QUICK HITS

- ALL-AMERICANS: Sophomore setter Ainise Havili and sophomore right-side hitter Kelsie Payne earned AVCA All-America First Team honors, as voted on by a committee of AVCA members. The honors are another unprecedented accomplishment for KU this season as it is the first time Kansas has been represented on the AVCA All-America First Team. Havili and Payne are the keystones to one of the most potent offenses in the country, which ranks fourth in hitting percentage (.305), second in kills per set (15.1), and second in assists per set (14.2). Havili, Payne, and the Jayhawks hold the highest winning percentage (.938) in the nation, and best in program history, this season with a 30-2 record.
- KANSAS-NEBRASKA SERIES: Kansas and Nebraska will meet for the 88th time on Thursday. The Huskers have each meeting against the Jayhawks.
- FINAL FOUR: Kansas will face No. 4 Nebraska for the first time since 2010 in the NCAA semifinals on Thursday night (8:30 p.m., ESPN2) in Omaha's CenturyLink Center. On the other side of the bracket, No. 3 Texas and No. 2 Minnesota face off in the first match on Thursday (6 p.m., ESPN2). It is the second NCAA Volleyball Final Four featuring two Big 12 teams.
- THE COMEBACK: Kansas advanced to the NCAA semifinals in one of the most dramatic finishes the sport has ever seen. The Jayhawks closed out the fifth set against No. 1 USC by going on a 6-0 run to erase a 13-9 deficit and compete the upset. Junior libero Cassie Wait served for KU during the run and came up clutch with an ace and a number of athletic digs to keep KU's hopes alive. Coming out of a KU timeout, Janae Hall recorded the first kill of the run, followed by a pair of USC errors. Wait's ace, which landed in the section of ESPNW National Player of the Year Samantha Bricio, tied the set at 13 and forced a USC timeout. Kansas went to Kelsie Payne to give the Jayhawks their first lead of the set on match point, 14-13. Match point was the longest and most dramatic rally of the match. After crossing the net 14 times, Madison Rigdon's attack from the left side sliced through the USC defense and landed untouched in the back corner of the court to clinch the unprecedented win for the Jayhawks.

- HOW THEY ADVANCED: No. 9 Kansas made its first NCAA semifinal in program history after advancing out of the San Diego Region last week with a pair of wins over Loyola Marymount in the round of 16 and No. 1 USC in the regional final at Jenny Craig Pavilion on the campus of the University of San Diego. Kansas won the first and second round matches at home in Horejsi Family Athletics Center, defeating Furman in the first round and No. 25 Missouri in the second round. The Jayhawks were among seven elite programs to host the first and second rounds of the tournament in the last four seasons, joining Stanford, Penn State, Nebraska, Texas, Washington, and Florida.
- KANSAS IN THE NCAA: Kansas improved to 9-6 in its seventh overall appearance in the NCAA Championship. Prior to this season, the furthest the Jayhawks have.
- AGAINST THE NCAA FIELD: Kansas holds a 12-2 record against teams in the NCAA Tournament.
- 30 WINS: Kansas has reached 30 wins for the first time in the modern scheduling format. Kansas holds a program-record .938 winning percentage (30-2) and earlier this season became the fastest team to reach 20 wins (21 matches). KU reached 30 wins in the first four seasons of the program's existence, when there were more than 50 matches played per season during that era: 1975 (30-19-2), 1976 (35-15), 1977 (35-23-4), and 1978 (31-24-2).
- DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS: Kansas is holding opponents to a .116 hitting percentage during postseason play. KU also holds a 41.0 to 28.0 advantage in total blocks.
- TOP 10: Kansas is ranked No. 9 in the current AVCA Coaches Poll. The poll does not update during the postseason. The Jayhawks have been ranked in the top-25 for a program-record 13-consecutive weeks, including nine-consecutive weeks in the top-10. KU reached a program-high No. 7 ranking on Oct. 19.

JAYHAWKS OVERSEAS

From May 18-30, the Jayhawks traveled to Europe on a training trip aimed at combining cultural education with intense practices and competition. The team went 6-1 in its matches played between training sessions and travel to destinations in Italy, France and Spain. The seven matches against foreign competition, including the high-caliber Italian Federation, put the Jayhawks ahead of schedule when they reported for the season on Aug. 9.

BIG 12 PRESEASON POLL

- Three starters and the libero return from a 2014 team that ended the year 22-9, giving KU three-straight 20-win seasons for the first time since 1980-81-82. Even with the depth returning – 12 letterwinners in all – Bechard wasn’t surprised that the league coaches picked his team fourth despite finishing second each of the last two seasons.
- KU’s offensive production leaders from a year ago, Sara McClinton and Chelsea Albers, finished their careers as two-time All-Big 12 First Team and AVCA All-America Honorable Mention honorees.

GROWING UP

A seven-member recruiting class that ranked in the top-15 last fall now means seven returning sophomores with a lot of experience – specifically returning starting setter Ainise Havili. The AVCA All-America Honorable Mention honoree is back after leading the Big 12 in assists. Kelsie Payne ranked in the top-10 in blocks and attack percentage, while Kayla Cheadle posted the second-best attack percentage in the conference.

STARS AND STRIPES FOREVER

Of the 36 athletes that USA Volleyball selected to participate in the U.S. Collegiate National Team (CNT) program, three of them were Jayhawks. Outside hitter Tiana Dockery, setter Ainise Havili and right side Kelsie Payne ventured to New Orleans to train and compete in conjunction with the USA Volleyball Girls’ Junior National Championships from June 21-29. Playing for the CNT Blue Team, Dockery and Payne led their squad to a championship finish.

TRIPLE THREAT

In the offseason, KU’s senior class tripled in size. Where outside hitter Tiana Dockery might become the first player to play in four-straight NCAA Tournaments, the Jayhawks also welcome senior transfers Anna Church and Ashlyn Driskill. Church was a stud libero and defensive specialist at Saint Louis University, racking up more than 1,000 career digs. Driskill comes to KU after graduating with a chemistry degree in three years from Wichita State University.

2014 AT A GLANCE

- The Big 12 awarded a program-record six Jayhawks with all-conference honors – the most of any team in the league.
- The Jayhawks earned a national seed in the NCAA Tournament for the third-straight season (No. 16). KU joined perennial volleyball powers Stanford, Texas, Washington, Penn State, Florida, Kentucky and Nebraska as the only other teams in the country to earn a national seed in each of the last three years.
- After starting 0-3 in Big 12 play, the Jayhawks won 10 of their last 13 conference contests to finish the season tied for second place in the Big 12. Prior to 2013, Kansas had never finished second – now the team has done it twice in a row.
- During the regular season, KU played 10 teams that received an NCAA Tournament berth in 2014 and the Jayhawks went 7-7 against them.
- In the Big 12, the Jayhawk offense led the league in kills (1,627) and ranked second in kills per set (13.79), assists per set (12.82) assists (1,513) and digs (1,811). KU’s overall winning percentage (22-9, .710) tied for second among its conference counterparts.
- Freshman setter Ainise Havili set the tone in the conference with her 1,332 assists and 11.29 assists per set, both of which were the best by all Big 12 setters in 2014 and were among the top-20 in the nation. What’s more, her 1,332 assists broke the KU freshman record.
- Havili also chalked up 14 double-doubles on the year (assists/digs) – the third-most DDs in the Big 12 and the most by a freshman. That also tied her for 10th-most in a season at Kansas.
- Sophomore middle blocker Tayler Soucie completed the season as the conference’s blocking leader. Her 1.40 blocks per set ranked 18th in the NCAA.
- Sophomore libero Cassie Wait became the third Jayhawk in program history to surpass 500 digs in a season (Brianna Riley twice, Catalina Suarez). Her

COACH BECHARD'S TAKE:

"Her lateral quickness has improved as has her ability to score points from the block. Needs to be an end-of-rally attacker for us. With her, the offense will be more in front, in the M2 is where she can really help us."

COACH BECHARD'S TAKE:

"A six-rotation player when you think of her, someone who can hold her own at the net from a blocking and attacking standpoint. Versatility is what you think when you think of Dockery; someone who can ball handle at a high level and attack out of the back row."

COACH BECHARD'S TAKE:

"This spring, we saw the type of improvement we hoped for. We were not afraid to put her at the right-back, middle-back or left-back spot. Anyone who is going to serve a ball late in match, and serve it to zone, is probably going to be Claire."

COACH BECHARD'S TAKE:

"There was tremendous expectation put on her freshman year and she did not disappoint. I think the game will come a little bit easier to her now. We want her to be more aggressive and attack more. She can relax, smile more, have a little more fun and enjoy the process."

COACH BECHARD'S TAKE:

"She is going to be a fun kid. She's got this inquisitive, 'I can't wait to learn about everything that's going on,' mindset and the kid's not even 18 years old yet. So many great volleyball things lie ahead for her and I am really excited about getting her in the gym."

COACH BECHARD'S TAKE:

"If we need Maggie to set, she will be ready. If we need her to serve special, she will be ready. If we need her to play right-back, she will be ready. If we ever need to go to a two-setter system, it would be a pretty seamless transition with Maggie. She keeps herself so ready. Maggie is someone we really look forward to seeing everyday in the gym."
