Ties are not broken

UCF (29-23 Overall, 11-7 American)

- UCF was well-represented on the American Athletic Conference All-Conference Teams, with eight Knights being recognized. The awards haul by the Black and Gold were the most by any team in the league this season.
- No. 3 UCF tallied a 10-5 advantage in the hit column, but host No. 6 East Carolina posted a 4-2 victory in the quarterfinals of The American Championship in Greenville, N.C. Senior Willow Kalinen and junior Megan Greenwell paced the Knights with two hits each.
- After ECU struck for a run in the third inning, the Knights responded in the fourth frame by pushing across one run on three hits. Junior Courtney Rotton sent a double down the left field line to start the rally. After a flyout put two away and moved pinch runner Tiffany Lower to third base, freshman Jazmine Esparza beat out an infield single to put UCF on the board, 1-1.

UConn (17-31 Overall, 3-14 American)

- Freshman Carli Cutler, the leading hitter on the UConn softball team, has been selected to the American Athletic Conference All-Second Team and All-Rookie Team.
- The No. 7 seed UConn softball team was eliminated from the American Athletic Conference Tournament falling 7-0 to No. 2 seed Houston at the ECU Softball Complex.
- Freshman pitcher Katie Koshes (8-8) picked up the loss in the circle, allowing three runs on three hits in 1.2 innings of work. Sophomore Jill Stockley pitched in relief, surrendering four runs on three hits in 4.1 frames.

MEMPHIS (29-27 Overall, 7-11 American)

- Senior outfielder Lindsay Crowdus has been named the American Athletic Conference Co-Player of the Year and is one of four Tigers to receive conference recognition. Junior shortstop Kyler Trosclair joined Crowdus by earning first-team honors while sophomore catcher Regan Hadley has been named to the second-team and freshman third baseman Erin Parker has been named to the All-Rookie team.
- In its first-ever victory in the American Championship, Memphis struck first in the top of the first on a pair of hits by Kyler Trosclair and American Co-Player of the Year Lindsay Crowdus. The game progressed to be a pitchers duel until five runs in the top of the fifth inning pushed the momentum all in favor of Memphis over USF, 7-0.
- Early scoring by the University of Tulsa proved to be too much to overcome as the University of Memphis softball team saw its 2017 season come to an end in the semifinals of the American Athletic Conference Softball Championship. Tulsa defeated Memphis by a score of 6-0 to end the Tigers season at 29-27 overall.

EAST CAROLINA (26-30 Overall, 5-13 American)

- East Carolina senior RHP Lydia Ritchie was named to the American Athletic Conference Second Team. The awards were voted on by the conference's seven head coaches.
- No. 6 seed and host East Carolina won its first-ever American Athletic Conference Softball Championship game, knocking off No. 3 seed UCF 4-2 in the quarterfinals at the ECU Softball Stadium.
- The NCAA has honored the East Carolina women's golf and softball teams for their latest multiyear NCAA Division I Academic Progress Rate (APR), which ranked in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sport, according to a recent announcement by the organization.

HOUSTON (30-25 Overall, 12-6 American)

- Four members of the Houston Softball team were named to the All-American Athletic Conference First Team led by senior Shelby Miller being named Co-Player of the Year and freshman Arielle James being tabbed Rookie of the Year.
- The No. 2 seeded Houston advanced past No. 7 seed UConn, 7-0, in the quarterfinals of the 2017 American Athletic Conference Championship at ECU Softball Complex.
- For the second-straight day sophomore Savannah Heebner and the No. 2 seeded Houston shut out their opponent, downing No. 6 seed East Carolina, 6-0, in the semifinals of the 2017 American Athletic Conference Championship.
- Houston fell 1-0 to No. 1 seed and 24th-ranked Tulsa in the title game of the 2017 American Athletic Conference Championship. With the decision, the Cougars closed their season at 30-25, while the Golden Hurricane improved to 39-15. The second-place, regular-season finish and runner-up finish in The American Championship under first-year Head Coach Kristin Vesely are the program's highest finishes as members of The American.

USF (32-24 Overall, 9-8 American)

- Five USF Softball players earned All-American Athletic Conference honors. Kristen Wyckoff, Astin Donovan and Lauren Evans earned honors for the second consecutive season, while Cheyenne Eggens and Bethaney Keen were first-time honorees.
- USF dropped a heartbreaker in the first round of the conference tournament, falling 7-0 to Memphis.
- Senior Kristen Wyckoff and junior Astin Donovan earned spots on the NFCA All-Mideast Region Teams. Wyckoff was a second team honoree, while Donovan was named to the third team.

22/22TULSA (41-17 Overall, 15-3 American)

- Sophomore Haley Meinen hit a walk-off home run to the opposite field on the first pitch she saw in the bottom of the seventh inning on Friday as Tulsa defeated Arkansas 5-4 in the opening game of the NCAA Norman Regional.
- Tulsa rallied from down a run in the top of the seventh inning to defeat North Dakota State 2-1 and secure a spot in the NCAA Norman Regional finals contest. The Hurricane won their first two games of the regional in their final at-bat, marking the first time that Tulsa has made an appearance in the title game without a loss.
- Tulsa fell in a 10-inning contest to Oklahoma 6-4 in the Regional Final to force a winner-take-all rubber match. Tulsa fell just short of making the program's first NCAA Super Regional as they fell to defending national champion Oklahoma 3-0 in the Norman Regional title game at Marita Hynes Field. The Hurricane out-hit the Sooners, 8-6, in the game after being out-hit in the previous day's contest.

EMAIL DISTRIBUTION

Media members may access PDF versions of the complete weekly press release, including conference and team-by-team statistics, on TheAmerican.org. Regular updates of the release will be distributed via e-mail from the conference office. To be included on the distribution list, send an e-mail request to Chevonne Mansfield at cmansfield@theamerican.org.

WEEKLY AWARDS

The American names a Player of the Week and Pitcher of the Week each Monday morning during the season, along with a five-player Honor Roll. Winners are chosen from nominations provided by conference sports information directors. The information will be available from the conference office via release as well as on the league web site.

ANNUAL AWARDS

The American Athletic Conference will name all-conference teams and individual honors following the conclusion of the regular season. The awards are chosen by a vote of the league's seven head coaches at the conclusion of the regular season and will be announced shortly thereafter.
