KANSAS AT A GLANCE

- Back-to-back defending Big 12 Coach of the Year, Ray Bechard, is in his 30th overall season as a head coach in 2014 and his 17th with the Jayhawks. He enters the match with a career mark of 1,006-284.
- After a 3-0 win against Baylor (11/5), Kansas heads to Texas Tech with the chance to move above .500 in Big 12 play for the first time this season.
- Kansas sits at No. 27 in the latest NCAA RPI projections (11/3). In the last three seasons, KU has never been outside the top-30. Thus far in 2014, KU is 0-4 vs. top-25 RPI teams, 1-6 vs. top-50 and 10-7 vs. top-100.
- The RPI reflects that Kansas plays the last two national champions a combined three times this season in Penn State (2013) and Texas (2012).
- The Jayhawk offense leads the Big 12 with 13.79 kills per set. Prior to Wednesday night, the Baylor Bears led the league in that stat until Kansas held them to just 24 kills in the midweek match.
- Freshman setter Ainise Havili leads the Big 12 in conference-only action with 11.27 assists per set. Overall the rookie floor general is second in assist average (11.21), while her 1,020 overall assists on the season is more than other setter in the conference.
- Sophomore libero Cassie Wait is moving up KU's list of most digs in a single season. She sits one dig behind former KU libero Jill (Dorsey) Hall for eighth all-time with 434.
- Senior outside hitter Chelsea Albers ranks in the top-10 in the conference in kills (3.05) and points (3.56) per set. During the Baylor (11/5) match, Albers became the 12th Jayhawk all-time to post 800 career kills and 800 career digs.
- Three of KU's middle blockers rank in the top-four in attack percentage in the Big 12. Freshman Kayla Cheadle is second (.366), freshman Kelsie Payne is third (.356) and sophomore Taylor Soucie is fourth (.344).

SERIES HISTORY

VS. TEXAS TECH (KU LEADS, 22-16): Kansas holds a 22-16 all-time margin in a series that dates back to 1982, but the Jayhawks have had solid control in recent years. KU has won eight-straight meetings with the Red Raiders, including five-consecutive sweeps. In Lawrence, KU has the 13-6 edge, while the series is tied in Lubbock with nine wins apiece.

FOLLOW THE JAYHAWKS

The KU-TTU match will stream online on TexasTech.TV for a subscription fee. Fans can also listen to radio play-by-play on KUAthletics.com, found under the Fan Central tab, free of charge. Adam Drovetta will have the call. Fans can monitor the action by following @KUVolleyball on Twitter.

HUNT FOR 20

Sitting at 17 victories with six matches to play, Kansas is in position to reach, or surpass, the 20-win mark for the third-straight season. Such a streak would be a first for Jayhawk volleyball since the 1980-1981-1982 seasons.

SET THE TABLE

Entering the weekend, Kansas' 62 set victories are tied for the most among all Big 12 teams (Kansas State). KSU is the only team in the conference that has won 20 matches (20-4), while first-place Texas at 17-1 overall has won just 51 sets this year.

BECHARD’S BREAKDOWN

CHELSEA ALBERS
“Chelsea is a competitive, six-rotation player who can side out from pin-to-pin and affects the match with her blocking. She can score points a lot of different ways: attack, block and serve. She impacts the game in so many ways. She’s a kid who can be as versatile as any kid in our league.”

MAGGIE ANDERSON
“She sets the tone for us for what a teammate looks like. She can win Division-I matches setting, so she can compete hard for that position. What we want is for both her and Ainise to be playing at a high level. If we ever need to go to a two-setter system we can do that. If we have one setter that’s struggling, the other one can come in and we don’t lose a beat. So she’s critical in how we move forward.”

ADDISON BARRY
“Addison told me in the sixth grade that she was going to be here... and here she is. Every day is a great day for Addie. She loves being around her teammates and she loves the competition standpoint of it. She’s our blonde version of Jaime Mathieu coming at you. She’ll find a way on the floor.”

CLAIRE CARPENTER
“I really think Claire has an opportunity to make an impact at a high level right away. She’s jacked about being a Jayhawk, they have some family history, I think this is an opportunity she’s really going to relish in and take advantage of.”

KAYLA CHEADLE
“I can’t wait to coach her, Kayla’s just an extremely high-level communicator. She has a great presence about her. She’s a kid who I think we’ll get to see in front of our own eyes develop into a very high-level Big 12 volleyball player.”

TIANA DOCKERY
“Tiana has set herself up to have an exceptional year. Her first two years she did whatever we needed her to do. There were matches she didn’t play in, and there were patches she took the winning swing in. If you see the picture from the final play from the NCAA Tournament here, she’s out there jumping higher than everyone celebrating. She’s on the court at the most crucial times.”

JANAE HALL
“I want her to feel good about her shoulder, have confidence about her shoulder because we’ve seen her play at a high level. She’s athletic, she has great feet, she can impact the match blocking now as she gets more comfortable to terminate balls. She’s going to be right in the mix as one of those middles.”

AINISE HAVILI
“Ainise, we’re excited about. Her opportunity, she as many of the freshman can do, can impact us in a pretty significant way. The setting position always seems to carry a little more significance because they’re the center of attention. She’s not going to shy from that.”

SARA MCCLINTON
“I’m hoping to have her combine the variables of her first three years into a stellar All-American type year - to where she’s playing at a high level, she’s healthy, a great leader and have all those things come together for us. I want her to have a complete season. And she’s capable of having a complete season.”

TORI MILLER
“Tori has good size for her position. Pretty good range for herself. She’s a great teammate.”

KELSIE PAYNE
“She has an opportunity to have a great career here. She is a high-level athlete who I know wants to become a high-level volleyball player. We’re going to challenge her each and every day and I know she’ll have a great response to that. Were excited about putting her in in a situation where she can excel.”

MADISON RIGDON
“Not one of the players we talk in detail about, but I think she can compete to be on the floor. I like her serve and she will score points for us, but she can also hit on the right, the left, she can ball-handle a bit in the back row. We’re excited about her and we think she’ll compete to play right away.”

TAYLER SOUCIE
“Tayler is just a joy to coach. She brings it every day. Her body will continue to progress and she physically continues to get stronger and is committed to all of the right things. Her numbers are great from last year and we expect good numbers again from her this year. We also expect her to lead as a sophomore to mirror what we want in the effort and execution in that position.”

CASSIE WAIT
She has great work ethic and is a great competitor. She is as an athletic of person as you will see in the position she’s in.”

SERVICE WITH A SMILE

Kansas has endured its share of serving issues, but the Jayhawks have picked up as of late. Against Baylor (11/5) and at TCU (11/1), KU landed six aces in each match and kept its error count to single digits. Kansas ranked last in services aces in 2013, but has moved to seventh in the league overall and fifth in conference-only action this fall. Freshmen Madison Rigdon (0.33) and Ainise Havili (0.29) each rank in the top-10 in the Big 12 in service aces per set, while Havili leads the team with 26 aces for the season. In addition, sophomore libero Cassie Wait is on point from the line. She only has six aces, but she has made 93 percent of her serves in 2014.

1,000 AND COUNTING

Freshman setter Ainise Havili has serious potential to overthrow records in her first season as the Jayhawks' floor general as she passed the 1,000-assist mark against Baylor (11/5). That makes Havili just the fourth Jayhawk in program history to dish out 1,000 assists as a freshman. Currently averaging 42.5 assists per match, Havili is still on pace to take over the most assists by a KU rookie (Katie Martincich, 2006, 1,193). Her 1,020 assists lead all Big 12 setters, while the 11.21 assist average ranks second.

BLOCK PARTY

The last time KU played Texas Tech (10/25), the Kansas blocking game was overwhelming. Led by a season-high seven blocks from senior outside hitter Chelsea Albers, the Jayhawks racked up 13.5 total blocks and allowed only 2.5 rejections against them. That's the first time KU has tallied 10+ blocks more than the team across the net in 2014. The last occurrence came against Baylor (10/5/13) when the Jayhawks out-blocked the Bears in Waco, 16.0-3.0.

MCMILESTONE

With nine kills against Baylor (11/1), senior outside hitter Sara McClinton now has 1,174 for her career, which jumped her two spots on KU's all-time career kills list. She passed Emily Brown (1,168; 2004-07) and Mary Beth Albrech (1,171; 1996-99) for seventh on the milestone list. McClinton is one of two players in the Big 12 with 1,000 career kills (Haley Eckerman, Texas), and is the 14th Jayhawk all-time to reach the 1,000-kill mark at Kansas.

ANTI-SWEEP

The Jayhawks chalked up their ninth sweep of the year against Baylor (11/5), a mark that Big 12 foes' Texas and Kansas State can beat with 12 and 10 sweeps, respectively, in 2014. A number that neither of them can beat, however, is KU has been swept only once this season. Kansas State has been swept three times this year and Texas has been beaten 3-0 once. In fact, KU has been swept just twice in its last 68 matches (No. 5 Washington, 12/13/13; No. 3 Penn State, 9/13/14).

RPI WATCH

Kansas checks in at No. 27 this week. Although the Jayhawks have more losses now than they did at this point in the last two seasons, their strength of schedule has a lot to do with that. In the latest RPI projections, 16 of KU's 22 opponents are in the top-100. All but three of those 22 opponents have winning records. In the final month of the regular season, seven of KU's next eight matches will come against teams in the top-80, including at Kansas State (No. 16), at Texas (No. 4) and Oklahoma (21).

BALANCING ACT

Seven different players have led the Jayhawks in kills this fall, which showcases the balanced offense that head coach Ray Bechard has strived to achieve with his young team this season. To prove the point even further, those same seven all have 100 or more kills to their credit this season. KU hasn't seen seven players total 100+ kills in a season since 2007 when eight players hit the mark.

KILLS ON KILLS ON KILLS

Kansas saw five different Jayhawks chalk up double-digit kills on the road at TCU (11/1). Seniors Chelsea Albers and Sara McClinton led the way with 14 apiece, while middle blockers Taylor Soucie and Janae Hall tagged 13 each. Junior outside hitter Tiana Dockery swung for 10 kills, the first time the Jayhawks posted a balanced performance like that since October 23, 2013 against Iowa State.

WORTH THE WAIT

Sophomore libero Cassie Wait has tallied 11 matches with 20+ digs this season is sitting at 434 digs in 2014. Heading to Lubbock, Wait needs just two to pass Jill Dorsey (435; 2003) for eighth and 16 to pass Melissa Manda (449; 2007) for the seventh most digs in a single season at Kansas.

ALMIGHTY ALBERS

Senior outside hitter Chelsea Albers is inching toward her 100th career start as No. 98 will likely happen at Texas Tech. Not only does she rank in the top-10 in the Big 12 in kills (3.05) and points per set (3.56), but she is also iconic on the defensive end. Her 856 career kills are impressive, but her 804 career digs is what makes her iconic. She is now just the 12th Jayhawk to hit the 800-kill/800-dig mark in their careers. The last time an outside hitter (or a right-side, in both of their cases) tallied 800-career digs was Emily Brown, who eclipsed the mark in 2007.

RARELY OUTDONE

The KU-TCU match (11/1) marked just the fifth time this season that Kansas has been out-hit in a match (.218/.179). It's also the fifth time the Jayhawks have been out-blocked (12.0/8.0) – but is only the third time in 2014 that both occurred at the same time.

FIVE-SET SLUMP

After the loss at TCU (11/1), the Jayhawks are a shocking 0-5 in five-set matches this season. Since the Big 12 was formed in 1996, Kansas has never lost five-straight five-set matches. In that span, only once did the Jayhawks go an entire season without winning a single full-length match (0-3; 2001).

DOUBLE UP

Kansas chalked up its 20th and 21st double-doubles of the season at TCU (11/1). Senior outside hitter Chelsea Albers tallied her seventh of the season with 14 kills and 13 digs, the 14th of her career. Meanwhile, freshman setter Ainise Havili owns the Jayhawks' double-double game. She racked up career-highs in both assists (57) and digs (19) at TCU, good for her 12th double-double in her rookie season, the third-most by any Big 12 player in 2014.

THAT WAS FAST

The Kansas vs. Baylor (11/5) match lasted a brief one hour and 21 minutes, KU's fastest match in conference play this season and the eighth match of the year that played out in less than 90 minutes.

SWEEEEEEEEP

For the first time in program history – and just the fourth time for the conference – Kansas swept the Big 12 Player of the Week awards. Taylor Soucie (offensive), Cassie Wait (defensive) and Ainise Havili (rookie) were each awarded for their league-leading weeks on Oct. 20. Since the inception of the Rookie of the Week honor in 2008, only three other times has one school swept all three awards (Nebraska, Oct. 27, 2008; Iowa State, Nov. 16, 2009; and Missouri, Sept. 7, 2010). Just five times has Kansas won multiple awards in the same week, and three of those came last year.

PLAYERS OF WEEK

The weekly award sweep gives KU five total recognitions this season. A year ago, the Jayhawks tallied 11 Big 12 weekly awards, which tied for the fifth-most by one team in a single-season in league history. Seven different Jayhawks were weekly award recipients. The seven awards by a different player is a league record. Texas had six different players collect honors in 2008.

Sept. 22 – Madison Rigdon (Offensive)

Oct. 13 – Ainise Havili (Rookie)

Oct. 20 – Tayler Soucie (Offensive)

Oct. 20 – Cassie Wait (Defensive)

Oct. 20 – Ainise Havili (Rookie)

RILEY'S RECORD

Iowa State junior libero Caitlin Nolan played a major factor in the Cyclones' victory (10/22). Her 43 digs against the Jayhawks brought up a familiar name as the only other Big 12 player to record 43 digs in a match was KU's all-time digs leader Brianne Riley (at Oklahoma; 10/10/12).

TOE THE LINE

Freshman setter Ainise Havili is well known for her ball distribution, decision making and digging prowess as KU's floor general. She is also noted for leading the Jayhawks with eight aces in conference play alone, 22 overall. However, her ability lead her team on long scoring runs is becoming more and more apparent. Tied at 14-14 in the first set against TCU (10/18), KU claimed control with an 8-0 run – with Havili at the serving line. After KU dropped set one at West Virginia (10/15), the Jayhawks used a 10-0 run in set two to reset the tone. Who served those 10 points? Havili.

SCOUTING REPORT

SCOUTING TEXAS TECH (15-8, 3-8 BIG 12 CONFERENCE)

Texas Tech is led by head coach Don Flora, now in his fourth season with the Red Raiders. Flora began the 2014 season by guiding the Red Raiders to 13-straight wins, surpassing their 2013 win total before eventually taking their first loss to conference-foe West Virginia. Flora has also eclipsed the 300-career win mark, which puts him with the likes of Ray Bechard (Kansas), Jerritt Elliott (Texas), Jim Barnes (Baylor) and Santiago Restrepo (Oklahoma).

Senior libero Rachel Brummitt has been a defensive force on the back row, racking up 5.09 digs per set and ranking second in the conference. Last season, she became just the second Red Raider to earn an All-Big 12 selection since 2004.

Now in her junior season, outside hitter Jenna Allen has gained momentum as the offensive focus for the Red Raiders. Allen has come on strong as of late to lead the team in kills per set (3.20), which ranks sixth in the Big 12. Her 3.03 average in conference play has her ranked tenth among her Big 12 counterparts. Fellow teammate and senior outside hitter Breeann David follows suit with 204 kills, good enough for a 3.14 kills per set average on the year.

Expect two setters to distribute the offense as sophomore Marguerite Grubb and junior Emily Reutter average around nine assists per set.

BECHARD'S TAKE

On Texas Tech:

"They beat Iowa State at home, beat TCU at home and they're knee-deep in it just like the rest of us. It's just hard. When you play good opponents, you're going to have rough stretches and you're going to have momentum. I'm sure we're going to get their very best effort on Saturday."

On the importance of the win against Baylor:

"At this time of year to get an hour-and-a-half match and to come out and play as well as we did in the first two sets and make plays at the end of set three, that's exactly what we needed."

On focusing only on themselves as upsets continue to happen around the Big 12:

"There's going to be craziness throughout. When you have a lot of parity in the league, that's what is going to happen. We've just got to take care of our route and not worry about what other people are doing. We did that last night."

On having a little much-needed fun in the Baylor match:

"Well, it was fun the way we came out. The first set wasn't really in the balance and the second set wasn't really in the balance. The third set, we've talked about how can we play better longer, and we kind of jumped out to a lead. They came back and then it went back-and-forth, so it was good to see us close a close third set. That experience will have value, but fun? Winning is fun. The process gets to be a bit of a grind, but we have another opportunity to keep moving forward."

On the level of Tiana Dockery's play against Baylor:

"She had some out-of-system swings that were key, where everything wasn't perfect but she made a good play. I thought she was solid, for sure."

Ray Bechard enters his 17th year as the head coach of the Kansas volleyball team in 2014, riding a monumental transition of guiding his program from successful to significant. His most recent year at the helm was also the best in program history – ending with his second-consecutive Big 12 and AVCA Region Coach of the Year honors and most proudly, Kansas volleyball's first trip to the NCAA Sweet 16.

The winningest coach in Kansas volleyball history, Bechard begins the 2014 season just 11 wins away from his 1,000th career victory. Since his arrival on the coaching scene 29 years ago, Bechard spent 13 seasons on the sidelines of Barton County Community College in Great Bend, Kan., before taking over the reins at Kansas. At both stops, Bechard has compiled a remarkable all-time coaching record of 989-277 (.781 winning percentage).

In 16 seasons at Kansas, Bechard has led the Jayhawks to a 273-217 mark (.557) and 12 seasons at .500 or better. All five NCAA Tournament appearances occurred in the Bechard era, but the most recent postseason trip broke new ground. The Jayhawks earned an overall national seed (No. 14) for the second-straight season, giving them first and second round hosting rights, also for the second-straight season.

Following the memorable 2012 season that saw KU break the winningest season record with a .788 winning percentage (26-7) and finish the last half of the year ranked in the top 25, Bechard immediately instilled his “successful to significant” philosophy. The mindset spread quickly throughout the team – and it showed.

By season's end, Bechard and the Jayhawks achieved their highest Big 12 finish in league history (2nd, 12-4), broke the school's hitting percentage record (.254), swept in-state rivals Kansas State for the second-consecutive season and saw four different players reach All-America status. Senior middle blocker Caroline Jarmoc, the program's first All-America selection in 2012, earned the honor for a second-straight season in 2013 from the AVCA. Alongside her were teammates Erin McNorton (Sr., S), Chelsea Albers (Jr., OH) and Sara McClinton (Jr., OH), each of whom earned All-America honorable mention recognition.

Bechard has guided the Jayhawks to all five of their NCAA Tournament appearances (2003, 2004, 2005, 2012, 2013) and seven AVCA Team Academic awards. Individually, the veteran head coach has coached 23 All-Big 12 honorees, 100 Academic All-Big 12 selections, 13 Academic All-Region recipients and seven AVCA All-Region players - highlighted by 2013's four honorees in Albers, Jarmoc, McClinton and McNorton.

Known for primarily working with the setters, Bechard was rewarded indirectly when McNorton transformed from a walk-on into the Big 12 Setter of the Year in 2013.
