Men’s Basketball Game Notes

Game #6

WOFFORD (4-1)

vs.

Ohio Valley (0-1)

Tuesday, November 25, 2014 • 7:00 p.m.
Benjamin Johnson Arena • Spartanburg, S.C.

Video: SoCon Digital Network (Play-by-Play: Mark Hauser — Color: Thom Henson)
Flagships: The Source - WOLI-AM (105.7 FM & 910 AM)

Storylines

Opening Tip

- On the heels of four straight wins, the Wofford men’s basketball team returns home to take on Ohio Valley (NCAA Div. II) on Tuesday at 7 p.m. inside Benjamin Johnson Arena.

Welcome Coach Morris

- The Terriers welcome honorary coach Jack Morris to the sidelines for tonight’s game ... Morris is an 84-year-old veteran of the Korean War, who was offered the opportunity to be the team’s honorary coach two weeks ago on Veterans Day ... Wofford head coach Mike Young surprised Morris with the opportunity at his home of Eden Terrace in Spartanburg ... Morris played high school basketball in the state of Georgia in his youth, but gave up the opportunity to play collegiately to provide for his family and later serve two years for his country ... Wofford and Eden Terrace partnered with the foundation Second Wind Dreams to make Morris’ wish a reality.

4-0 Week

- Wofford played four games in a span of six days from Tuesday, Nov. 18 - Sunday, Nov. 23, posting a perfect 4-0 record ... The last time the Terriers won four games in a span of a week or less from Jan. 23-29, 1992, when they defeated Allen, Queens (N.C.), Catawba and Voorhees as a member of NCAA Div. II ... Wofford has won four games in a span of eight days three times during the Div. I era, the last occasion being Nov. 14-21, 2006 against Erskine, Union (Ky.), Jacksonville State and Cincinnati.

Best Start Since...

- With a record of 4-1, Wofford is off to its best five-game start since the 2006-07 season ... That year, the Terriers finished the season with a 92-88 loss at NC State; but followed with wins over Erskine, Union (Ky.), Jacksonville State and Cincinnati ... A win tonight would give the Terriers their best six-game start of the program’s NCAA Div. I era (1995-96), and best since the 1993-94 campaign, when they went 21-6 overall and started 13-1.

A Schedule of Firsts

- Ohio Valley marks the fifth opponent in just six games this season that Wofford will play for the first time ... The Terriers began the year playing Stanford for the first time (Nov. 14) and met up with three first-time opponents last weekend at the Coaches vs. Cancer sub-regional in Connecticut (Fairfield, South Dakota, Sam Houston State) ... Wofford has a 3-1 record against its first-time opponents this season.

2014-15 Wofford Basketball Notes

Last Time Out
- Wofford returns to Benjamin Johnson Arena after playing three games in three days at the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic sub-regional, hosted by Fairfield at Webster Bank Arena in Bridgeport, Conn. ... The Terriers began the tournament with a 54-36 triumph over the host Stags on Friday night ... Wofford’s defense held Fairfield to a season-best 31.4-percent shooting. ... The Terriers led 20-12 at halftime, allowing the fewest first-half points since Nov. 13, 2007, when the Terriers led Lees-McRae 42-10 at the break ... Saturday, Wofford took on South Dakota after the Coyotes lost in triple overtime the night before to Sam Houston State ... Karl Cochran went for a career-high 31 points and eight made 3-pointers, leading Wofford to a 23-point lead with 10 minute remaining ... USD chipped away at the lead, but still trailed by 10 with 37 seconds left ... The final minute was chaotic and included a technical foul on Justin Gordon ( inadvertent elbow to the head), and South Dakota cut the lead all the way to three points with 1.3 seconds to play ... Wofford successfully in-bounded the ball and Eric Garcia was fouled, hitting 1-0 of-2 at the free throw line to finally put the game away ... Sunday, four Terriers scored in double figures, led by 14 points from Eric Garcia, in a 64-53 win over Sam Houston State ... Heading into the game, both Wofford and Sam Houston were 2-0 in the tournament ... Wofford’s defense was stout once again, holding the Bearkats to 1-0 of-24 from beyond the arc, including an 0-0 start...

Cochran Highlighted by Mid-Major Madness
- Senior Karl Cochran was named Player of the Week by Mid-Major Madness (Nov. 24) after leading the Terriers to a 4-0 record with wins over Iona, Fairfield, South Dakota and Sam Houston State ... He averaged 18.3 points, 6.5 rebounds, 3.0 assists and 1.8 steals through the week, highlighted by his career-high 31 points on 8-0 of-14 from three against South Dakota ... Cochran also posted a double-double in the win over the Stags, 20 points in the ESPN College Hoops Tip-Off Marathon victory against Iona, and concluded the week with 12 points and six boards against Sam Houston State ... The player-of-the-week award was the inaugural honor presented by Mid-Major Madness...

Cochran, Skinner Named CVC Classic All-Tournament Team
- Senior Karl Cochran and Lee Skinner were named to the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic Fairfield Sub-Regional All-Tournament Team at the conclusion of last weekend’s play ... Cochran averaged 17.7 points on 46.5-percent shooting and a 12-of-25 mark from three, also going for 7.7 rebounds and 2.0 steals per contest ... Skinner grabbed 23 total rebounds to average 7.7 as well, but also included eight boards on the offensive end...

- Senior Karl Cochran scored a career-high 31 points in a 72-68 victory over South Dakota last Saturday (Nov. 22) in Bridgeport, Conn. ... Cochran also marked a career-high with eight made 3-pointers and had 20 points on six made triples at the half ... His final three of the first half came after a Terrier steal in the final seconds and went in at the buzzer ... Cochran’s previous career-high was 30 points, which he scored against Chattanooga as a sophomore on Feb. 16, 2013...

Mid-Major Respect
- After winning four straight games against the likes of Iona, Fairfield, South Dakota and Sam Houston State, the Terriers were highlighted by Mid-Major Madness, appearing in their “Power 15” on Monday at No. 15 ... Collegelinsider.com also took notice of the Terriers, ranking them No. 19 in their Mid-Major Top 25...

More on Morris
- On Veterans Day, Wofford head coach Mike Young made a special visit to Eden Terrace, an assisted living home on the east side of Spartanburg ... Coach Young surprised a resident of the facility, 84-year-old Jack Morris, with an offer to be an honorary coach at the November 25 home game against Ohio Valley ... Morris is a veteran of the Korean War who served two years ... He was a star high school basketball player in Georgia who was recruited to play college basketball ... Instead of going to college, Morris made the unselfish decision to go to work for his family and was then drafted to serve his country ... He always wanted to be part of a college basketball team, which is why Coach Young surprised him with the offer to be an honorary coach ... Eden Terrace and Wofford partnered with the foundation “Second Wind Dreams” to make it all happen ... The foundation helps senior citizens a lifelong wish and is very similar to the Make a Wish Foundation ... The story was picked up by NBC Sports, "Second Wind Dreams" to make it all happen ... The fountation helps grant senior citizens a lifelong wish and is very similar to the Make a Wish Foundation ...

Unorthodox Scheduling
- The Terriers have had quite the interesting start to the 2014-15 campaign in terms of scheduling and game times ... Wofford flew cross country to begin the season at Stanford, playing the Cardinal at 9 p.m. pacific time (midnight eastern) Friday, Nov. 14 ... After returning home Saturday night around 11:30 p.m., the Terriers hosted Iona at 7 a.m. ... The final minute was chaotic and included a technical foul on Justin Gordon ( inadvertent elbow to the head), and South Dakota cut the lead all the way to three points with 1.3 seconds to play ... Wofford successfully in-bounded the ball and Eric Garcia was fouled, hitting 1-0 of-2 at the free throw line to finally put the game away ... Sunday, four Terriers scored in double figures, led by 14 points from Eric Garcia, in a 64-53 win over Sam Houston State ... Heading into the game, both Wofford and Sam Houston were 2-0 in the tournament ... Wofford’s defense was stout once again, holding the Bearkats to 1-0 of-24 from beyond the arc, including an 0-0 start...

Success in Home Openers
- Wofford improved to 18-2 in home openers in the NCAA Division I era (1995-96) with an 86-73 win over Iona (Nov. 18) ... The Terriers won 14 straight home openers from 1996-2009 before the streak was ended by Air Force in 2010 in overtime, 72-66 ... Wofford’s current winning streak in home openers stands at four games...
Hooping on the Marathon

The Terriers took part in ESPN’s College Hoops Tip-Off Marathon, hosting Iona at 7 a.m. on Tuesday, November 19 at Benjamin Johnson Arena. The game was telecast on ESPN2 and the Terriers were victorious 86-73. Despite the early tip, there was a great turnout at the BenJo with a recorded attendance of 3,014, marking the arena’s largest in over five years. It was the first time Wofford was featured on the network’s marathon.

Mayoral Proclamation

On Monday, November 10, Spartanburg City Mayor Junie White proclaimed Tuesday, November 18, to be Wofford Basketball Team Day. The proclamation was presented to Wofford head coach Mike Young at a city council meeting. Mayor White proclaimed the day to recognize the Terriers for their success over the past several years and for the national exposure ESPN’s College Hoops Marathon brings to the city of Spartanburg.

Preseason Favorites

At Southern Conference Basketball Media Day, Wofford was selected by both the coaches and media as the preseason favorite. The Terriers received eight of 10 first place votes from the coaches, along with 23 of 25 first place votes from the media. Seniors Karl Cochran, Lee Skinner and junior Spencer Collins were named to the Preseason All-Conference Team. Cochran, who led the Terriers last season and defeated No. 3-seeded Duke as a No. 14 seed in the second round 78-71, is fifth in 3-pointers made, coming off his best scoring year of 414 points as a sophomore and enters Tuesday with 860 for his career.

Cochran Chasing the Top 10

With 84 points so far this season, senior guard Karl Cochran has 1,468 to rank No. 14 in Wofford’s career record books. He needs 104 points to crack Wofford’s all-time top 10... Last season, Cochran led Wofford with 511 points. If he posted the same amount this year, he would finish his career with 1,895 to rank No. 6 all-time.

Within Striking Distance

Senior Lee Skinner and junior Spencer Collins are on pace to become Wofford’s 44th and 45th 1,000-point club... Two Terriers who could reach the milestone are on the list include Belmont, BYU, Gonzaga, Harvard, LIU-Brooklyn, Montana, New Mexico, New Mexico St., Sant Louis, San Diego St., St. Mary’s, Temple, UNIV, VCU, and Wichita St.

Preseason Favorites

Wofford is one of 53 schools to have earned an NCAA Tournament bid in three of the last five seasons... The Terriers are just one of 16 schools on that list from a non-power conference (excludes the ACC, American, Big East, Big Ten, Big XII, Pac-12, SEC)... Other non-power conference teams to appear on the list include Belmont, BYU, Gonzaga, Harvard, LIU-Brooklyn, Montana, New Mexico, New Mexico St., Sant Louis, San Diego St., St. Mary’s, Temple, UNIV, VCU, and Wichita St.

Tournament Tough

Wofford’s 2014-15 schedule features four NCAA Tournament teams from a year ago... Stanford advanced the furthest, making it to the Sweet 16 as a No. 10 seed with wins over New Mexico (58-53) and Kansas (60-57)... Wofford also meets up with NC State and Duke, as well as two matchups with one of the Southern Conference’s newest members, Mercer... Mercer won the Atlantic Sun Tournament last season and defeated No. 3-seeded Duke as a No. 14 seed in the second round 78-71.

NCAA Tournament Fixture

Wofford is one of 53 schools to have earned an NCAA Tournament bid in three of the last five seasons... The Terriers are just one of 16 schools on that list from a non-power conference (excludes the ACC, American, Big East, Big Ten, Big XII, Pac-12, SEC)... Other non-power conference teams to appear on the list include Belmont, BYU, Gonzaga, Harvard, LIU-Brooklyn, Montana, New Mexico, New Mexico St., Sant Louis, San Diego St., St. Mary’s, Temple, UNIV, VCU, and Wichita St.

Cochran Chasing the Top 10

With 84 points so far this season, senior guard Karl Cochran has 1,468 to rank No. 14 in Wofford’s career record books... He needs 104 points to crack Wofford’s all-time top 10... The No. 10 spot is currently held by George Lyons with 1,454 points. James Blair, Greg O’Dell and Daddy Neal and Noah Dahlman join Lyons as the only five to eclipse 2,000 points.

Within Striking Distance

Senior Lee Skinner and junior Spencer Collins are on pace to become Wofford’s 44th and 45th 1,000-point scorers... Skinner enters Tuesday with 943 points after scoring 21 in the first two games... Collins is off his best scoring year of 414 points as a sophomore and enters Tuesday with 860 for his career.

Cochran from Three

Karl Cochran enters the weekend with 231 made 3-pointers and 685 attempts from beyond the arc... He is fifth in 3-pointers made, needing 69 to set a new record of 300 and surpass Ian Chadwick’s (1998-2001) mark of 299... Each of the last two seasons, he has made 78, so breaking the record isn’t out of the question.

1,000-Point Club

Only 43 players in Wofford history have reached the 1,000-point mark... The group is led by George Lyons with 2,521 points. James Blair, Greg O’Dell and Daddy Neal and Noah Dahlman join Lyons as the only five to eclipse 2,000 points.

Current senior Karl Cochran is the only active Terrier in the 1,000-point club... Two Terriers who could reach the milestone this season are senior Lee Skinner and junior Spencer Collins... Skinner began the season 103 points away with 897 and Collins had accumulated 811 points through his first two seasons.
2014-15 Wofford Basketball Notes

DID WE MENTION HE CAN STEAL TOO?

Karl Cochran led the Southern Conference in steals last season with 2.0 per game (43 total) ... The 63 steals were the ninth most in a single season at Wofford ... Cochran was the first Terrier to ever lead the SoCon in steals for a season ... He ranks No. 5 in school history with 166 career steals, needing 34 to become the fourth Terrier to ever swipe 200 ... Current Director of Operations Drew Gibson (2004-08) knows a thing or two about steals, ranking third all-time with 213 ... Gibson was also the last Terrier to eclipse 200 ... Current Terrier assistant Tim Johnson also appears in the top 10 in eighth (142).

Familiar Faces

- The Wofford basketball staff is full of familiar faces to the program ... The newest member is Drew Gibson, who was hired this year as the Director of Basketball Operations ... Gibson was a four-year member of the program (2004-08) and spent the past six years playing overseas ... He was most recently of member of UMF Tindastoll in Iceland ... Assistant coaches Tim Johnson and Kevin Giltnner enter their second year on staff ... Both are also Wofford basketball graduates ... Johnson was a starter for Wofford's back-to-back SoCon Championship teams in 2010 & 2011 and Giltnner was also a key member of both of those teams ... Associate head coach Dustin Kerns returned to Wofford last season after spending the past six years at Santa Clara ... Prior to his departure to Santa Clara, Kerns was an assistant coach at Wofford for three seasons from 2004-07.

Season Opening Struggle

- Wofford fell to 1-19 in the NCAA Division I era in season openers with a 74-59 loss at Stanford on Friday, November 14 ... Stanford joined a list of other power conference schools to come away with season-opening wins against Wofford ... Other schools include Arkansas, Auburn, Colorado, Dayton, Georgia (twice), Georgia Tech, Memphis, Miami (FL), Minnesota, Missouri, NC State, Pittsburgh, South Carolina and Tennessee ... The only season-opening win for Wofford in the NCAA Division I era was in 2005 against Fairleigh Dickinson in the Guardians Classic ... The last time the Terriers opened at home was the 1993-94 season.

Loaded With Returners

- All but two letterwinners from last season return for the 2014-15 campaign ... The Terriers bring back all five starters (Garcia, Cochran, Collins, Skinner, Neumann), along with 95 percent of their scoring and 91 percent of their rebounding.

The Newcomers

- Wofford welcomes five newcomers to the program this year ... Derrick Brooks, Cameron Jackson, Larry McKnight, Jr. and Bobby Perez come in as freshmen ... They are joined by Ryan Sawvell, a transfer from Evansville who will sit out the 2014-15 season ... Brooks, McKnight and Perez play at guard, while Jackson and Sawvell play the forward ... Sawvell appeared in 71 games in two-plus seasons at Evansville and was named to the MVC All-Freshman Team in 2011-12 ... The four freshmen all come to Wofford after outstanding high school careers ... Brooks, McKnight and Perez all averaged over 10 points a game as seniors ... McKnight won three state championships at Norland High School ... The forward, Jackson, was named District, Region and Virginia State Coaches Association Player of the Year in 2013-14.

Home Court Advantage

- The Terriers are a tough team to play at home, as evidenced by their 49-14 (.778) mark over the last six years ... In 2009-10, Wofford posted an 11-1 home record, which included wins over Navy and South Carolina ... The 11 wins were the most on the parquet since going 11-2 in the 1994-95 campaign, and one short of the school record of 12 in 1993-94 ... Wofford tied the 11-win mark in 2012-13 and 2014-15.

Small World

- Wofford is currently the third-smallest school in NCAA Division I with an enrollment of 1,600 students ... The smallest school is Presbyterian College at 1,200 ... Fellow Southern Conference member VMI is the second-smallest at 1,550.

Gold Academic Standard

While getting the job done on the court, the Terriers have also been excelling in the classroom ... In the latest NCAA Graduation Success Rate report released in October of 2014, Wofford had eight of 13 teams post a score of 100 ... Men’s basketball posted a GSR of 91, which ranked fifth in the Southern Conference.

About Wofford

Wofford College, established in 1854, is an independent liberal arts college in Spartanburg, S.C. (average SAT for incoming class, 1237) ... Wofford ranks in the top five nationally in the percentage of undergraduates receiving credit for study abroad ... Home to one of the nation’s 276 Phi Beta Kappa chapters, Wofford’s historic 170-acre campus is recognized as a national arboretum ... Affiliated with the United Methodist Church, the college is committed to quintessential undergraduate education within the context of values-based inquiry.

A Look Back — The NCAA Tournament

Michigan 57 - (15) Wofford 40

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — In the second round of the NCAA Tournament, Wofford was defeated 57-40 by Michigan at the BMO Harris Bradley Center. The Wolverines, a #2 seed, took a 14-point lead at the half. The Terriers, the #15 seed, fought back to make it a seven game point with 9:25 remaining before Michigan scored 10 of the next 12 points to pull away. Karl Cochran led all scorers with 17 points, while Justin Gordon added eight for the Terriers. Lee Skinner had six points and six reboudns. The Wolverines were led by Nik Stauskas with 15 points and Glenn Robinson III with 14 points and seven reboudns.

Lee Skinner scored the first four points of the game, but the Wolverines answered and tied the game at 4-4 with 17:05 on the clock. Michigan continued the 9-0 run and had a 9-4 lead five minutes into the first half. A jumper by Jaylen Allen ended the run for a 9-6 score with 12:22 remaining. After a three pointer by Michigan, Justin Gordon made a lay-up for a 12-8 score. The Wolverines scored the next eight points for a 20-8 lead at the eight minute mark. Spencer Collins hit a jumper from just inside the arc to make it 10-10 with 7:47 remaining in the first half. Karl Cochran added a jumper and a pair of free throws by Eric Garcia cut the lead to 23-14 with 4:50 on the clock.

The Wolverines pushed the score to 27-14 before a jumper by Spencer Collins with 2:53 left in the first half. After a three by Michigan, Karl Cochran added a lay-up for a 30-18 score. A steal and lay-up by Karl Cochran cut the lead to 32-20 with 40 seconds on the clock. A pair of Michigan free throws gave them a 34-20 advantage at the break. At the half, Wofford was shooting just 28.6% from the floor and was 0-8 from three. The Wolverines were 63.6% from the floor and had a 16 to 10 lead in reboudns.

Three minutes into the second half, the Wolverines scored the first points on a three pointer by Nik Stauskas for a 37-20 lead. After a free throw for a 38-20 advantage, Wofford went on a 6-0 run that included four points by Karl Cochran to make it 38-26 game with 13:53 on the clock. Another bucket by Karl Cochran cut the score to 38-28 before a dunk by the Wolverines gave them a 40-28 lead with 11:59 left in the second half. Justin Gordon added a bucket for Wofford to make it a 40-30 game at the midpoint of the second half. A three pointer from the top of the arc by Karl Cochran cut the lead to 40-35 with 9:25 on the clock. The Wolverines then hit a bucket and free throw for a 43-33 lead. Justin Gordon had a lay-up to make it a 43-35 game, but Michigan answered with a 7-0 run to take a 50-35 lead with 4:19 remaining in the half.

The Terriers had a lay-up by Karl Cochran, but a three pointer by the Wolverines pushed the lead to 53-37 with 3:37 left on the clock. Lee Skinner tipped in the ball for a 53-39 lead. After a three pointer by Nik Stauskas effectively ended the game with 1:03 remaining. Both teams cleared the bench with 31.4 seconds left in the game with no points scored.

Michigan Advances

Michigan moved on to the Sweet Sixteen with a 79-65 win over Texas. They added a 73-71 victory over Tennessee to reach the Elite Eight before falling 75-72 to Kentucky... Note that the Wofford defense held the Wolverines to 20 fewer points than Texas, 73-71 victory over Tennessee to reach the Elite Eight before falling 75-72 to Kentucky...

NCAA Tournament Extras

The Southern Conference in the NCAA's

Last year, the state of South Carolina was represented by two schools: Wofford and Coastal Carolina. None of the state's 12 D-I programs had made the NCAA tournament each of the previous two years. It was just the fourth year in NCAA history multiple teams from the state of South Carolina qualify... Winthrop and College of Charleston went in 1999, and Winthrop was joined by South Carolina State in 2000 and Wofford in 2010.

South Carolina Representatives

Overall, the state of South Carolina has been represented in the NCAA Tournament by Clemson (11 times, last 2011), College of Charleston (four times, last 1999), Charleston Southern (once in 1997), Coastal Carolina (three times, last 2014), Furman (six times, last 1980), South Carolina (eight times, last 2004), South Carolina State (five times, last 2003), Winthrop (nine times, last 2010), and Wofford (three times, last in 2014). The Citadel, Presbyterian, and USC Upstate have never reached the NCAA Tournament.

Wofford in the NCAA Tournament

- 2009-2010: (4) Wisconsin 53 — (13) Wofford 49
- 2010-2011: (3) BYU 74 — (14) Wofford 66
- 2013-2014: (2) Michigan 57 — (15) Wofford 40

SoCon in the NCAA Tournament

The Southern Conference first had a team participate in the NCAA Tournament in 1939 (Wake Forest). In the last 10 years, Davidson (2006, 07, 08, 12, 13), Chattanooga (five times, last 2003), Winthrop (nine times, last 2010), and Wofford (three times, last 2014) have reached the NCAA Tournament... The Citadel, Presbyterian, and USC Upstate have never reached the NCAA Tournament.
The Championship Game
In the finals of the Southern Conference Tournament at U.S. Cellular Center in Asheville, N.C., Wofford downed Western Carolina 56-53 to win the championship ... The Terriers earned the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament for the third time in the last five years ... Wofford never trailed in the game, but the Catamounts made it a one-point game with eight seconds left ... Karl Cochran hit two free throws with five seconds on the clock and the last shot by Western Carolina was off the mark ... The Terriers were led by SoCon Tournament MVP Karl Cochran with 23 points and five rebounds ... Lee Skinner added 11 points and eight rebounds ... The Catamounts were led by Brandon Boggs with 17 points ... Wofford shot 39.6 pct. from the floor and Western Carolina shot 35.1 pct ... The Terriers were 7-of-21 from three, while the Catamounts were 3-of-18 from behind the arc ... Western Carolina was 10-of-12 from the line, while Wofford was 7-of-15 on free throws ... Western Carolina had a 38-33 lead on the boards, but Wofford had only four turnovers in the game.

SoCon Tournament Honors
At the conclusion of the 2014 Southern Conference Tournament, Karl Cochran was named the Most Outstanding Performer ... He is the only second Wofford player to earn that honor, joining Noah Dahlman (2010 and 2011) ... Cochran and Lee Skinner earned spots on the All-SoCon Tournament first team, while Eric Garcia was named to the second team.

SoCon Schools in the Postseason
In addition to Wofford reaching the NCAA Tournament, Davidson played in the NIT, Chattanooga played in the CIT against new SoCon member East Tennessee State, and another new member, VMI, played in the CIT ... Another new member to the league in 2014-15, Mercer, made the most noise ... The Bears got the Atlantic Sun's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament and pulled off an upset as a No. 14 seed over No. 3 Duke 78-71.

Scheduling Notes

All nine Division I non-conference opponents Wofford faced in 2013-14 had a .500 record or better at the end of the season ... Saint Louis, who defeated Wofford 66-52 on December 14, finished 25th in the USA Today Coaches Poll ... VCU, with a 72-57 win over Wofford on December 17, received votes in the final USA Today Coaches Poll ... Both Saint Louis and VCU were No. 5 seeds in the NCAA Tournament ... Minnesota, a 79-57 winner over the Terriers on February 25, 2010 ... At Furman (1/25), Karl Cochran (22) and Spencer Collins (20) each had 20 or more points ... It was the first time since Brad Losesig (20) and Karl Cochran (20) at Western Carolina, January 7, 2012 that two Terriers scored over 20 in the same game ... Guard Indiana Faithful led the team at the end of the January intermission ... Spencer Collins did not score at The Citadel (2/8) for the first time in his career (54-game streak) ... The 95 points scored against Hiwassee (2/10) were the most since scoring 97 against Chattanooga on February 23, 2011 ... A season-high home crowd of 1,712 were in attendance at Benjamin Johnson Arena against Furman (12/20) ... The 40 points scored against Michigan (3/20) were a season-low ... Wofford had all five starters score in double figures against Georgia Southern (3/9).

Allen Named SoCon Freshman of the Week

Jaylen Allen earned the CRONS Freshman of the Week Award for all games played Dec. 10-16, the league office announced on December 17 ... Allen earned a start at Saint Louis and finished second on the team with nine points in the Terriers' 66-52 loss to the Billikens ... Allen was 3-of-4 from 3-point range and added an assist, one rebound and two steals in 20 minutes of action.
Mixing up the Starters

The Terriers used eight different line-ups in 2013-14 ... The starting line-up of Eric Garcia, Karl Cochran, Spencer Collins, Lee Skinner, and C.J. Neumann ended the season at 4-1 ... In 2012-13, Wofford used nine starting line-ups in the 32 games ... Freshmen C.J. Neumann, Spencer Collins, and Justin Gordon had starts last season ... In 2011-12, the Terriers used six different starting line-ups with a total of 11 different players getting starts, including four freshmen.

Eric’s Point Play

Eric Garcia had 78 assists and 29 turnovers in 2013-14 for an assist/turnover ratio of 2.7 ... The gold standard for Wofford point guards is Brad Loesing, a 2012 graduate who started 130 career games in his four years ... As a freshman, Loesing played in 30 games for 788 minutes and had 88 assists and 70 turnovers ... For his career, Loesing had 15 games where he did not turn it over ... Garcia had 13 games where he did not turn the ball over his freshman season alone ... He played in 31 games for 825 minutes.

The Lone Senior

The lone senior this season for the Terriers was forward Aerras Smith ... A native of Charlotte, North Carolina, Smith played in 31 games last season with 11 starts ... He averaged 1.5 points per game and 1.6 rebounds per game, but his leadership on and off the court was immeasurable ... Minutes after Wofford won the 2014 SoCon Tournament Championship, Smith revealed in a radio interview to the Wofford IMG Sports Network that he would not be participating in the NCAA Tournament, because he was scheduled to have surgery on his knee ... Smith played with the injury all season and his radio interview went viral, getting picked up by numerous media outlets including Sports Illustrated, ESPN and CBS Sports.

A Balanced Team

The Terriers primarily used nine players last season and no player saw more than 32 minutes on the floor per game ... Nine played 10 minutes or more ... Karl Cochran paced the team with 15.7 points per game, but then six players averaged four or more points.

Owning the SoCon

Over the past six years (2008-09 season to 2013-14 season), Wofford has the second-fastest wins in the Southern Conference ... Davidson led the way (87-21), followed by the Terriers (71-37), Western Carolina (61-47), Chattanooga (54-54), and Appalachian State (54-54) ... Wofford also has three Southern Conference titles in the last six seasons, while Davidson only has two and Chattanooga has one ... With Davidson no longer in the league (Atlantic 10), the Terriers now own the most wins over the past six seasons heading into 2014-15.

The Defense

The Terriers again led the way in scoring defense among SoCon teams ... Wofford allowed just 62.2 points per game, with Georgia Southern a distant second with 70.4 points allowed ... Keys to this are field goal percentage defense (44.8 pct.) which was fourth in the league, and three-point percentage defense (32.0 pct.), which was first among SoCon teams ... Wofford held opponents to under 45 percent from the floor in 18 games, including 12 of the last 17 ... The Terriers also held opponents to under 40 percent from three in 13 of the last 18 games.

Taking the Three

In the 2013-14 season, Wofford took 544 three-pointers, which accounted for 30.1 percent of all shots taken by the team ... They made 59 three-pointers per game, which was seventh in the Southern Conference ... Ten different players ended the year with at least one made three.

SoCon Road Warriors

The Terriers were very successful on the road in conference play, going 6-2 in visiting gyms and 3-0 on neutral courts ... This was a big improvement over the 2012-13 season in which the team was 1-8 on the road in conference play.

Dominating the Non-Conference at Home

Since the start of the 1999-2000 season, Wofford has posted a record of 47-4 (.922) in home non-conference games ... The only blemishes were a 66-62 loss to East Carolina in 2005-06, a 64-49 loss to South Carolina in November, 2001, a 72-66 loss in overtime to Air Force on November 24, 2010, and a 63-60 loss to William & Mary on December 7, 2013 ... However, the loss to William & Mary last season puts Wofford’s current home winning streak at just two games.

MIKE YOUNG
HEAD COACH • 13TH SEASON
26TH SEASON OVERALL
EMORY AND HENRY ‘86

Now in his 26th year on campus, including his 13th as head coach, Mike Young has built the Wofford College basketball program into an NCAA Tournament fixture. With Southern Conference championships in 2010, 2011 and 2014, Wofford is one of 53 programs nationally to reach the NCAA Tournament at least three times in the last five seasons. The Terriers have totaled four postseason appearances and three 20-win campaigns over the last five seasons.

A two-time SoCon Coach of the Year, Young has also received national recognition as the Hugh Durham Mid-Major Coach of the Year by CollegeInsider.com. During his distinguished tenure, Young has seen many Terriers go on to play professionally. He has coached Olympian Mike Lenzly, All-American Noah Dahlman, Academic All-American Brad Loesing and 15 All-SoCon selections.

Under Young's leadership, the Terriers’ resume includes impressive non-conference wins over the likes of Auburn, Cincinnati, Clemson, Georgia, Purdue, South Carolina, Virginia Tech, Xavier and Wake Forest. Young believes in playing the best competition. A recent Wofford non-conference schedule was ranked as the most difficult in the nation by the RPI and Sagarin Ratings.

The success Young has achieved on the court has complemented his emphasis on academics. Young’s program has a 100 percent graduation rate for student-athletes who have completed their eligibility at Wofford.

One of the defining characteristics of Young’s program is the family atmosphere, evidenced by current assistant coaches Tim Johnson and Kevin Giltner both of whom wore the Terrier uniform. Newly announced Director of Basketball Operations, Drew Gibson, is also a former Wofford student-athlete. Young has seen a total of six players remain in the program, after their playing days, as members of his staff.

The last five seasons have seen Wofford emerge as the dominant SoCon program. Young’s first postseason team, in 2009-10, tied a school record with a 13-game winning streak. It was part of a stretch that saw the Terriers win 22 of 24 games en route to a school-record 26 victories, including a 13-3 mark in league play. The Terriers won the SoCon South Division title and the tournament championship for the first time.
