HIRAM WINS FIRST PAC WOMEN'S ALL-SPORTS TROPHY

A championship in track & field lifted Hiram College to the Presidents' Athletic Conference women's All-Sports Trophy in its first year of existence, 1985-86. The league sponsored limited women's championships in 1984-85 and had a full complement of seven sports this year.

The Terriers have never won the men's All-Sports Trophy since joining the loop for the 1971-72 campaign.

Beside the track title for this year's Hiram women, the teams posted an outright second place finish in softball and second place ties in field hockey and basketball. Other Hiram finishes were third in cross-country, fifth in both tennis and swimming and a fifth place tie in volleyball.

Hiram narrowly edged John Carroll University for the title. Hiram had 37½ points to JCU's 37. Points are awarded seven for a first place finish, six for second and so on.

Rounding out the field were Carnegie-Mellon University, Washington & Jefferson College, Grove City College, Bethany College and Thiel College.
