BEAR BITES

Anna Purchase started the Cal Opener off with a bang for California, making her debut as a Golden Bear in the women's hammer throw with the second-best mark in Cal history at 66.52 meters (218-3) to take the win in the event. Purchase, a native of Nottingham, England, was named National NCAA Division I Women's Athlete of the Week by the USTFCCA, becoming the first Cal athlete to ever receive that honor.

Finishing off the indoor season last week, Camryn Rogers set a new lifetime best to take sixth in the women's weight throw and earn First Team All-American status at the 2021 NCAA Division I Indoor Track & Field Championships.

Rogers capped her strong indoor season with a then-personal best on her first attempt and bettered that mark on her final throw at the Randal Tyson Center. The native of Richmond, British Columbia opened the competition with a throw of 21.99 meters (72'-1.75") to beat her school and Canadian U23 record mark set on Feb. 26, taking the lead after the first round of throws. Rogers ended the day and competition with the best throw of her career, going 22.08 meters (72'-5.25") to clinch the sixth-place finish for California.
