bowl. He was the recipient of the school's Willie Pless Tackler of the Year Award following his senior season in 1993.

He is the product of a football family. His father (Charley Bowen) was a high school All-American at Lawrence High School and his older brother (Charley, Jr.) was a four-year letterwinner as a defensive back for the Jayhawks (1989-92).

Bowen and his wife, Kristie, have two sons, Baylor and Banks. Kristie Bowen is the 2014 Mrs. Kansas and was named Miss Kansas in 2001.

1 KANSAS DOWNS SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE

SOUTHEAST MISSOURI STATE (1-1)	28
KANSAS (1-0)	34

MEMORIAL STADIUM/KIVISTO FIELD • LAWRENCE, KAN.
SEPT. 6, 2014 • ATTENDANCE: 36,574

The score read Kansas 34, Southeast Missouri State 7, at the beginning of the fourth quarter Saturday evening at Memorial Stadium. All of a sudden, the Redhawks exploded to hang 21-straight points on the Jayhawks after three fourth quarter touchdown passes from quarterback Kyle Snyder.

SEMO trailed by only six points with 1:33 left on the clock. Both teams knew what would ensue after the last touchdown pass. SEMO lined up for an onside kick and when the ball left the tee, just like it had all night, it found its way into Kansas senior wide receiver Nick Harwell's arms to put a 34-28 seal on a wild finish in the evening contest.

For the fourth-straight year - nine out of the last 10 tries - the Kansas football team opened its season with a victory, edging the second half comeback by a feisty Southeast Missouri State.

In all, the Jayhawk offense posted 457 yards of total offense pounding the Redhawks between the tackles for 261 yards on the ground and going over the top to finish with 196 yards passing with four trips to the endzone. KU's 457-yard performance was the most for a Kansas team since the Jayhawks tallied 441 yards against Iowa State on Nov. 17, 2012. Both offenses came to play in the game as Southeast Missouri State gained 421 yards from scrimmage - a large majority of which were produced in the second half rally – to finish with four touchdowns of its own.

A tandem of newcomers, Harwell and junior running back De'Andre Mann, led the Jayhawk offense in the first half. After a long anticipated return to the game action after nearly two years of being sidelined, Harwell made his first catch in a KU uniform a memorable one hauling in a seven yard touchdown reception from sophomore quarterback Montell Cozart. Harwell would add on and grab another touchdown pass while finishing the night with a team-high four catches for 46 yards. Cozart finished the game completing 12-of-24 passes for 196 yards and three touchdowns.

In another debut performance, highly touted freshman running back Corey Avery carried the ball 19 times for 91 yards and a 10-yard score becoming the first freshman running back since James Sims in 2010 to record a rushing touchdown in his debut.

After a lackluster first half, SEMO's Snyder ended the evening connecting on 12-of-27 passes for 269 yards and three touchdowns, while also throwing three interceptions. Wide receiver Paul McRoberts hauled in six of those passes for 173 yards and two touchdowns nearly completing a 24-point rally to knock off the Jayhawks.

KU began the game playing stout defense stuffing SEMO for five-consecutive three-and-outs in the first quarter. Freshman cornerback Matthew Boateng ended the Redhawks' second drive with his first-career interception, while senior cornerback Dexter McDonald tied his career total with two picks in the contest. McDonald became the first Kansas player to pick off two passes in a game since teammate Isaiah Johnson accomplished the same feat in 2013 against Texas.

SEMO tightened up its own defense after allowing the Jayhawks 24-unanswered first half points. In the end, linebacker Roper Garrett led all tacklers with 14 stops and a forced fumble. For Kansas, senior linebacker Ben Heeney led the tackling brigade with 11 wrap-ups. Junior BUCK Michael Reynolds added four stops of his own for KU including one and a half TFLs for a loss of four yards.

In all, 20 players made their debut in the Crimson and Blue.

2 KANSAS FALLS TO DUKE

KANSAS (1-1)	3
DUKE (3-0)	41

WALLACE WADE STADIUM • DURHAM, N.C.
SEPT. 13, 2014 • ATTENDANCE: 25,203

First-quarter woes doomed the Kansas football team as the Jayhawks fell to Duke, 41-3, Saturday evening inside Wallace Wade Stadium.

En route to holding Duke All-American wide receiver Jamison Crowder to two receptions for 14 yards - the fewest for the senior since 2012 - KU senior linebacker Ben Heeney tied his career-high with 15 stops and one tackle for loss, the 13th double-digit tackling performance of his tenure.

The Jayhawks (1-1) finished the game with 297 yards of offense, with running backs Corey Avery and De'Andre Mann paving the way with 87- and 65-yard performances, respectively. Sophomore quarterback Montell Cozart broke a career-long 24-yard rush and attempted a career-high 27 passes, but the KU aerial attack dwindled with just 89 yards in the game.

Missed opportunities along with first-half turnovers, ended up haunting the Jayhawk offense, as the squad failed to punch one in the end zone on the first road trip of the season. Kansas instead settled for a first-quarter 34-yard field goal off of the foot of sophomore kicker Matthew Wyman for its only points of the day.

Contrary to Kansas, the Blue Devil offense wasted no time getting points on the board, exploding in the first quarter with 17 points on three-consecutive drives. Quarterback Anthony Boone connected on two touchdown passes, while Ross Martin booted a 20-yard field goal. However, the Duke offense struggled to regain form late in the first half and into the third quarter thanks to the leg of senior punter Trevor Pardula.

Pardula booted eight punts on the day for an average of 51.8 yards with two punts traveling over 70 yards (72, 70). He finished the contest with four kicks over the 50-yard mark and pinned two inside the 20-yard line.

The Jayhawk defense rallied behind the work of its senior punter. After allowing 154 yards and 17 points on three drives, KU stuffed the Duke offense for a three-and-out with 1:41 left in the first quarter. Kansas followed suit to open the second period, holding the Blue Devils to another three-and-out.

With consecutive stops, the offense looked primed to move the ball and close the gap, but the second interception by Cozart doomed Kansas and gifted Duke with adequate field position to tack on three more points, 20-3, to end the first half.

The second half opened with the Jayhawks forcing the Blue Devils to punt, but once again, the lack of rhythm by the KU offense gave the ball right back by way of a 70-yard boot by Pardula.

KU's defense wasn't able to hold Duke any longer after the offense sputtered. Eight plays and 80 yards later, the Blue Devils found the end zone once again this time Boone connected with wide receiver Max McCaffrey for 10 yards with 5:23 left in the third quarter, 27-3.

With the contest long-sense decided, Duke tacked on another quick seven points, even after Pardula knocked Duke deep in its own territory again by way of a 72-yard punt. It was running back Shaun Wilson who burst 68 yards through the line of scrimmage, extending the lead once more, 34-3.

The Blue Devils tacked on their final points of the game when Wilson rushed 45 yards with 3:57 left in the game for his third touchdown on the night, 41-3.

3 SECOND-HALF SURGE LIFTS JAYHAWKS PAST CMU

CENTRAL MICHIGAN (2-2)	10
KANSAS (2-1)	24

MEMORIAL STADIUM • LAWRENCE, KAN.
SEPT. 20, 2014 • ATTENDANCE: 34,822

Kansas surged past Central Michigan with 14 unanswered points in the fourth quarter, both on touchdown throws from Montell Cozart, en route to a 24-10 final score at Memorial Stadium Saturday afternoon. Cozart threw for a career-best 226 yards and completed 23-of-33 passes.

The Jayhawks (2-1) combined for 371 yards of offense and three touchdowns against the Chippewas (2-2), with senior wide receiver Tony Pierson paving the way with 89 total yards (77 rushing and 12 receiving). Senior tight end Jimmay Mundine finished the day with a career-high in receptions and receiving yards, chalking up six and 67, respectively.

The physicality of the game lived up to all the hype it presented during the week and the KU defense kept to its end of the bargain, forcing three turnovers, including two fumbles. Junior safety Isaiah Johnson led the way with eight solo stops, while senior linebacker Ben Heeney added seven tackles of his own, two for a loss, and jarred the ball loose for a turnover in the second half.

Kansas wasted no time scoring the game's first points after Pierson opened the first offensive series with a career-long 74-yard touchdown run 18 seconds into the first quarter. Pierson's run was the first time the Jayhawks have scored on the first offensive play of a game since Dezmon Briscoe's 60-yard touchdown reception from Todd Reesing against Minnesota in 2008.

The defense kept momentum on its side when senior BUCK Michael Reynolds hit Central Michigan quarterback Cooper Rush for his first sack of the season, also forcing Rush to fumble on his own 19-yard line into the hands of junior defensive lineman Ben Goodman. After the turnover, the Jayhawks were unable to add to their lead when Cozart made the first of just a few mistakes and an errant pass attempt found the hands of CMU defensive end Mitch Stanitzek for his third interception on the season.

The Kansas defense held the run-happy CMU offense to just 61 yards on the ground in the first half. After three ineffective series with the ball, Central Michigan managed to string together a long drive mid-way through the second quarter, resulting in a 37-yard field goal from the leg of kicker Brian Eavey to cut into KU's lead, 7-3.

Following a 27-minute weather delay to start of the second half, the KU defense picked up right where it left off when Heeney forced the second fumble of his career, and the second on the day, to set up a quick scoring drive for the Jayhawks.

Cozart found Mundine for his career-high fifth reception of the day for 18 yards on a tight end pop pass, setting up a 27-yard field goal from the boot of sophomore kicker Matthew Wyman to increase the KU lead with 9:52 left in the third quarter, 10-3.

Central Michigan answered back with a 75-yard drive of its own with running back Martez Walker doing most of the damage on the ground. Walker tallied 46 yards rushing in the series, including his 18-yard touchdown run to knot the score up, 10-10, with 6:11 left in third quarter.

Kansas had another prime opportunity to tack on some more points, but Wyman's 35-yard field goal attempt missed wide right, giving Central Michigan the ball back at its own 20-yard line. A fired up Jayhawk defense took the field and forced a crucial three-and-out, thanks to a big pass breakup by senior cornerback JaCorey Shepherd.

KU got the ball back at its own 28-yard line by way of a CMU punt, setting the table for a fourth-quarter score. On second down, Cozart connected with senior wide receiver Justin McCay for a 60-yard touchdown reception, the longest catch of his career, to regain the lead for Kansas, 17-10, with 13:23 left in the game.

The Jayhawks added seven more points when freshman running back Corey Avery found the end zone for the first time in his career off a 30-yard pass from Cozart with 1:58 to play to put the game out of reach, 24-10. Shepherd then sealed the Chippewas' fate with an interception to keep Central Michigan from scoring and lock up the game in favor of KU.

4 OFFENSIVE WOES DOOM JAYHAWKS IN LOSS TO TEXAS

TEXAS (2-2, 1-0)	23
KANSAS (2-2, 0-1)	0

MEMORIAL STADIUM • LAWRENCE, KAN.

Four interceptions and two fourth-down miscues haunted the Kansas football team Saturday afternoon at Memorial Stadium as the Longhorns clipped the Jayhawks, 23-0, to open up Big 12 Conference play.

Texas stymied the Jayhawks and forced Kansas sophomore quarterback Montell Cozart into a career-high four interceptions – none more devastating than the first and fourth picks that set the table for Texas to score nine of its 16 points on the day. The Kansas defense was equally stout as senior linebacker Ben Heeney logged his 14th double-digit tackling effort and the team limited the Longhorns to just 13 points through three quarters, but KU couldn't find a way to light up the scoreboard.

The Jayhawks (2-2, 0-1 Big 12) had more than enough opportunities to put some points on the board, but two fourth-down stops by the Longhorns (2-2, 1-0 Big 12), one on the five-yard line, shutout Kansas for the first time in 2014 and the first time since the squad's loss at Iowa State, 34-0, Nov. 23, 2013.

Cozart finished the game 12-of-31 for 140 yards. Junior running back De'Andre Mann led the ground attack with 17 touches for 83 yards, including a 20-yard rush in the third quarter. Three different receivers posted 30 or more yard efforts in the KU aerial attack, with senior Nick Harwell leading the squad with 39 yards on five receptions.

Texas quarterback Tyrone Swoopes completed 19 passes for 218 yards and two touchdowns, and connected six times with wide receiver John Harris for 89 yards and a touchdown.

Heeney had 10 stops, including a half sack and 1.5 TFLs. Junior defensive lineman Andrew Bolton racked up a career-high five stops with 0.5 sacks and 2.5 TFLs, both career-highs as well.

KU's prime scoring opportunity came late in the third quarter when the Jayhawks drove the ball deep into Texas territory thanks to Mann's 31 yards on the ground. Cozart connected with Harwell for 11 yards to move the ball to the UT nine-yard line. Faced with fourth down, Cozart threw a fade to junior wide receiver Nigel King but Longhorn defensive back Thomas Duke broke up the pass and ended Kansas' scoring chances.

The Jayhawk defense held Texas scoreless in the third quarter to keep the game manageable with a 13-point deficit. A fourth quarter interception by Cozart and a failed fourth-down conversion paved the way for UT to tack on another 10 points, resulting in the game's final, 23-0.

The game kicked off with a defensive battle throughout much of the opening quarter with a turnover credited to each defensive squad. The Jayhawks' came late in the first quarter when Texas fumbled the ball on the KU two yard line. The Texas defense erased that quickly when it forced Kansas to punt, with senior Trevor Pardula legging one 51 yards.

However, Longhorn wide receiver and return man Jaxon Shipley found a hole and returned the boot 41 yards to the Kansas 18-yard line to set up the ensuing scoring drive that ended with Swoopes completing a touchdown pass to wide out MJ McFarland with 55 seconds left in the first. A failed extra point attempt left UT on top, 6-0, heading into the second period.

The defensive attack continued until late in the second quarter when Texas forced Cozart to throw his second interception of the game leaving the Longhorns with prime field position on the Kansas 13-yard line and an opportunity to tack on more points.

UT took advantage and Swoopes showed off his ground speed running it in for the game's second score in favor of the Longhorns, 13-0, with 4:42 left in the half.

5 MOUNTAINEERS' ATTACK TOO MUCH, KU FALLS

KANSAS (2-3, 0-2)	14
WEST VIRGINIA (3-2, 1-1)	33

MILAN PUSKAR STADIUM • MORGANTOWN, W. VA.
OCT. 4, 2014 • ATTENDANCE: 52,164

With the lack of a rhythm on offense, Kansas senior punter Trevor Pardula found himself in a familiar spot Saturday evening at Milan Puskar Stadium as the Jayhawks dropped their first conference road game of the 2014 season to West Virginia, 33-14.

The punter booted a career-high 14 punts, six of 50 yards or more, pinning WVU down inside the 20-yard line three times. His 14 boots broke the Milan Puskar Stadium record for most punts in a game by an individual opponent and ranks second all-time in the Kansas history books.

However, for the second straight week, the Kansas (2-3, 0-2 Big 12) offense lacked a significant presence gaining just 176 yards of total offense. Freshman running back Corey Avery ran for 58 yards and a touchdown, while sophomore quarterback Montell Cozart completed eight passes for 65 yards.

The highlight for KU came on special teams when the squad chalked up its first touchdown of the season late in the fourth quarter. Senior wide receiver Nick Harwell returned a punt 76 yards for a score, his first as a Jayhawk, and first for a Kansas player since Daymond Patterson returned a punt 75 yards for a TD against Florida International in 2008.

West Viginia (3-2, 1-1 Big 12) gained 557 yards from scrimmage with three touchdowns. Quarterback Clint Trickett paced the attack completing 20 passes for 302 yards and a touchdown. Kevin White was on the receiving end of that touchdown and finished the game with six snags for 132 yards. Running back Rushel Shell led the push on the ground with 113 yards and a touchdown.

Against a potent offensive aerial assault, Kansas' secondary got plenty of action on the day. Junior safety Isaiah Johnson led the team with nine tackles. When the Mountaineers looked to score again, Johnson picked a pass off at the goal line and returned it 29 yards to the KU 30-yard line. On the edge, senior cornerback JaCorey Shepherd tallied four stops and tied a career-high with three pass breakups.

West Virginia controlled the pace of the first half, tallying 26 points thanks to 343 yards of total offense. The quick, athletic Mountaineer attack held true to its form, scoring 16-unanswered points to open the first quarter. Kicker Josh Lambert drained three-straight field goals (42, 25 and 43), before quarterback Clint Trickett connected with wide receiver Kevin White for 63 yards and the game's first touchdown with 36 seconds left in the first period.

The second quarter sang much of the same tune, with Shell taking a carry into the end zone with 4:09 to play in the half, increasing WVU's lead, 23-0. Lambert added three more points with a field goal of 53 yards to close out the half and leave Kansas with a 26-point deficit.

Offensively, the Jayhawks mustered only 84 yards of offense, failing to cross the 50-yard line in seven first-half possessions. Junior wide receiver Nigel King had the half's longest play, hauling in a 30-yard strike from Cozart. But the inconsistency and inability to sustain drives along with multiple penalties on offense stifled any chance for Kansas to tack on points in the first half.

Kansas toughened up its defensive presence in the second half forcing West Virginia to give the ball up on three-straight possessions to open the third quarter.

With West Virginia driving, Johnson recorded his first interception of the season returning it 29 yards to the Kansas 30-yard line. The Jayhawks held WVU to its first three-and-out of the game on its next possession before capitalizing on a muffed punt to regain possession for the first time inside West Virginia territory.

After recovering the ball at the 18-yard line, the Jayhawks handed the ball to Avery who powered his way into the end zone from four yards out capping off a five-play drive and giving KU its first points since Sept. 20 against Central Michigan. The celebration was short lived, however, because on the ensuing kick off West Virginia's Mario Alford took the ball 94 yards for a touchdown that sealed the game.

Late in the fourth quarter the Kansas defense had secured another stop and forced West Virginia to punt. Harwell caught the ball at the KU 24-yard line and ran untouched down the sideline for a 76-yard touchdown return. Harwell's return was too little too late for Kansas as the seven second-half points scored by WVU were too much to overcome and the Jayhawks fell by a final score of 33-14.

6 NO. 16 COWBOYS EEK PAST JAYHAWKS

OKLAHOMA STATE (5-1, 3-0)	27
KANSAS (2-4, 0-3)	20

MEMORIAL STADIUM • LAWRENCE, KAN.
OCT. 11, 2014 • ATTENDANCE: 31,985

Oklahoma State's Tyreek Hill used a 99-yard kickoff return for a touchdown to dash hopes of a Kansas upset of the No. 16 Cowboys Saturday afternoon at Memorial Stadium. Hill was bottled up for much of the game but responded to a game-tying touchdown by Kansas in the waning minutes, leading Oklahoma State to a 27-20 victory.

Hill, Oklahoma State's "Cheetah", surged past Kansas' "Junkyard dog" quarterback Michael Cummings, who set new career highs with 20 completions for 288 yards in his first start since 2012. Cummings engineered several key drives for Kansas, including a 14-play, 72-yard drive to set up a game-tying field goal from Matthew Wyman with 6:55 left in the game, but couldn't find an answer in the final minute and was intercepted on fourth down to end KU's threat.

Kansas (2-4, 0-3 Big 12) outgained Oklahoma State (5-1, 3-0 Big 12) in total yardage, 379-275, including a season-best 288 through the air and played stifling defense in the second half while holding the Pokes to just 60 second-half yards. KU's Nick Harwell caught seven passes for a game-high 91 yards and was followed closely by tight end Jimmay Mundine, who snagged five passes and lumbered for 88 yards. Defensively, Kansas was led by Ben Heeney who logged 14 total tackles, including 3.5 for loss.

Oklahoma State was led offensively by Desmond Roland, who rushed for 87 yards and a first quarter touchdown, while OSU quarterback Daxx Garman was 17-of-31 for 161 yards and threw a touchdown and a interception in the game. Ben Grogan knocked through 2-of-3 field goal tries.

The Jayhawks looked poised to upset their first ranked opponent since 2010. In interim head coach Clint Bowen's second full week leading the program, the Jayhawks held Oklahoma State without a score in the second half while taking advantage of Cassius Sendish's first career interception and wacky forced fumble recovery. Kansas rallied from a 20-7 halftime deficit, only to see Hill scorch the special teams and lift Oklahoma State to a Big 12 Conference win.

Still, the game had a different feel than recent meetings with the Cowboys.

Grogan opened the scoring in the first quarter with a 43-yard attempt to give OSU a 3-0 lead with 9:36 to play, but Kansas used an early, heavy dose of Tony Pierson to find a way through the Cowboy defense.

Pierson tied a season high with seven total touches in the first quarter of the game and had 10 total touches in the first half, and despite only tallying 44 yards before the break, the strategy seemed to open up additional options for Kansas. Pierson rushed four times early in the answering drive before Cummings went over the top to Harwell for a 51-yard connection into the Oklahoma State red zone. Cummings capped the drive with a 1-yard touchdown dive and gave Kansas its first lead in a Big 12 contest since upsetting West Virginia at home last season.

The scoring flurry continued as Roland gashed the middle of the Kansas defense for a 33-yard touchdown scamper to make it 10-7 at the end of the first quarter. Grogan added his second field goal early in the next period from 25 yards out to make it a 13-7 contest and that's where the score appeared to be stalling heading into the half after he missed a 33-yard try – but Oklahoma State made use of timeouts and short punt to tack on a final tally before the break.

Kansas ended Oklahoma State's first drive after the half when Sendish ran under a deep Garman pass, forced a three-and-out on the second drive, then forced a forward fumble off a sack by Michael Reynolds that laid on the field for a couple seconds before either team realized it was a live ball.

After missing a field goal try with 5:54 to play, Wyman punched a 21-yarder through with 3:08 left in the third to cut Oklahoma State's lead to 20-10.

Like Roland for OSU in the first half, KU's Corey Avery found a huge hole and scampered for a 23-yard score less than a minute into the fourth quarter, then Wyman tied it up after a drive stalled just short of a first down in Oklahoma State territory, knocking through a 35-yard attempt with 6:55 to play.

That's when Hill struck.

Kansas had two opportunities with the ball late in the game but Oklahoma State stepped up the pressure, forcing a three-and-out on the first drive and then intercepted Cummings near midfield to end any chance of another rally.

7 KANSAS EDGED BY TEXAS TECH

KANSAS (2-5, 0-4)	21
TEXAS TECH (3-4, 1-3)	34

JONES AT&T STADIUM • LUBBOCK, TEXAS
OCT. 18, 2014 • ATTENDANCE: 54,071

Senior linebacker Ben Heeney bolstered the defensive attack with a career-high and 2014 Big 12 Conference best 21 tackles as the Kansas football team fell to Texas Tech, 34-21, at Jones AT&T Stadium Saturday afternoon.

Heeney's defensive show began with 10 stops in the first quarter and ended with the most tackles by a Jayhawk since Nov. 22, 1979, when LeRoy Irvin, Sr., accomplished the same feat against Missouri.

The senior captain stole the spotlight with an unprecedented defensive effort that included a 37-yard interception return to set the table for Kansas to tack on its first points of the game late in the second quarter as the squad trailed 17-0 at that point.

The game's next two closest tacklers to Heeney were TTU's Austin Stewart and Pete Robertson, who each tallied nine stops in the contest.

The Jayhawk (2-5, 0-4) aerial attack scored the majority of the points against Texas Tech (3-4, 1-3) on the day, with junior quarterback Michael Cummings involved in all three KU touchdowns. Cummings threw for a career-best two scores and rushed for another, finishing the game 20-of-32 for 235 yards and an interception.

Senior tight end Jimmay Mundine and senior wide receiver Justin McCay were on the receiving end of those touchdown passes, with Mundine hauling in a career-best seven receptions for 82 yards, six yards shy of his career mark set a week ago against Oklahoma State.

Much like last week, it was a tale of two halves for the Jayhawk offense as the unit erupted to score the majority of its points in the second half, with 14 of them off TTU turnovers.

The Red Raiders' offensive dominance showed up throughout much of the first half scoring 17-unanswered points, thanks to a 34-yard field goal by kicker Ryan Bustin and two Davis Webb touchdown passes of 13 and eight yards, respectively. Webb finished the game 28-of-44 with 288 yards and an interception.

However, Heeney swiped the momentum right away from TTU with an unprecedented defensive effort in the half that included 14 tackles and an interception.

With 2:31 to play in the second quarter, Heeney picked off the fourth pass of his career and returned it 37 yards to the Texas Tech 39-yard line to give Kansas prime field position to break its second-quarter scoreless drought and the 17-unanswered points scored by TTU.

Seven plays and 39 yards later, Cummings connected with McCay for a 16-yard touchdown pass, the first points scored in the second quarter all season by the KU, to cut the Jayhawk's deficit to 10 points, 17-7, to end of the half.

Heeney led all tacklers through the first two periods with 14 stops, just one shy of his then career-best mark of 15, while the next closest tackler, teammate Cassius Sendish, tallied just five total.

Faced with a 13-point deficit early in the second half, senior BUCK Michael Reynolds picked up where he left off last week and sacked Texas Tech quarterback Davis Webb to force a fumble with 9:17 left to play in the third quarter.

Two plays and 27 yards later, Cummings connected with Mundine for a 21-yard touchdown reception to pull within six of the Red Raiders, 20-14.

TTU answered back with another touchdown, before Kansas ended the third period with its final score to cut the Texas Tech lead back down to six, 27-21. Cummings scored that final touchdown on the ground, thanks to a one-yard effort put forth by the junior with three seconds remaining in the quarter.

A fourth quarter fumble by freshman running back Corey Avery and another TTU touchdown ended the hopes of a KU comeback, as Kansas fell, 34-21.

8 NO. 12 BAYLOR UPENDS KANSAS

KANSAS (2-6, 0-5)	14
NO. 12 BAYLOR (7-1, 4-1)	60

MCLANE STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS
NOV. 1, 2014 • ATTENDANCE: 47,574

Ball security proved to be the difference maker Saturday afternoon at McLane Stadium, as the Kansas football team dropped its fifth-straight game, falling victim to the No. 12-ranked Baylor Bears, 60-14.

The Jayhawks (2-6, 0-5 Big 12) fumbled the ball five times and turned it over three times in the first half, helping Baylor (7-1, 4-1 Big 12) eclipse the 60-point mark for the fourth time this season.

Junior quarterback Michael Cummings connected on 21-of-30 pass attempts for 288 yards to tie his career-high in passing yards set three weeks ago against Oklahoma State (Oct. 11). Freshman running back Corey Avery caught four of those for a career-high 92 yards, while senior wide receiver Nick Harwell hauled in five receptions for 79 yards and two touchdowns.

That was the second multi-touchdown performance of the season for Harwell, as he snagged two touchdown passes in the season opener against Southeast Missouri State. Those two scores also marked the first time that a Kansas receiver had two or more multi-touchdown games in a season since Dezmon Briscoe and Kerry Meier accomplished the same feat in 2009.

BU quarterback Bryce petty threw for 277 yards and three touchdowns, while wide receiver Corey Coleman finished the game with three receptions for 167 yards and two of those touchdowns.

Defensively for Kansas, senior linebacker Ben Heeney paced the Jayhawk defense with his 17th-career game with 10 or more tackles, finishing the game with 10 stops. Sophomore safety Fish Smithson wasn't far behind with a career-high nine stops against the Bears.

The Kansas defense kept the high potent Bears' offensive attack at bay on their opening possession, holding Baylor to just its second three-and-out on its first drive of the 2014 season. However, it only took BU one play and 11 seconds on its second possession to advance 72 yards for the game's first score when Petty connected with Coleman for the 7-0 lead.

Baylor tacked on another quick six points, after a botched exchange from freshman center Joe Gibson to Cummings set up another scoring drive from the KU 18-yard line. It only took four plays, capped off by a one-yard touchdown run by BU running back Devin Chafin, to extend the Bears' lead, 13-0, which would stand after a missed extra point by kicker Chris Callahan.

A 13-0 deficit didn't faze Kansas midway through the first quarter as newly appointed Co-Offensive Coordinator Eric Kiesau huddled the troops on the Baylor 23-yard line to lay out the offensive approach for the Jayhawks' next possession. The calming presence worked with KU driving 77 yards to cut into the BU lead, 13-7.

Cummings hit Avery on a blitz read for a 36-yard reception to advance Kansas across mid-field for the first time on the day. The aerial attack continued on the drive with a 28-yard touchdown pass to Harwell to give Kansas its first points on the day. That was the first catch and score by the wide out since his two-touchdown showing against Southeast Missouri State in the season opener.

After Harwell's touchdown, Baylor received the ensuing kickoff and never looked back, scoring 26-unanswered points to close out the first half and dig a 32-point deficit for the Jayhawks, 39-7. The Kansas defense, trying to make up for the lackluster of an offensive presence in the first half, did its best to keep the Bears off the scoreboard, allowing just four touchdowns on eight BU scoring drives, including holding Baylor to three field goals on six trips inside the red zone.

The Bears kept the momentum until late in the third quarter, when KU broke a 34:40 scoring drought from the first quarter with its second touchdown on the day.

Faced with a second and long situation, Cummings hit Avery on another blitz read for career-best 49 yards to the Baylor three yard line. On the next play, Cummings handed the ball back to Avery for a quick two yards, before hitting Harwell in the corner of the endzone for his second score of the game and his second multi-touchdown performance of the season.

However, the hole Baylor dug the Jayhawks into was far too great, as KU dropped its sixth game of the season and its fifth-straight to the Bears, 60-14.
