WEEK TWO RECAP

After two weeks of play in the Gulf South Conference, the GSC has four teams ranked in Top 25 of the AFCA Poll. Last week, the conference went 3-3 and four unbeaten teams remain.

Conference favorites West Georgia again had a dominant performance that was spearheaded by its defense. The Wolves traveled to Miles and earned a 29-0 win. The Wolves returned an interception for a touchdown in the game, meaning that the defense has scored more points than it has allowed this season.

In the first conference clash of the 2016 season, Florida Tech also earned a shutout, beating the Choctaws of Mississippi College, 41-0. The defense held MC to just 228 total yards in the game, while the FIT offense put up 524 yards. Two Panthers (Antwuan Hayes and Gary Holmes) rushed for more than 100 yards in the game.

In front of a sold out crowd that was ready to celebrate the first home game in UWF history, the Argonauts did not disappoint. West Florida continued to impress on offense and beat Missouri S&T, 45-28. Quarterback Kaleb Nobles threw for over 500 yards and six touchdowns in the win, earning conference player of the week honors.

Shorter fell in overtime to Mars Hill, but freshman quarterback Tyler Pullum was named the GSC Freshman of the Week after throwing for more than 200 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions.

West Alabama gave Division I-FCS Stephen F. Austin all it could handle, but was unable to get the win, falling on the road by just six points.

Delta State hosted Texas A&M Commerce, a Top 10 team in the country. The Statesmen were unable to upend the Lions, despite two more rushing touchdowns for Chris Robinson.

WEEK THREE PREVIEW

This week is the first full slate of conference matchups, as four of the five games will pit GSC teams against one another.

Delta State will face another one of the nation's top teams, this time on the road, as the Statesmen travel to Carrollton to take on West Georgia.

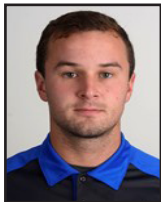

West Florida will have to wait one more week for its first ever conference game. The Argonauts will face Chowan out of the CIAA this weekend, looking to remain unbeaten.

Old rivals and perennial powers North Alabama and Valdosta State will square off in Florence after each team had a bye week last weekend.

West Alabama will play its third straight road game, this time in Clinton, Mississippi against the Choctaws. UWA has lost two games by a combined seven points, but will be looking to start its GSC slate 1-0.

In the GSC Game of the Week, Florida Tech will travel to Shorter. This game can be seen on ESPN3 and the WatchESPN app. FIT is currently ranked 19th in the nation, the best ranking in school history. After a tough overtime loss last week, the Hawks will be looking to rebound with their first home game of the season.

GSC FOOTBALL PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

West Florida QB Kaleb Nobles

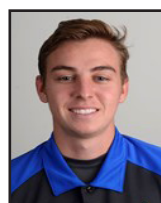

Nobles was dominant in the first ever home game for the Argonauts. He threw for career-highs of 503 yards and 6 TDs in the 45-28 win over Missouri S&T. The yardage was the ninth highest in a single game in GSC history and the TDs are tied for seventh most. He completed passes to eight different receivers, with three hauling in more than 100 yards. He had 283 yards and 4 TDs in the first half to help build a 31-20 lead. His 503 yards through the air is the second most in Division II this season. Through two weeks, he leads the GSC in passing yards, TDs, and passing efficiency. He is tied for the lead in the country in touchdown passes and ranks fifth in total passing yards.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Florida Tech DL Adonis Davis

Davis led the Panther defense that held the Choctaws scoreless in the 41-0 conference win. He had four solo tackles on the day, two of which were behind the line of scrimmage. He also recorded an eight-yard sack and forced a fumble. As a team, FIT never allowed Mississippi College to enter the red zone on its way to recording the first shutout in school history against a Division II opponent.

SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK

West Florida K Austin Peffers

Peffers was 6-for-6 on PATs and 1-for-2 on field goals as UWF improved to 2-0 with the win over Missouri S&T in the first home game in school history. His made FG was from 36 yards on the opening drive of the game, giving the Argonauts a 3-0 lead and putting his name in the record books with the first points ever scored at home for UWF. His missed FG bounced off the crossbar from 47 yards. He is now 12-of-12 on PATs and 2-for-3 on FGs this season. He also kicked off eight times and had one touchback.

FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Shorter QB Tyler Pullum

Pullum was almost able to get the first victory of the season for Shorter, but the Hawks fell in overtime to Mars Hill. Pullum went 23-for-38 in the game, throwing for 216 yards and a pair of touchdowns. He had no interceptions in the game. The freshman QB spread the ball around, completing a pass to nine different receivers.

UWA's Last Game: Lost at Stephen F. Austin, 24-30
MC's Last Game: Lost at Florida Tech, 0-41

Game Breakdown

After a pair of hard luck losses to start the season, West Alabama will be looking to finally break through and get its first win of 2016 against the Choctaws. The Tigers fell in their opening contest by a single point, and then played Division I-FCS member Stephen F. Austin tough all game, eventually falling by the score of 30-24. After a strong start to 2016, MC met up with a strong Florida Tech team last week and was unable to score against the Panthers. Offensively, the Choctaws will continue to ride Josh Dixon, who is third in the league in rushing yards and second in the league in rushing TDs.

2016 FLORIDA'S SPACE COAST GSC-TV ON ESPN

The Gulf South Conference has officially announced the schedule for the 12th edition of its Florida's Space Coast GSC Football Game of the Week featured live on ESPN 3.

ESPN3 serves as the exclusive carrier of the league's package for the third consecutive season. This year's 10-game slate includes nine Saturday games and one Thursday night contest and kicks off on September 17 when Shorter University hosts Florida Tech in Rome, Ga.

"The Gulf South Conference's Game of the Week package has been a leader in Division II since its inception. Continuing our relationship with ESPN provides unparalleled exposure and distribution for the GSC," said Commissioner Matt Wilson. "We believe the ESPN3 and WatchESPN digital platforms are ideal for our fans, student-athletes and future recruits. This year's slate of games features some of the top teams in Division II and provides a look at emerging programs and rivalries. We are excited to get GSC Football started this fall on ESPN3."

All nine Conference squads are featured at least twice. Florida Tech and West Alabama lead the way with three appearances, followed by Delta State, Mississippi College, North Alabama, Shorter, Valdosta State, West Florida and West Georgia.

Play-by-play commentator Don Russell and color commentator Rick Rhodes will continue to lead the coverage from the booth and Gulf Coast Mobile, L.L.C. will produce the package for the fifth year in a row.

Fans can access each contest on the GSC's official ESPN3 page at gscsports.org/ESPN3 or visiting WatchESPN.com.

About ESPN3

ESPN3 is ESPN's live multi-screen sports network, a destination that delivers thousands of exclusive sports events annually. It is accessible on computers, smartphones, tablets and connected devices through WatchESPN. The network is currently available nationwide at no additional cost to fans who receive their high-speed Internet connection or video subscription from an affiliated service provider. It is also available at no cost to U.S. college students and U.S.-based military personnel via computers, smartphones and tablets connected to on-campus educational and on-base military broadband and Wi-Fi networks.
