HIGHLIGHTS:

- Kent State leads the all-time series, 1-0, after the Golden Flashes won last season in Newark, 80-75, on Dec. 7, 2015. The game was tied 75-75 until KSU’s Kellon Thomas hit a game-winning three-pointer with 1:12 remaining. Thomas finished with a game-high 22 points.

- All-time, NJIT is 0-1 against Mid-American Conference (MAC) foes, having faced only KSU.

- NJIT is playing in Game 3 of a five-game road swing and has started 1-1. The Highlanders endured a hard-fought, 74-68 loss at Minnesota on Tuesday after a 75-74 win at UMass Lowell on Saturday. Last year, the Highlanders set a program record for road wins with eight (8-9).

- NJIT finished 0-2 against the Big 10 this season. However, they trailed just 37-34 at halftime at No. 17 Purdue and were within single-digits inside the final minute. The Highlanders led 61-58 at Minnesota (in “others receiving votes”) and were down just one point inside of 3:00 left.

- Senior Tim Coleman, the reigning ASUN Co-Player of the Week, is four rebounds away from setting a new NJIT career rebounds record -- which is currently 616, held by Isaiah Wilkerson ’12.

- Senior Damon Lynn, who ranks second in the ASUN at 21.9 ppg, leads all Division I active players in career points (1,939) & 3FGM (391) -- which ranks tied for 16th all-time in D-I history.

- Freshman Anthony Tarke scored a career-high tying 13 points at Minnesota (5-11, 2-5, 1-2).

- With a win tonight, NJIT will face its best start through 11 games of a season at 6-5. The Highlanders opened 6-5 three times in 10 prior seasons as a D-I member, including in 2015-16.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN...:
NJIT is playing in its eighth game away from home this season. In a span of 27 days from Nov. 14 to tonight, the Highlanders have played on the road in two countries (USA, Mexico), six states (Utah, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Ohio) and three time zones (Eastern, Central, Mountain). So far, they have logged wins in Cancun (Idaho State) and Massachusetts (UMass Lowell).

In all, the Highlanders have traveled approximately 15,000 miles in flights and bus rides.

MEANWHILE, BACK AT THE RANCH...:
• Senior Damon Lynn in NJIT all-time scoring with 1,939 points, breaking record of Chris Flores '13 (1,724) on 11/11.

COLEMAN NAMED ASUN CO-PLAYER OF WEEK ON MONDAY:
Senior Tim Coleman was named ASUN Co-Player of the Week along with UNF’s Dallas Moore by conference officials on Monday – marking the first time in his career Coleman received ASUN weekly honors. The Union, N.J., native played a leading role in NJIT’s 2-0 week with terrific all-around averages of 21.0 ppg, 8.0 rpg, 1.0 apg, 2.0 spg, 2.0 bpg. In a Highlanders’ 83-70 win over Saint Francis University last Wednesday, Coleman tied a career high with 27 points while adding eight rebounds an assist, two steals and two blocks. The co-captain was strong down the stretch, draining 12 of 14 free throws. He followed up with another stellar performance in a 75-74 road win at UMass Lowell on Saturday, notching 15 points and a game-high 11 rebounds. The double-double marked his second of the season and 12th of his career – tying NJIT’s all-time record (Nesho Milosevic ’08; Isaiah Wilkerson ’12).

THOU SHALL STEAL:
With 77 thefts this season, NJIT leads the ASUN and ranks 25th in D-I. The Highlanders also lead the conference and place 70th in D-I steals per game (7.7)... Individually, the team boasts three players in the ASUN Top 10 in steals, with senior Damon Lynn leading (2.5), senior Tim Coleman ranking fourth (1.4) and freshman Anthony Tarke ranking tied for seventh (1.2)... Lynn also ranks seventh in the nation in total steals (25) and 19th in the nation in spg. In D-I active career thefts, the Hillside, N.J., ranks fifth (174).

Career doubles for Tim Coleman, tied for NJIT’s all-time career record (12, Nesho Milosevic & Isaiah Wilkerson). Players scoring in the opener, as all active Highlanders tallied at least 2 points, including the first in the NCAA career for six men.

THREE-LANDERS:
Current NJIT rank second in the ASUN in three-pointers made with 93 -- which ranks 16th in Division I. Last season, the Highlanders drained a program-record 306 three-pointers -- a total that ranked 27th in the nation and shattered the previous mark of 279 from 2014-15. NJIT also ranked seventh in the nation in three-pointers made per game (8.7). The team returns 83% of its treys from 2015-16.

• Senior Damon Lynn, who leads all active D-I players in 3FGM (391) and ranks tied for 16th all-time in D-I history, currently pac-ces the ASUN in both 3FGM (42) and 3FGM/G (4.2) after leading the conference with 3FGM (116) and 3FGM/G (3.3) last season.
• Senior Tim Coleman finished last season with a .412 3FG% -- which ranked fifth in the ASUN.

HOME GROWN:

Entering the season, NJIT has the most localized roster in all of college basketball, as researched by Jake Sharpless of Rukkus. The average player comes from just 39 miles from hometown to school.

NJIT’s roster features nine New Jersey natives, including three from here in Newark (Abdul Lewis, James McMillon, Taj Price), three from Hillside (Shyquan Gibbs, Chris Jenkins, Damon Lynn) one from East Brunswick (Rob Ukawuba), one from Jersey City (Mohamed Bendary) and one from Union (Tim Coleman). Last season, NJIT received 64% of its scoring from New Jersey natives. In fact, 97% of NJIT returning points in 2016-17 are from products of the Garden State.

Interestingly, the second-most localized roster for 2016-17 belongs to reigning national champ Villanova (128 miles) and the least localized is Hawaii (4,031). Here are the ranks for the other ASUN programs: Lipscomb (#7, 162 mi), North Florida (#114, 590 mi), Jacksonville (#130, 663 mi), Florida Gulf Coast (#138, 689 mi), Stetson (#226, 1113 mi), Kennesaw (#292, 1545) and USC Upstate (#329, 1948 mi).

FAB FOUR:

NJIT had its highest recruiting class on paper this season with freshmen Ron Alston, Shyquan Gibbs, Taj Price and Anthony Tarke -- and they didn’t disappoint in their career debuts on 11/11 vs. Sarah Lawrence. The four combined for 34 of NJIT’s 100 (34%) points as well as 25 of its 62 (40%) of its rebounds.

• Tarke became the first Highlander ever to record a double-double in his NCAA debut (13 pts, 10 reb). He also became just the fifth freshman to record the feat; first since Tim Coleman, Feb. 12, 2014.

• Alston and Price both finished with nine points and seven rebounds, apiece.

ALL COME BACK, NOW, HEAR?!?:

The Highlanders return eight players from last season’s 20-win team -- and that doesn’t include F Abdul Lewis, who sat out last season due to NCAA transfer rules (South Alabama). Even though NJIT lost four key players (PG Ky Howard, G Winfield Willis, F Emmanuel Tsletantakis, F Terrence Smith) from their 2016 CIT semifinalist squad, the Highlanders still return:

• 67% of their scoring (including 83% of their three-point field goals made) from last season

• 54% of their rebounding from last season

• 60% of their minutes played from last season

RECORD WATCH

#5 - DAMON LYNN

39 Steals for Lynn to set a new record for D-I career steals and pass Chris Flores ’13, who holds the current mark with 212 career thefts.

80 Assists for Lynn to set a new record for D-I career assists and pass Ky Howard ’16, who holds the current mark with 416 career helpers.

61 Points for Lynn to reach 2,000 in his career.

90 Points for Lynn to set a new all-time program career record, breaking the mark of 2,028 set by my Clearance Pierce ’06. This mark dates back to 1922.

281 Blocks for Coleman to set a new record for D-I career blocks and pass Dan Stonkus ’10, who holds the current mark with 145 career rejections.

#2 - TIM COLEMAN

4 Rebounds for Coleman to set a new record for D-I career rebounds and pass Isaiah Wilkerson ’12, who holds the current mark with 616 career caroms.

31 Blocks for Coleman to set a new record for D-I career blocks and pass David Kachelries ’13, who holds the current mark with 145 career rejections.

NJIT ANNOUNCES FIRST FOUR FOR CLASS OF 2021

he NJIT men’s basketball team has announced the early signings of four high school seniors for its Class of 2021: Isaiah Brockington (Philadelphia, Pa.), Zach Cooks (Lawrenceville, Ga.), Shawndale Jones (Pittsburgh, Pa.) and David Kachelries (Emmaus, Pa.).

“We are very excited about our incoming class,” said NJIT Head Coach Brian Kennedy. “Isaiah, Zach, Shawndale and David have all competed at high levels both on their high school and AAU teams. Each player brings a unique and added dimension to our squad and with this year’s current freshman class.”

Kennedy added: “We are building the foundation of our program as we move forward in the ASUN Conference and we believe NJIT fans will enjoy their exciting and athletic style of play.”

Isaiah Brockington is a 6-4 guard from Philadelphia and a two-time All-Catholic League member while playing for Archbishop Ryan. As a junior, he was a first-team selection after averaging 34.2 ppg for the Raiders and leading Ryan to a 16-9 record -- which was just one win shy of a berth of a state playoff berth and a six-win increase from the year before. Brockington, a member of the honors program at Ryan, is also a two-time Northeast Times Catholic League Player of the Year. He also competes in AAU basketball with K-Low Elite.

Zach Cooks is a 5-9 point guard known for both excellent ball-handling and play-making abilities. After spending his first two high school seasons at Norcross H.S., he transferred to Berkmar H.S. last season and helped guide the Patriots to a Sweet 16 in the state tournament. There, he averaged 11.4 points per game and 2.5 assists per game as a junior while earning a Scholar Athlete Award. Cooks also plays AAU basketball with the Southern Stampeede and was named co-MVP of the 2016 Best of the South AAU Tournament after averaging 27 points per game. Shawndale Jones is a 6-3 combo guard who athletically shines not only on the hardwood, but also on the gridiron as a WR/CB at The Kiski School in Greensburg, Pa. Prior, Jones played two seasons at North Hills H.S. (Pittsburgh) and averaged 20 points per game as a sophomore. In his first year at The Kiski School he was the 2015 Peddie School Invitational Tournament (PSIT) Most Valuable Player. He also competes as an AAU member of TTT (Pittsburgh) and was the co-MVP of the 2016 BIG SHOTS MYRTLE BEACH tournament, where he led the entire league in scoring at 25 points per game. In its recap of all ASUN early signings, Hoopseen.com commented that Jones “could be the steal of the class.”

David Kachelries is a 6-1 point guard and a both a 1st-Team All-League and 4th-Team All-State selection while playing at Emmaus H.S. -- where he led the Green Hornets to a third-place finish in the District 11 tournament and advance to the second round of the PIAA 4A state tournament last season. As a junior, he averaged 20.8 points per game while also registering 5.3 assists, 2.1 rebounds and 2.7 steals per game. A stand-out shooter a 1,000-point career finisher, Kachelries drained 54 three-pointers last season, breaking a new record for D-I career three-pointers made. His career record dates back to 1922.

The NJIT men’s basketball team has announced the early signings of four high school seniors for its Class of 2021: Isaiah Brockington (Philadelphia, Pa.), Zach Cooks (Lawrenceville, Ga.), Shawndale Jones (Pittsburgh, Pa.) and David Kachelries (Emmaus, Pa.).

Statistics as of 12/7/16

Lynn-Sanity:

Senior Damon Lynn leads the ASUN in three-pointers made (42), three-pointers per game (4.2) and steals per game (2.5) while ranking second in scoring at 21.9 ppg and in FT percentage (91.5; 43-for-47) and tied for third in assists per game (4.0).

In the opener, Lynn shattered NJIT’s all-time career scoring record (1,734, Chris Flores ’13) and now has 1,939 points. The co-captain is the NCAA active D-I leader in points (1,939) and three-point goal fields made (391) while ranking fifth in steals and ninth in scoring average (18.1 ppg).

Lynn followed the performance in Game 2 by tying his own NJIT D-I single-game record by scoring 34 points at Utah State, initially set as a freshman 1/18/14 at North Carolina A&T (breaking the mark of 31, set by Winfield Willis on 12/12/13). Last season, Lynn set the NJIT single-season scoring record with 642 points — breaking his own mark of 578 set in 2014-15. His average of 18.3 ppg also repre-

��d NJIT’s all- conference and 34th in the nation in total points (642).

Prior to Lynn, no Highlander had ever registered back-to-back, 500-point seasons -- a scoring plateau he has now reached in all three of his campaigns (500, 578, 642). Going back to 2014-15, he has scored in double figures in 54 of his last 56 games. In his career, he’s scored 20+ points in 47 of his 107 games and 30+ in seven affairs.

- Lynn has a remarkable streak of 72 straight games with at least one 3FGM snapped by UNF on Jan. 24, 2016. Still, in his 107-game NCAA career, he has only had three games without a trey.

- An Iron Man on the court, Lynn has started all of NJIT’s 107 games during his career, while playing an amazing 89.7% of all possible minutes (3,861 of 4,305).

- In addition to a unanimous preseason All-ASUN pick, the 2015-16 ASUN First-Team selection has been named to the 2017 Lou Henson Watch List as well as being tabbed as both a Top 100 Player in College Basketball for 2016-17 and a Non-Power Five Guard Who Will Be Household Name in 2016-17 by College Court Report.

Tim of All Trades

Senior F Tim Coleman, a selection to the preseason ASUN All-Conference Team, had a 15-point, 11-rebound read in Friday’s victory at UMass Lowell on Saturday. The performance marked his team-leading second double-double of the season and 12th of his career -- tying NJIT’s all-time career record (Nesho Milosevic ’08, Isaiah Wilkerson ’12).

Last Wednesday against Saint Francis University, he registered a career-high tying 27 points in the win against Saint Francis. He now ranks fourth in the ASUN in blocks per game (1.2) and steals per game (1.4), for 2016-17 also became the sixth member of NJIT’s D-I 1,000-point club (391) while ranking fifth in steals and ninth in scoring average (18.1 ppg).

Last season, Lynn set the NJIT single-season scoring record with 642 points — breaking his own mark of 578 set in 2014-15. His average of 18.3 ppg also represented a new program season-high and ranked fifth in the nation’s highest scoring conference. The Hillside, N.J., native also led the ASUN and placed fifth in D-I in three-pointer made (116) while leading second in the conference and34th in the nation in total points (642).

- Prior to Lynn, no Highlander had ever registered back-to-back, 500-point seasons -- a scoring plateau he has now reached in all three of his campaigns (500, 578, 642). OUTLOOK

The Highlanders are optimistic about their chances to continue the amazing upward progress of the program – which sports a 36-18 (667) record since Dec. 30, 2014. During that time, NJIT has earned its

The Highlanders frontcourt figures to be the strongest it’s ever been. And it all starts with preseason ASUN All-Conference selection, Tim Coleman.

Last year, the senior co-captain enjoyed an historical campaign in which he set NJIT’s single-season record for shots made (262) and was nominated for ASUN Defensive Player of the Year. Along the way, the native of Union, N.J., became just the third Highlander time to reach both 1,000 career points and 500 career rebounds.

One of the most versatile players in the conference, Coleman finished 2015-16 ranked third in the ASUN in steals per game (1.5), fourth in rebounds per game (7.5), fifth in blocks per game (0.9) and three-point field goal percentage (412) and 11th in points per game (13.8).

"Tim’s had a great offseason," Kennedy said. "The game is slowing down for him a lot.
He’s evolving in his game

With Coleman sliding from the ‘4’ to the ‘3’, this season, senior co-captain Rob Ukwawbua figures to move into the starting lineup.

A player Lynn referred to as “a freak of nature and very athletic,” the undersized pow-forward (6’4”) has used his speed and motor to become a valuable “sixth man” over the past two seasons. Last year, Ukwawbua finished with the highest-fourth scoring average (8.2 ppg) in the ASUN among reserves (players with fewer than 10 starts).

"I try to embrace [the role]," said Ukwawa. "I try to see where I have my advantage. If it’s a bigger guy, then maybe I can be faster. Sometimes bigger guys are tall and lanky, so maybe I’m stronger than them or maybe they’re more athletic."

Perhaps the biggest addition to the group is a guy who is just that – the biggest on the team. After sitting out a year following a trans-

"We are very happy and excited to have him. He brings us an added dimension to score in the low post," said Kennedy about Lewis, who logged nine points and 10 rebounds against NJIT on Jan. 25, 2015, in Mobile.

"He’s really been locked in this preseason and he’s working diligently preparing for the upcoming year,"

Kennedy also expects significant contributions from sophomore Mohamed Bendary. As a freshman last season, the 6’9” player of St.
Anthony’s led the Highlanders in blocks in seven games, in rebounds three times and in scoring twice.

NEWCOMERS

Gibbs is not the only freshman who figures to play a significant role this season as NJIT has three other prospects in Ron Anderson III (6’6”), Tai Price (6’7”) and Anthony Tarke (6’6”). On paper, it’s the highest-rated recruiting class NJIT has ever had.

Tarke, a 2015 graduate of Gaithersburg (MD) H.S. who attended Coastal Academy US (NJ) for the 2015-16 season, has a chance to see significant minutes early in the season.

“Anthony is a tremendous athlete who should have an immediate impact in the ASUN,” Kennedy said. "His versatility on the court should prove invaluable as the season progresses and he becomes adapted to the college game."

KENT, OH -- The Highlanders (5-5) will continue their season-long five-game road trip on Saturday when they battle the Kent State Golden Flashes (6-3). Opening tip from the Memorial Athletic and Convocation Center in Kent is slated for 7 p.m.

NJIT took Big 10 foe Minnesota to the brink in a 74-68 loss to the Golden Gophers on Tuesday night in Minneapolis. Kent State has won two in a row including a 100-72 win over Niagara last time out.

Matt Provence, the voice of the Highlanders, will be on the call beginning with the pregame show at 6:45 p.m. The broadcast can be accessed for free at www.njithighlanders.com.

ALL-TIME SERIES

Saturday marks the second all-time meeting between the Highlanders and Golden Flashes.

Last season, Kent State closed the game on a 13-4 run en route to an 80-75 win over NJIT on Dec. 7, 2015 at Fleisher Athletic Center in Newark.

Junior guard Kellon Thomas scored 12 of his game-high 22 points in the final 3:20 to help lift the Golden Flashes to the comeback win. Thomas was joined in double figures by senior forward Jaylin Walker and Xavier Pollard each chipped in with 15.

Senior forward Tim Coleman paced the Highlanders with 20 points and six rebounds while senior guards Damon Lynn and Rob Ukawuba contributed 13 points apiece.

In fact, Kent State is the only member of the Mid-American Conference (MAC) that NJIT has played.

NEWS FLASHES

The Golden Flashes rank second in the MAC at 84.1 ppg and have three players averaging in double figures led by Hall-a Preseason All-MAC East Division Team selection-at 18.7 ppg. Walker (12.1 ppg) and senior guard Deon Edwin (11.0 ppg) are the others scoring in double figures for head coach Rob Senderoff’s squad.

Kent State’s defense has been the calling card for the team this season though as they are allowing just 68.0 ppg (2nd in the MAC) and have held opponents to just 39.2% shooting from the field, which is tops in the league.

Senderoff is in his sixth season as the head coach of the program and has compiled a 106-70 record to date. The Spring Valley, N.Y., native took over as the head coach in 2011 after two previous stints as an assistant at KSU from 2002-06 and 2008-2011.

In his 11 seasons associated with the program, Senderoff has been a part of 10 postseason teams including an NCAA Tournament berth in 2006.

Kent State is 4-0 at home this season and has won 12 straight against non-conference foes at the Memorial Athletic and Convocation Center dating back to a loss to Loyola-Chicago on Nov. 29, 2014.

Edwin’s brother, Jason, also played basketball at Kent State.

Hall played his high school ball for Hall of Fame head coach Bob Hurley, Sr. at powerhouse St. Anthony’s H.S. (NJ).

NJIT sophomore center Abdul Lewis and Kent State junior guard Taishaun Johnson were teammates at South Alabama in 2014-15.

Kent State is the alma mater of Alabama head football coach Nick Saban who has won four national championships with the Crimson Tide.

NJIT OUTLOOK

The Highlanders battled for 40 minutes in a 74-68 loss to Minnesota on Tuesday night and never trailed by more than seven.

INJURIES

Senior guard Deon Edwin missed the Minnesota game due to illness.

*through games of 12/7/16

In fact, NJIT held a 61-58 lead with 7:16 to play before the Gophers closed the game on a 16-7 run.

Ukawuba led NJIT with 18 points on 5-of-8 shooting and hit all three of his attempts from downtown. The senior co-captain was joined in double figures by Lynn (12 points) and freshman Anthony Tarke who contributed 13 points and five rebounds off the bench.

The 18 points were a season-high for Ukawuba who came within a basket of tying his career-high of 20.

With two rebounds on Saturday, Coleman will pass Isaiah Wilkerson (’12) and become the school’s all-time leading rebounder. The Union, N.J., native ranks second on the team in rebounding this season at 6.5 boards per game, just behind Lewis (7.0 rpg).

MINNEAPOLIS, MN – The Highlanders (5-5) took Minnesota to the brink, but came up just short in a 74-68 loss to the Golden Gophers (8-1) on Tuesday night at Williams Arena in Minneapolis.

Senior guard Akeem Springs paced the Gophers with a game-high 19 points off the bench and he was joined in double figures by Mason (18 points), freshman guard Amir Coffey (13 points) and sophomore guard Dupree McBrayer who had 11.

The second half was a tightly contested affair with neither team leading by more than four points until McBrayer hit a pair of free throws with 0:38 left to stretch the lead to six. In the early going, Minnesota jumped out to an early 9-2 edge before a 12-5 run from the Highlanders capped by a jumper from Lewis tied things at 14 apiece.

Tarke hit a layup with 4:41 left in the opening stanza to give NJIT their first lead at 26-24. The teams traded baskets over the remainder of the half and Mason’s three in the final minute allowed the Gophers to take a 37-35 lead into the locker room.

The Highlanders will return to action on Saturday when they head to Ohio to take on the Kent State Golden Flashes (5-3). Opening tip from the Memorial Athletic and Convocation Center is set for 7 p.m. Tonight marked the second game of a season-high five-game road trip for the Highlanders.

NJIT @MBB GAME NOTES
GAME 10: AT KENT STATE

LAST TIME OUT: MINNESOTA 74, NJIT 68 IN MINNEAPOLIS (12/6/16)

HIGHLANDERS TAKE BIG 10 FOE MINNESOTA TO BRINK IN 74-68 LOSS
Senior Rob Ukawuba Paces Highlanders with Season-High 18 Points; Freshman Anthony Tarke Ties His Career-High with 13

MINNEAPOLIS, MN – The Highlanders (5-5) took Minnesota to the brink, but came up just short in a 74-68 loss to the Golden Gophers (8-1) on Tuesday night at Williams Arena in Minneapolis.

Senior guard Tim Coleman hit a layup to give NJIT a 61-58 lead with 7:16 left, Minnesota’s Nate Mason hit a three on the other end to tie the game and kickstart a 16-7 run for the Gophers over the remainder of the game.

Ukawuba’s 18 points represent a season-high and came within a basket of tying his career-high of 20. The East Brunswick, N.J., native connected on all three of his attempts from beyond the arc.

Mason’s jumper with 1:19 left gave Minnesota a 69-65 advantage and the hosts made 5-of-6 free throws in the final minute to ice the game.

NJIT hit 10-of-14 (71.4%) on the night from the charity stripe and the Golden Gophers sank 23-of-29 (79.3%).

Senior guard Rob Ukawuba led the way for NJIT with 18 points on 5-of-8 shooting while freshman Anthony Tarke chipped in with 13 points and five rebounds off the bench and Lynn added 12 points, five rebounds and five assists. Sophomore center Abdul Lewis contributed nine points and nine rebounds for head coach Brian Kennedy’s squad.

In the early going, Minnesota jumped out to an early 9-2 edge before a 12-5 run from the Highlanders capped by a jumper from Lewis tied things at 14 apiece.

Tarke hit a layup with 4:41 left in the opening stanza to give NJIT their first lead at 26-24. The teams traded baskets over the remainder of the half and Mason’s three in the final minute allowed the Gophers to take a 37-35 lead into the locker room.

NJIT MOURNS THE PASSING OF "GOOD GUY" TIM CAMP

This season, the NJIT Department of Athletics mourns the passing of Tim Camp, Assistant Athletic Director for Sports Information. Prior to his passing, he served as the men’s basketball contact the entire time since NJIT joined Division I ranks.

Camp joined the NJIT staff in August 2005 following 16 years at Saint Peter’s College in Jersey City, where he served as Assistant Director of Athletics for Sports Information.

He was inducted into the Saint Peter’s Hall of Fame in 2008. He also received the Mike Cohen “Good Guy” Award at the 76th Annual Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association Awards Dinner on April 16, 2009. The “Good Guy” award is honored annually to someone who has been especially friendly and helpful to the media, often going above and beyond to make their jobs easier and more pleasant.

At NJIT, Camp’s responsibilities included, assisting in the administration of the athletics department, publicizing the activities of the 19 varsity teams, development and production of all the athletics publications, and overseeing the maintenance of the department’s website.

Brian Kennedy, who has been an assistant men's basketball coach at NJIT since August 2012, will be introduced as the 11th head men's basketball coach in NJIT's history during a press conference on Monday, August 28.

Kennedy, whose involvement with the sport of basketball literally involved in all aspects of the DePaul program and was "BK" as he is known to his many friends, was in 1999 and then the NCAA Tournament in 2000 as a college basketball's great turnarounds, as the Blue Demons, a team Kennedy was part of one major NJIT record-breaker during the 2012-13 season.

 player, and the Pocono Invitational began.

In 1991, the Hoop Group acquired the Eastern Invitational camp and renamed it the Hoop Group Elite Camp. A few years later, the Hoop Group began running grassroots tournaments and the subsequent years have seen numerous alumni go on to play in the NBA, including Kobe Bryant, Amar’e Stoudemire 2010 #1 overall pick John Wall, 2011 #1 pick Kyrie Irving and 13 other first-round picks that year.

Numerous legendary coaches have lectured at the camp, including the late Jim Valvano and Hall of Famers Lou Carnesecca, Rollie Massimino, Hoop Group Skills Camp Director Bob Hurley, Bob Knight, and Herb Magee.

Brian Kennedy, who played at both Princeton and Monmouth (1990 graduate), took over the family business after graduating from Monmouth in 1990 and was President and co-founder when it was rebranded from the Pocono Invitational to the Hoop Group and became the largest basketball instructional organization in the world.

He entered the college coaching ranks in 1997 as an assistant coach at DePaul on the staff headed by his uncle Pat. There, he was part of one of major college basketball’s great turnarounds, as the Blue Demons, who won fewer than five games the year before he arrived, made the NIT quarterfinals in 1999 and then the NCAA Tournament in 2000 as a team ranked in the Top 25.

“BK” as he is known to his many friends, was involved in all aspects of the DePaul program and was a leader in efforts that brought in a group named as the nation’s top recruiting class in 1998 by The Sporting News.

Among the players he helped bring to DePaul five future NBA players: Quentin Richardson, Bobby Simmons, Steven Hunter, Paul McPherson, and Andre Brown.

He stepped aside from coaching from 2002 through 2009, when he worked on Wall Street in the financial sector.

He returned to the Hoop Group as Athletic Director, serving in that capacity from 2009 until 2012, when he joined the staff at NJIT.

In his first year as an assistant, the Highlanders captured their first Division I league title when they were regular season champions of the old Great West Conference.

As with DePaul in his first turn as a college coach, Kennedy spearheaded the recruiting efforts for NJIT and he faced a major task in his first recruiting year, with all three double-figure scorers from the 2012-13 Great West champions graduating in May 2013.

The story is not yet fully written, but that first recruiting class (Class of 2017) and subsequent incoming players have been vital to Highlander men’s basketball reaching unprecedented success.

The extremely inexperienced 2013-14 team finished 13-16, but the two teams since have won a combined 41 games (21 in 2014-15 and 20 in 2015-16), while advancing to the semifinals of the national postseason CollegeInsider.com Tournament after both seasons.

In addition, the Highlanders won their first-ever game over a ranked opponent when they upset #17/#16 Michigan in December 2014 and they scored their first-ever win over a team from the Big East Conference when they topped St. John’s in December 2015.

Two members of that first recruiting class have already put their names all over the NJIT record books. Damon Lynn, picked second-team all-state (all groups) by the Star-Ledger as a senior at Union Catholic High School, came on board and has started every game the Highlanders have played in his three seasons. Lynn has amassed 1,720 points in three seasons, including a school-record 349 career 3-point baskets.

Tim Coleman came in the same class, entering NJIT after graduating from St. Anthony High School in Jersey City, NJ, where he played for Naismith Memorial Hall of Fame coach Bob Hurley. At St. Anthony, Coleman was a contributor on teams that won New Jersey state Tournament of Champions crowns following his sophomore and junior seasons. In all, the Friars were 93-2 in Coleman’s last 95 career games.

Coleman has grown as a college player, compiling 1,053 points and 548 rebounds through his first three seasons with NJIT. Rob Ukawuba, a third-team all-state (all groups) pick in the same class, has been a vital contributor as the team’s sixth man the last two seasons, posting an 8.2 points per game scoring average this season.

Brian Kennedy is the proud father of four children: daughters Taylor, Tatum, and Kelly; and son Brian, Jr.

NJIT HIGHLANDERS ASSISTANT COACHES

JEFF RAFFERTY
SPRINGFIELD ’97 | 1ST SEASON AT NJIT

Jeff Rafferty joined the NJIT staff after serving nine years at the University of Delaware -- where he earned the title of Associate Head Coach for the 2013-14 season. The 1997 graduate of Springfield College enjoyed one of his highlight seasons in 2013-14, when the Blue Hens finished 25-10, tying for the second-most wins in program history, and made the 2014 NCAA Tournament as the #13 seed in the East Regional. Rafferty’s work in helping to build the UD program was recognized by FOXSports.com as one of the Top 10 Mid-Major Assistant Coaches in the country in 2008 and by RecruitDirt.com as the top assistant coach in the CAA in 2012... Prior, he was an assistant coach at the University of New Hampshire and for four years as the top assistant at UMass Lowell (then Division II). In his time at UML, the River Hawks were a combined 94-30 and made back-to-back trips to the D-II national Elite Eight in 2003 and 2004... He coached in NCAA Division III at Union College (2000-01) and at his alma mater, Springfield, which was a combined 40-17 and reached the Division III Sweet Sixteen in his second season on staff. He began his coaching career with an internship with the NBA’s Boston Celtics and coached in 1997-98 at one-time NJIT opponent Texas Pan American.

KEVIN DRISCOLL
MISERICORDIA ’04 | 1ST SEASON AT NJIT

Kevin Driscoll joined NJIT after serving as an assistant at Holy Cross, which won the 2015-16 Patriot League championship tournament by winning four straight road games to advance to the NCAA Tournament. Once in the NCAA’s, Holy Cross defeated Southern University in a “First Four” game for the program’s first NCAA Tournament win since 1953. A 2004 graduate of Misericordia (PA) University, Driscoll also had a hand in the Crusaders’ run to the 2014 CollegeInsiders.com Tournament (CIT) -- where they defeated Brown for their first national postseason since 2004-05... Prior to joining the Holy Cross staff, Driscoll was director of the Hoop Group Elite/Eastern Invitational and Skills/Pocono Invitational for four years, managing all aspects of the world’s largest basketball camps... The Hamburg, Pa., native also served as an assistant coach at Albright (PA) College for three seasons (2006-09), where he helped lead the Lions to a combined 44-32 record... He earned his bachelor’s degree in sport management and was a four-year letter winner on the Misericordia Cougars, who he helped to two postseason ECAC Division III Tournament appearances. He is among the Misericordia career leaders with a field goal percentage over 55 percent.

KIM WAITERS
ROBERT MORRIS ’11 | 2ND SEASON AT NJIT

Kim Waiters enters his second season in his first full-time college coaching position after joining NJIT as an assistant in July 2015... In his two seasons in Newark, the Highlanders have gone 41-27 with back-to-back appearances in the semifinals of the CIT... Waiters got involved with coaching when he was an undergraduate at Robert Morris (PA) University, working as a student assistant... After graduating in 2011 with a bachelor’s of Business Management, Waiters became the Director of Skills Camps at the Pocono Invitational, a prestigious overnight camp that began operation in 1963... From the Pocono Invitational, Waiters headed to The Hoop Group, the largest basketball instruction organization in the world. He directed 10 Premier Grassroots AAU team tournaments and 16 high school events featuring premier teams from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and Maryland. “Kim is an outstanding person who has the potential to be one of the top young basketball coaches in the country,” said former NJIT Head Coach Jim Engles. “He is a tremendous addition to our coaching staff, a tireless recruiter, terrific relationship builder and someone who believes in the values that align with both the NJIT community and our men’s basketball program.”

ANDREW McGLYNN
TOWSON ’12 | 2ND SEASON AT NJIT

Andrew McGlynn enters his second season on the NJIT staff after working as a Video Coordinator at La Salle University in 2014-15... In his two seasons in Newark, the Highlanders have gone 41-27 with back-to-back appearances in the semifinals of the CIT... McGlynn entered college coaching as a graduate assistant for the University of Detroit Mercy men’s basketball program, managing video operations and assisting with opponent scouting. In 2013, Detroit Mercy clinched an NIT berth, McGlynn’s first season on staff... He was head student manager for the Towson men’s basketball program for four seasons and graduated in 2012 with a bachelor’s in Sport Management and received his MBA in Business Administration from Detroit Mercy in 2014... Beginning in June 2011, when he was an intern, McGlynn worked for The Hoop Group, the largest basketball instruction organization in the world. “We are extremely excited to have Andrew join our staff,” said former NJIT head coach Jim Engles, who hired McGlynn. “He brings a wealth of experience from working on the staffs of Detroit and La Salle. He is a true professional in every sense of the word and will definitely help us elevate our program as we make the jump to the Atlantic Sun Conference.”

NJIT WELLNESS AND EVENTS CENTER... OPENING 2017

NJIT hosted a groundbreaking ceremony on Thursday, Nov. 12, 2015, for the Wellness and Events Center (WEC), a sleek new building that has the promise to become the social centerpiece of a revamped campus.

The Wellness and Events Center, already nick-named WEC, is a $102 M building that will be constructed on the site of the current Lubetkin Field at Mal Simon Stadium athletic field. WEC will extend across the length of the field, which will later be rebuilt on the north side of the building. The construction of WEC, to begin after the groundbreaking, will be finished in the Fall of 2017. As the name implies, WEC is a multi-purpose building. The 200,000-square-foot building will be equal parts a fitness center, a study space, a gathering spot and a sports arena that will double as a conference and events center. WEC will offer students a place to relax and stay fit; athletes a place to practice and play games; and the university a place to host on-campus events and conferences.

WEC’s amenities include: (1) a arena with a 3,500 capacity, (2) a 25-meter pool with diving area, (3) a fitness center with cardiac equipment and weights, (4) lounges, study areas and multipurpose rooms, (5) an indoor 10,000 square feet turf space, (6) two practice courts for intramural and intercollegiate sports, (7) a running track that will encircle the concourse of the first-floor arena. WEC is a major part of a $300 million building plan to overhaul the campus. Other parts of the plan include the Central King Building, whose classrooms and labs are state of the art; the Life Sciences and Engineering Building; a new parking deck, located behind NJIT’s Enterprise Development Center on Warren Street; and the renovation of classrooms and labs all over campus. The renovation plan reflects the university’s evolution from a commuter school to a nationally-ranked research university. Indeed, NJIT’s growing reputation has prompted a surge in enrollment that totals more than 11,000 students.

HIGH SCHOOL:
Abdul Lewis was a standout for two New Jersey state champion teams at Newark's East Side High School... Born in Newark, Lewis was All-State Group 3, All-Essex County, All-Newark, and All-Super Essex Conference following a senior season that saw East Side claim a second consecutive state crown and post a 30-2 record for a team ranked second in the state. He averaged 11.2 points and 10.5 rebounds. Abdul was second-team All-Newark and Essex County All-Junior after his team capped his junior year with a Group 3 state title...

PERSONAL:
Abdul-Wai Lewis... son of Terri Pettaway and Wayne Lewis... undecided major... born 12/27/95 in Newark, NJ.
COACH KENNEDY ON PRICE:

“Taj is a Newark product who played his HS basketball under Coaches Tavares, Garvin and Hawkins at East Side. He is a tireless worker who has a very high basketball ceiling and I believe he is just scratching the surface with his abilities. Taj will be called upon to give us immediate support “up front” as he improves his perimeter skills. His Post Grad year playing for the famed Roadrunners AAU team run by Coach Sandy Pyonin and at The Phelps School under Coach Brian Shanahan really helped to prepare him for the rigors he will face this year.”

2016-17:

• Has not scored since the opener; has 0 points (0-1 FG) in 9 combined minutes over last 5 G (and 4 DNP)
• 11/11 vs. Sarah Lawrence: Started season with 9 points (4-10, 1-6) and 1 rebound in 17 minutes off bench

HIGH SCHOOL:

A forward from Newark’s East Side High School, Taj Price, joins sophomore transfer Abdul Lewis on the Highlanders squad after the pair guided East Side to the 2014 NJSIAA North 2 Group 3 State title, defeating Summit, 54-25. East Side, ranked second in the state in 2014, posted a 30-2 overall record. ...Price averaged 9.4ppg and 4.9rpg during his senior campaign and attended The Phelps School, a prep school, in Pennsylvania, during the 2015-16 season...

PERSONAL:

Taj Awan-Ali Price... intends to major in engineering at NJIT

SEASON GAME NOTES

• Has career-high (14) blocks in one game due to injury, 12/28 through 1/16
• Last 13 career games, he has averaged 8 ppg and 5 rpg. One of his memorable efforts came in the New Jersey Non-Public ‘B’ North title game vs. fellow Jersey City power, Hudson Catholic, which entered the tilt with one loss. St. Anthony, ranked 1st in the state at the time, would defeat 2nd-ranked Hudson decisively, 57-42... Against a Hudson Catholic front line led by top 75 national recruit Reggie Cameron, a 6’8” power forward now at Georgetown, Coleman came up big. On that night, the 6-5 Coleman matched Camden in points (12) and rebounds (10) and also posted a game-best four blocked shots... Coleman grabbed nine rebounds in a regular season tilt against nationally-ranked St. Benedict’s Prep of Newark...
