NCAA SELECTION SHOW

Nov. 29 | ESPN

Kansas Volleyball looks to continue one of the best starts in program history this weekend in a trip to Laramie, Wyoming, to compete in Pistol Pete's Shootout with host Wyoming, Northern Colorado and Marquette.

SERIES HISTORY

vs. Northern Colorado (UNC leads, 2-1): Kansas and Northern Colorado meet for the first time in nearly 30 years on Friday. Kansas won the last meeting in five sets on Nov. 8, 1987 in Greeley, Colorado.

vs. W Wyoming (KU leads, 4-1): Kansas is 3-0 against Wyoming under Coach Ray Bechard. This weekend marks the third road contest against Wyoming (1-1). The series dates back to a three-set KU win on Oct. 9, 1987. Wyoming assistant Dan Georgalas is a former volunteer assistant on Coach Bechard's staff at KU.

vs. W Marquette: First meeting.

KANSAS AT A GLANCE

- Kansas enters the third weekend of the season as the lone undefeated team in the Big 12 (6-0) with conference-best numbers in attack percentage (.334), assists (13.8), kills (15.1), and aces (2.5).
- Head coach Ray Bechard is in his 31st overall season as a head coach in 2015 and his 18th with the Jayhawks. Last weekend he became the first coach to reach 300 victories at Kansas after the Jayhawks' 3-0 sweep of Duke (Sept 4).
- The Jayhawks have finished second in the Big 12 Conference standings in back-to-back seasons (2013, 2014). Nearly 75 percent of KU's blocking numbers returned and nearly 80 percent of the team's dig production returns in 2015. This includes the Big 12 leader in blocks per set in Tayler Soucie (1.40) and the third-most digs in a single season in Cassie Wait (561). Sophomore setter Ainise Havili will reprise her starting role after breaking the KU freshman record with a Big 12-best 1,332 assists last year.
- Havili, Payne and Soucie were each named to the All-Big 12 Preseason Team. That marks the second-straight preseason nod for Soucie and Havili and the first for Payne. Soucie was All-Big 12 First Team last fall, Payne was on the Big 12 All-Freshman Team and Havili earned AVCA All-America honorable mention.
- On Media Day (8/19), Bechard announced that freshman Patricia Montero will miss the 2015 season due to a torn ACL suffered while playing with the Puerto Rican national team. Her knee has been repaired and she is on pace for a full recovery a return to the court this spring.
- Kansas was named an overall national seed in each of the last three NCAA Tournaments (No. 16, 2014; No. 14, 2013; No. 11, 2012). KU joins perennial volleyball powers Stanford, Texas, Washington, Penn State, Florida, Kentucky and Nebraska as the only other teams in the country to earn a national seed in each of the last three years.
- KU finished the 2014 season at No. 15 on the final RPI tally of the season. In the last three years, the Jayhawks have never been outside the top-30.

COACH BECHARD'S QUICK HITS

1 • ANNA CHURCH

"Anna brings experience - experience and athleticism. She has good range and solid pass and serve."

2 • TORI MILLER

"Tori is developing her range, continues to be a consistent server. Flexible in being able to play right-back, middle-back and left-back."

3 • KAYLA CHEADLE

"Her lateral quickness has improved as has her ability to score points from the block. Needs to be an end-of-rally attacker for us. With her, the offense will be more in front, in the M2 is where she can really help us."

5 • CASSIE WAIT

"Her serving has improved a great deal, and we're excited about her serving to zones. The physical plays she makes are pretty amazing, and she has developed into a top libero candidate in the country."

6 • ASHLYN DRISKILL

"We're excited about having her in the gym for us and for her new opportunity. She has a great arm and we need her to be terminal for us."

7 • TIANA DOCKERY

"A six-rotation player when you think of her, someone who can hold her own at the net from a blocking and attacking standpoint. Versatility is what you think when you think of Dockery; someone who can ball handle at a high level and attack out of the back row."

8 • KELSIE PAYNE

"She is as dynamic of an athlete there is in the country. Now her volleyball IQ and skill level are catching up to that. She is someone who can take the big swings for us."

9 • CLAIRE CARPENTER

"This spring, we saw the type of improvement we hoped for. We were not afraid to put her at the right-back, middle-back or left-back spot. Anyone who is going to serve a ball late in match, and serve it to zone, is probably going to be Claire."

10 • TAYLER SOUCIE

"She is our energy bus and just has a motor that doesn't stop. She's focused on one thing: being the best she can be while helping others around her be the best they can be."

11 • AINISE HAVILI

"There was tremendous expectation put on her freshman year and she did not disappoint. I think the game will come a little bit easier to her now. We want her to be more aggressive and attack more. She can relax, smile more, have a little more fun and enjoy the process."

12 • ASHLEY SMITH

"She is going to be a fun kid. She's got this inquisitive, 'I can't wait to learn about everything that's going on,' mindset and the kid's not even 18 years old yet. So many great volleyball things lie ahead for her and I am really excited about getting her in the gym."

13 • PATRICIA MONTERO

"A youngster, too (18 in August), but unlike Ashley she has had a ton of international experience already. Though she is not big, she is a dynamic blocker. That's what will blow people away when they see that. Her great arm and the Puerto Rican spirit that she brings will be fun."

14 • MADISON RIGDON

"We would never hear her voice for the first month of practice, then suddenly she started to demand things from herself and her teammates. There is this transformation from her personality that's happening and that will carry into her having a great sophomore season."

16 • JANAEE HALL

"Janae is critical for us this year. She has knowledge of the game. As she takes care of herself and stays healthy, her minutes will increase. If her body can handle that, she certainly can be a major key for us."

19 • MAGGIE ANDERSON

"If we need Maggie to set, she will be ready. If we need her to serve special, she will be ready. If we need her to play right-back, she will be ready. If we ever need to go to a two-setter system, it would be a pretty seamless transition with Maggie. She keeps herself so ready. Maggie is someone we really look forward to seeing everyday in the gym."

20 • ADDISON BARRY

"I don't know if Addie has ever had an off day. She brings this boundless energy and enthusiasm into the gym every day. At times last year the gravity of the situation hit her straight across the head and she still responded well. This spring and the Europe trip was great for her, too."

BECHARD REACHES 300 WINS AT KANSAS

- In his 18th season at the helm, KU volleyball’s winningest coach Ray Bechard reached his 300th win at Kansas against Duke on Sept. 4.
- His milestone at KU comes just one year after collecting career victory No. 1,000.
- Bechard holds records of 301-226 in his 18th season at KU and 1,017-286 in his 31st season overall.
- Bechard ranks second among Big 12 coaches for victories at a current school behind UT’s Jerritt Elliott (353).

UNDEFEATED START

- Kansas (6-0) is the last remaining undefeated team in the Big 12 Conference.
- KU’s undefeated record through the first six matches is tied for the eighth-best start in program history.
- The longest winning streak to begin a season was 10 wins in 2001.
- At the root of KU’s undefeated start lies the top team hitting percentage in the Big 12 (.334) and the second-ranked defensive hitting percentage in the Big 12 (.135).
- The Jayhawks also pace the Big 12 in assists (13.8), kills (15.1), and aces (2.5), while ranking third in digs (15.9).

TOP-25 SEASON DEBUT

- Kansas made its top-25 season debut in the AVCA Coaches’ Poll on Monday at No. 22 after starting 6-0.
- The Jayhawks had been receiving votes in previous two coaches polls this season.
- KU’s 6-0 start includes a straight-set win over Duke, which is receiving votes in the poll.
- It marks KU’s first return to the top-25 since September of last season.

JAYHAWKS SWEEP KANSAS INVITATIONAL

- KU opened the 2015 home schedule with three straight-set wins in the Kansas Invitational against Western Illinois, Duke and UMKC.
- Junior libero Cassie Wait earned Tournament MVP honors after leading KU (6-0) to another stout defense efforts, continuing a trend of no KU opponents recording a hitting percentage above .200 this season.
Cassie Wait: “The goal is to come out and play our best every game. It’s all about controlling our side of the court. It’s such a big part of the game and I think when we do that we give ourselves the best opportunity to come out and win like we did this weekend. It’s pretty awesome.”

PAYNE AWARDED FIRST BIG 12 WEEKLY HONOR

- Seemingly unfazed by her change from middle blocker in 2014 to right-side hitter in 2015, sophomore Kelsie Payne continued her nearly unstoppable start to the season over the weekend to earn Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week honors for the first time on Monday.
- Payne led KU with 37 kills in three 3-set wins during the Kansas Invitational to earn All-Tournament honors. In KU’s three victories, she posted a combined .464 attack percentage, including a match with no attacking errors against UMKC (13k-0e-26a).
- The Austin, Texas native leads the Big 12 in kills per set (4.1) and her .450 attack percentage ranks third-best in the league.
- It is the first Big 12 weekly honor for Payne. Last season, the Jayhawks took home four Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week honors.

HAVILI PACING THE OFFENSIVE

- Sophomore setter Ainise Havili is at the heart of KU's conference-best team numbers, which include 15.1 kills per set and a .334 hitting percentage.
- Individually, Havili's steady hands lead the Big 12 in assists per set (12.0) and aces per set (0.7). The Fort Worth, Texas native also picks the right time to attack at a high rate with 14 kills on 26 attacks and just three errors (.423 attack percentage).
- Havili has two double-doubles on the season -- at Arkansas (48 assists, 14 digs) and against UMKC (44 assists, 14 digs).
- She earned AVCA All-America honorable Mention Honors last season and entered 2015 as a Preseason All-Big 12 selection.

FIRST-CLASS SERVE/RECEIVE

- Kansas leads the Big 12 in aces per set (2.5) by a wide margin. The next closest team is Iowa State with 1.4 aces per set.
- KU has reached double-figure aces in a match twice this season -- at Arkansas (10) and against Western Illinois (12).
- On the defensive side, Kansas is putting up quality receiving numbers as well. The Jayhawks have committed just eight reception errors in the first six matches of the season, while forcing their opponent to commit 48 reception errors.

ARKANSAS INVITATIONAL RECAP

- Kansas opened the season as victors of the Arkansas Invitational in Fayetteville, Arkansas.
- The season-opening weekend featured sweeps of Army and McNeese State, and a four-set comeback victory over host Arkansas.
- Sophomore setter Ainise Havili was awarded Tournament MVP honors after leading KU's offense to a team .330 attacking percentage and totaling nine aces in three matches.
- Junior Cassie Wait took home Outstanding Libero honors after averaging 4.8 digs per set, while senior outside hitter Tiana Dockery (3.1 k/s) and sophomore right-side Kelsie Payne (4.1 k/s; .438) were listed on the All-Tournament team.

UNPRECEDENTED

- In 2015, the Jayhawks set their sights on turning their run of success into an unprecedented streak. Never in Kansas volleyball history has the program been to four-straight NCAA Tournaments.
- Senior Tiana Dockery could become the first Jayhawk in program history to play in the NAAs four times.

2015 SCHEDULE

- The Jayhawks will square off against eight NCAA Tournament teams from a year ago and three squads that appeared in the final 2014 AVCA poll. Of the 20 opponents on KU's schedule, all but four were top-100 RPI teams last fall.

BIG 12 PRESEASON POLL

- Three starters and the libero return from a 2014 team that ended the year 22-9, giving KU three-straight 20-win seasons for the first time since 1980-81-82. Even with the depth returning -- 12 letterwinners in all -- Bechard wasn't surprised that the league coaches picked his team fourth despite finishing second each of the last two seasons. KU's offensive production leaders from a year ago, Sara McClinton and Chelsea Albers, finished their careers as two-time All-Big 12 First Team and AVCA All-America Honorable Mention honorees.

GROWING UP

A seven-member recruiting class that ranked in the top-15 last fall now means seven returning sophomores with a lot of experience – specifically returning starting setter Ainise Havili. The AVCA All-America Honorable Mention honoree is back after leading the Big 12 in assists. Kelsie Payne ranked in the top-10 in blocks and attack percentage, while Kayla Cheadle posted the second-best attack percentage in the conference.

JAYHAWKS ON THE MAP

From May 18-30, the Jayhawks traveled to Europe on a training trip aimed at combining cultural education with intense practices and competition. The team went 6-1 in its matches played between training sessions and travel to destinations in Italy, France and Spain. The seven matches against foreign competition, including the high-caliber Italian Federation, put the Jayhawks ahead of schedule when they reported for the season on Aug. 9.

STARS AND STRIPES FOREVER

Of the 36 athletes that USA Volleyball selected to participate in the U.S. Collegiate National Team (CNT) program, three of them were Jayhawks. Outside hitter Tiana Dockery, setter Ainise Havili and right side Kelsie Payne ventured to New Orleans to train and compete in conjunction with the USA Volleyball Girls' Junior National Championships from June 21-29. Playing for the CNT Blue Team, Dockery and Payne led their squad to a championship finish.

TRIPLE THREAT

In the offseason, KU's senior class tripled in size. Where outside hitter Tiana Dockery might become the first player to play in four-straight NCAA Tournaments, the Jayhawks also welcome senior transfers Anna Church and Ashlyn Driskill. Church was a stud libero and defensive specialist at Saint Louis University, racking up more than 1,000 career digs. Driskill comes to KU after graduating with a chemistry degree in three years from Wichita State University.

2014 AT A GLANCE

- The Big 12 awarded a program-record six Jayhawks with all-conference honors – the most of any team in the league.
- The Jayhawks earned a national seed in the NCAA Tournament for the third-straight season (No. 16). KU joined perennial volleyball powers Stanford, Texas, Washington, Penn State, Florida, Kentucky and Nebraska as the only other teams in the country to earn a national seed in each of the last three years.
- After starting 0-3 in Big 12 play, the Jayhawks won 10 of their last 13 conference contests to finish the season tied for second place in the Big 12. Prior to 2013, Kansas had never finished second – now the team has done it twice in a row.
- During the regular season, KU played 10 teams that received an NCAA Tournament berth in 2014 and the Jayhawks went 7-7 against them.
- In the Big 12, the Jayhawk offense led the league in kills (1,627) and ranked second in kills per set (13.79), assists per set (12.82) assists (1,513) and digs (1,811). KU's overall winning percentage (22-9, .710) tied for second among its conference counterparts.

- Freshman setter Ainise Havili set the tone in the conference with her 1,332 assists and 11.29 assists per set, both of which were the best by all Big 12 setters in 2014 and were among the top-20 in the nation. What's more, her 1,332 assists broke the KU freshman record.
- Havili also chalked up 14 double-doubles on the year (assists/digs) – the third-most DDs in the Big 12 and the most by a freshman. That also tied her for 10th-most in a season at Kansas.
- Sophomore middle blocker Tayler Soucie completed the season as the conference's blocking leader. Her 1.40 blocks per set ranked 18th in the NCAA.
- Sophomore libero Cassie Wait became the third Jayhawk in program history to surpass 500 digs in a season (Brianne Riley twice, Catalina Suarez). Her 561 digs were the second-most all-time at Kansas in a single season, while her 4.75 dig average was the program's third-best.
- Senior outside hitter Chelsea Albers became just the seventh Jayhawk in history to post 900-career kills and 800-career digs in a single-season.
- Senior outside hitter Sara McClinton finished her tenure in sixth place on KU's all-time career kills list. McClinton had 1,272 for four-year career, landing her just 10 kills short of Amanda Reves' fifth all-time 1,282 kills from 2008-11.

BECHARD'S TAKE*On the tournament in Wyoming:*

"We thought this tournament would be pretty competitive when we originally signed to participate in it because they all finished in the NCAA RPI top-100 last season. With the improvements these rosters have made in the offseason and the results so far this season, it is looking to be one of the most competitive and balanced tournaments in college volleyball this weekend. Even though none of our opponents are from power five conferences, they are all established as good volleyball programs. We will have to respond to everybody's best effort this weekend and we are looking forward to that challenge."

On the team's success:

"The team enjoys being in the gym together. They have created a pretty good competitive chemistry, but that is easy to develop if you haven't lost yet. We will be face with adversity at some point this weekend and it will be interesting to see how we respond to that. We are serving well – the ace-to-error ratio is pretty good. We are hitting for decent number. If you are doing those two things well, you can stay in every match. We have an opportunity to improve on blocking."

On the possibility of an unprecedented season:

"Unprecedented is something we have talked about. We have not won a Big 12 Championship. We have not gotten past the Sweet 16. So there are things to achieve out there, but I think you can't lose sight of what an honor it is to be selected to the NCAA Tournament, how hard that is. We aren't going to get ahead of ourselves there. A few years ago the goal was (getting into) the NCAA Tournament. Now that's still one of the goals, but it's one on the way to some of the other things we are trying to accomplish."

On what the 2015 Jayhawks have that his other teams have not:

"I think we have the ability to play pretty fast. We have good ball control and good volleyball IQ. It's going to come down to the physicality of our team. You lose Chelsea Albers, who was our most physical player the past two or three years, and Sara McClinton, who when playing at her best, was unstoppable. Now, Madison Rigdon can be good, Tiana Dockery can be good, Ashlyn Driskill can be good, Kelsie Payne, etc., but it's going have to be at a high tempo. We have the opportunity to be a high-level offensive team if we can handle the ball like we hope. We are not going to dominate teams with our block, but we are going to frustrate teams with our defense. If things fall into place and we stay healthy, it will be interesting to see how that plays out."

On the seven-member freshman class coming back experienced:

"We're hopeful that the biggest jump for these freshmen is between their freshman and sophomore year. We're seeing gains from other people, too. We'll play a little differently, I don't think we'll be quite as physical. We've got some pretty good volleyball players that have a very high volleyball IQ. We may not have finesse, but we'll play a little faster and have to defend at a higher level."

On the middle blockers:

"We went from a very deep group to now, of those three (Tayler Soucie, Kayla Cheadle, Janae Hall), we've got have two really good performances every night. That

Ray Bechard will enter his 18th year as the head coach of the Kansas volleyball team in 2015, continuing the steady transition of guiding his program from successful to significant. In 2015, Bechard and the Jayhawks are looking to add 'unprecedented' to the list as they embark on the goal of earning four-straight NCAA Tournament bids for the first time in program history.

The winningest coach in Kansas volleyball history and two-time Big 12 Coach of the Year (2012, 2013), Bechard will begin the 2015 season just five wins away from his 300th victory at Kansas. This coming just one year after he collected his 1,000th career win in 2014. Both milestones put him elite company, with the upcoming one putting him at second among active Big 12 Conference coaches.

Since his arrival on the coaching scene 31 years ago, Bechard spent 13 seasons on the sidelines of Barton County Community College in Great Bend, Kan., before taking over the reins at Kansas. At both stops, Bechard has compiled a remarkable all-time coaching record of 1,011-285 (.780 winning percentage).

In 17 seasons at Kansas, Bechard has led the Jayhawks to a 295-226 mark (.567) and 13 seasons at .500 or better. In all, the veteran has coached 30 All-Big 12 selections, seven All-Americans, eight AVCA Team Academic awards and 105 Academic All-Big 12 honorees.

Additionally, Bechard has built a solid fan base for Kansas volleyball as the Jayhawks have consistently finished among the nation's top-30 attendance leaders the last three years. In 2012, more than 1,300 fans attended each home match on average, to rank 29th in the NCAA in attendance. When KU hosted the NCAA First and Second Rounds in 2012 in Allen Fieldhouse, the Lawrence, Kan., host site drew more fans in the two-day event than any other national host (8,029). Last fall, KU broke its home sell-out record (7) and ranked 31st in the NCAA in attendance.

All six NCAA Tournament appearances occurred in the Bechard era and every postseason trip breaks new ground. In 2014, the Jayhawks earned their third-consecutive national seed (No. 16) in the NCAA Tournament. Even with Allen Fieldhouse unavailable, the committee still awarded Kansas a hosting opportunity. KU hosted the First and Second Rounds in Topeka, Kansas.

Not only did the 2014 season play witness to Bechard's 1000th career victory, but Kansas continued its tear through the Big 12 standings. KU overcame an 0-3 start in league play to storm back and finish the year tied for second in the conference. Prior to 2013, Kansas had never finished as high as second place. Now, the Jayhawks have done so two years in a row.
