GAME NOTES

WEST CHESTER HEAD COACH: In 10 years as head coach of the Golden Rams, Bill Zwaan has posted a 73-40 record with three PSAC East titles. He helped guide the program to five-consecutive berths to the NCAA Playoffs from 2004-08 with an appearance in the NCAA Semifinals in 2004. Zwaan previously served as head coach for six years at NCAA Division III Widener, leading the Pride to four postseason appearances and consecutive 12-win seasons.

SCOUTING THE GOLDEN RAMS: West Chester returns 15 starters (six offense, seven defense) from a team that finished 5-6 overall, marking a second-straight losing season. Senior quarterback Mike Mattei leads the PSAC in passing efficiency this season after posting 11 touchdowns and one interception. He also ranks fourth in the league with 953 passing yards while completing 65.9 percent (56-of-85) of his attempts. Junior running back Rondell White is a dual-threat for the Golden Rams, ranking fourth in the PSAC in rushing yards and leading the team in receptions. Sophomore wide receiver Erick Brundidge possesses big-play ability, averaging over 23 yards per reception. The Golden Rams enter the weekend with the third-ranked scoring defense in the PSAC, allowing 24.0 points per game. Sophomore linebacker Ronell Williams leads the team and ranks second in the league with 40 tackles (15 solo). He also has registered 4.0 TFL, 1.0 sack, two interceptions and one forced fumble this season. On special teams, West Chester features one of the league's top kickers in junior Shawn Leo, who set the single-season school record with 15 field goals in 2011. He has made all 20 PAT attempts and a 48-yard field goal this year.

READING THE POLLS: With its third 4-0 start in the last six years, Cal U remained at No. 6 in both the AFCA and D2Football.com Top 25 polls. The Vulcans have been ranked in the top 10 of the AFCA poll for four-straight weeks.

PLAYING THE BEST: The Vulcans have posted three victories over Top 25 opponents in the opening month of the season. Cal U has totaled three or more wins against nationally-ranked teams in a season four times in the last six years with each of the previous three times resulting in appearances in the NCAA Semifinals. Since 2007, the Vulcans have recorded a 17-9 mark against teams ranked in the AFCA Top 25 poll.

LOOKING FOR SIX: Last season, the Vulcans became the fourth school in PSAC history, and the first since West Chester (2004-08), to reach the NCAA Playoffs in five-straight years. No program in the league has made six-consecutive berths in the NCAA Playoffs and IUP is the only school to have reached the postseason five-straight years on multiple separate occasions.

PASSING PETER: In two seasons, senior Peter Lulich has established himself as one of the most prolific quarterbacks in school history. Lulich passed for the second-highest single-game total in school history last week, finishing with a career-high 438 yards. His total ranks only behind the record of 443 passing yards set by Kevin McCabe in the 2008 PSAC Championship against West Chester. Lulich ranks second in the league with 1,433 passing yards through four games after shattering the single-season school record last season.

CENTURY TRIO: In last week's win over IUP, the wide receiver trio of Nadir Brown, Trey Johnson and Mike Williams each eclipsed the 100-yard mark. It marked the first time in recent program history (since 2002) in which three players posted over 100 receiving yards. Williams led all players with a career-high 143 yards and Brown finished with 128 yards, including an 80-yard touchdown with 52.3 seconds remaining. Johnson was named the Coal Bowl MVP after posting 120 yards, highlighted by a 20-yard reception to set-up the game-winning field goal.

GAME NOTES

FIRST IMPRESSIONS: Head coach Mike Kellar joins Earle Bruce (1946) and John Luckhardt (2002) as the only head coaches since World War II to start their coaching careers at Cal U with a 4-0 record. Bruce posted a 27-6 mark in four years behind the first undefeated season in school history in 1946. Luckhardt, who retired in June, posted a 6-5 record in his first year with the program before becoming the all-time winningest coach in school history with 88 victories.

MULTI-PURPOSE BACKS: This weekend's game will feature two of the most versatile running backs in the PSAC in Cal U senior Lamont Smith and West Chester junior Rondell White. Smith, a two-time All-PSAC West First-Team selection, has rushed for over 1,000 yards in each of the last two seasons and has made over 60 receptions in his career. White led the Golden Rams in rushing last year and ranks fourth in the league with 468 rushing yards in 2012. He also has made 60-plus receptions in his career, including a team-leading 14 catches this season.

SPECIAL TD: Former defensive back Tommie Campbell scored his second career NFL touchdown on special teams last Sunday. He received a lateral on a first-quarter punt return and scampered 65 yards for a touchdown, as the Tennessee Titans won in overtime against Detroit. As a rookie last year, Campbell scored following a reverse on a kickoff return against Tampa Bay in November.

BLOCK PARTY: The Vulcans registered their second blocked kick of the season in the fourth quarter against IUP. Sophomore Jeff Knox, Jr. blocked a 20-yard field goal by the Crimson Hawks to preserve a 17-10 lead. Over the last eight years, the Vulcans have posted 33 blocked kicks despite tallying only one in both 2008 and 2010. In the last meeting between Cal U and West Chester, Rontez Miles blocked and returned a punt for a touchdown.

GAME-WINNER: Just moments after missing a game-tying PAT attempt last week, sophomore kicker Cody Nuzzo made the game-winning 30-yard field goal against IUP with 3.5 seconds left. It marked the first game-winning field goal by Cal U since Marc Domonkos made a 17-yard field goal in overtime - against IUP - on Oct. 30, 2010. Nuzzo has converted 10-of-20 field goal attempts in his career, including four-of-five this year, and made 59-of-67 PAT attempts.

AGAINST THE EAST: In the last 10 seasons, the Vulcans hold a combined 24-5 record (.828) against PSAC East opponents. Cal U has won all four meetings against West Chester during that span, including two victories during the 2008 season - both at Adamson Stadium. That year, the Vulcans opened the season with a 44-32 win over the Golden Rams before capturing the PSAC Championship with a 47-36 victory in November.

STREAKING: Junior Mike Williams is just the third wide receiver in recent program history to record three-consecutive 100-yard games. Former All-Americans A.J. Jackson (2009) and Thomas Mayo (2011) previously accomplished the feat with neither stretching the streak to four games.

GROUND NOTES: In last week's win, the Vulcans were out-gained on the ground by a 284-28 margin. Cal U was held to its lowest single-game rushing total since managing just nine yards in a loss at Shippensburg on Nov. 15, 2003. In contrast, the Vulcans allowed the most rushing yards in a game since the 2009 NCAA Playoffs when Northwest Missouri State totaled 306 yards on the ground. Crimson Hawks' running back Harvie Tuck also became the first player in recent program history (since 2002) to amass over 250 rushing yards and 40 attempts against the Vulcans.

After Edinboro cut the deficit to 17-14 with 10:34 remaining. Cal U responded with a quick three-play scoring drive capped by a six-yard touchdown run by senior Lamont Smith, who finished with 103 rushing yards. The play was set-up by a 54-yard reception by Thomas.

The ensuing Edinboro drive resulted in three-straight sacks by the Vulcans, all by juniors Paul Everson and B.J. Stevens. Cal U then worked over four-plus minutes off the clock before sealing the win with an interception by junior C.J. Townes with under one minute remaining.

Senior defensive back Greg Cochran led the team with a career-high 13 tackles (three solo) and classmate Brett Diamond finished with 11 stops (four solo). Townes added 10 tackles in his first career start, while Stevens set career highs with seven tackles, 3.5 TFL and 2.5 sacks.

CALIFORNIA (Sept. 22) – Redshirt junior Nadir Brown scored an 80-yard touchdown with 52.3 seconds left and sophomore Cody Nuzzo made the game-winning 30-yard field goal with 3.5 seconds left on Saturday, as the No. 6 Vulcans claimed a 26-24 victory over No. 14 IUP.

Senior quarterback Peter Lalach passed for the second-highest total in single-game school history, finishing with 438 yards. He completed 27-of-40 attempts with three touchdowns and one interception in the victory.

Leading 24-17 with just over a minute remaining, IUP missed a 30-yard field goal. After the missed field goal, Cal U assumed possession at its 20-yard line before Lalach connected with Brown for an 80-yard touchdown on the first play of the drive with just 57.3 seconds remaining. The ensuing PAT attempt failed which preserved the lead for the Crimson Hawks at 24-23.

The Vulcans successfully converted the onside kick attempt by Nuzzo with senior Rontez Miles recovering the ball after it was touched by a Crimson Hawk. The Vulcans recorded a first down following a pair of short completions from Lalach to senior running back Lamont Smith before Lalach found junior wide receiver Trey Johnson for a 20-yard gain to the IUP 13-yard line. After a quarterback spike stopped the clock, Nuzzo made the 30-yard field goal with just 3.5 seconds left.

Miles registered a team-high 13 tackles (six solo) with 0.5 TFL, while junior linebacker Brian Justice tied his career high with 12 stops.
