BEARS HOST UC DAVIS IN 2021 SPRING HOME OPENER

Revenge will be on the agenda under the lights at Underhill Field when the California field hockey team looks to get even with UC Davis after the Aggies defeated the Golden Bears in last Sunday's season opener. Cal and UC Davis meet for the second straight week, this time in Berkeley, for Cal's home opener on Friday, March 12, at 6 p.m. Although these squads are America East foes, this match will be a non-conference contest.

The Golden Bears begin the 2021 spring campaign with a home-and-home series with UC Davis before heading east next weekend to begin conference play. The America East has combined the two divisions into one for the 2021 spring season. After Friday's rematch with the Aggies, the only remaining non-conference game on the schedule is a home match vs. Stanford on April 6 at Underhill Field.

BEARS FALL TO AGGIES

• UC Davis emerged victorious over Cal in the 2021 spring season opener last Sunday in Davis by the score of 2-1. Rachel Buttinger redirected a shot from Maddie Cleat mid-way through the third quarter for the lone Cal goal. Buttinger's tally evened the game at one after the Aggies scored early in the second half. UC Davis earned the game winner in the final seconds of the third quarter.

BACKFIELD BOOST

• Jane Onners and Yvie Lock each contributed a defensive save against the Aggies last Sunday, both in the third quarter. Two key members of Cal's backfield, Onners, who also garnered a shot on goal, returns in 2021 after being named to the America East All-Rookie Team in 2019. Lock started every game last season and is a leader in the backfield.

BEARS ALL-TIME VS. UC DAVIS

• Cal is 25-7-1 all-time vs. UC Davis, and the Bears had won five in a row before the Aggies beat Cal in the 2019 regular season finale and last Sunday. The Bears won the 2019 meeting in Berkeley, 3-2, in overtime when Megan Rodgers scored to end it. Megan Connors scored and also garnered a critical defensive save late in the fourth quarter to help send the game into overtime.

HOME OPENERS

• The Bears have won their last two home openers. In the 2019 home opener, Cal defeated Quinnipiac, 5-1, at Underhill Field. Maddie Cleat scored twice and Megan Connors scored her first goal in her collegiate debut. In 2018, the Bears topped Providence, 5-1. Brynn Zorilla posted an assist in that victory.

ROOKIE DEBUTS

• A total of seven true freshmen made their collegiate debuts at UC Davis last Sunday, and four earned the start. Kiki de Bruijne, Sara Stone, Claire Hind and Kaiden Stanley started, while Natalie Moore, Abbey Frame and Sabine Hommes entered the game later. De Bruijne was the only Bear to get on the stat sheet, recording two shots, one on goal.

SMART BEARS

• A program-record group of 17 Cal field hockey student-athletes honored with 2019 Zag Field Hockey/NFHCA Division I National Academic Squad laurels. In addition, Cato Knipping was recognized as Zag Field Hockey/NFHCA Division I Scholars of Distinction, and the Bears were once again recipients of Zag Field Hockey/National Field Hockey Coaches Association (NFHCA) Division I National Academic Team honors.

AMERICA EAST PRESEASON POLL

• America East coaches predict a sixth-place overall finish and second among west teams for Cal in the America East preseason poll. The Golden Bears earned 29 votes. Monmouth was predicted to win the league with 60 votes and five first-place votes. Stanford led the three west coast schools with 46 votes and one first-place vote.

NEXT UP

• Cal treks east for the first time this season for three contests. The Bears will face Maine on Saturday, March 20, at 11:30 a.m. PT., UMass-Lowell on Sunday, March 21, and Monmouth on Wednesday, March 24, at 10 am PT.

HEAD COACH POSITION ENDOWED

• Thanks to a pair of $1 million gifts from Tom Shaffer and his mother, Abby, and Emily Risberg and her husband, Jeff, field hockey became the first women's sport at Cal to have its head coaching position endowed in February of 2020. The position will be known as the Donna Fong Director of Field Hockey, named in honor of the Golden Bears' first head coach. Fong oversaw the program for 19 seasons, beginning with the team's initial campaign in the fall of 1976. She ultimately guided the team to the postseason seven times before her retirement in 1994. Over her final three seasons, Fong led Cal to three conference titles and earned NorPac Coach of the Year each time.

BEARS SIGN SIX

• Cal signed six signees to National Letters of Intent last Fall - Sophie Everett (San Diego), Cassidy Puleo (Valencia), Gracie Jimenez (San Diego) and Bay Area native Elana Eisenberg (Los Altos). Madeline Zacchini will trek to Berkeley from Bolton, Mass., and Monet Stuckey will cross the pond from Oxshott, Surrey, United Kingdom. Later in the spring, the Bears announced the additions of Anne Van Hoof (The Netherlands) - a transfer from Wake Forest - and Sydney Decher (Germany).

FOREVER A BEAR

• Zoë Rogers, a sophomore goalkeeper, passed away unexpectedly in October. In addition to her drive to succeed on the pitch and in the classroom, Rogers also gave back to her community in numerous ways. She was a member of the executive board of the Black Student-Athlete Committee (BSAC). In her local community in Hatfield, Pa., she served on the board of Common Bondz, a not-for-profit organization focused on educating what drives racism and bias against African Americans. Most recently, during the COVID-19 pandemic, Rogers returned home to be a mentor for the current students at her high school.

RED, WHITE, BLUE & GOLD

• As we approach the 2021 Summer Olympic Games, in addition to current coaches Shellie Onstead, Austin Pile and Malachi Mahan holding national team playing or coaching experience, Brynn Zorilla (U19, U21), Megan Connors (U19) and Sara Stone (U17) have played for U.S. National teams.
