POSTSEASON HONORS

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

McKenzie Milton • So. • QB • UCF • Kapolei, Hawaii

Milton finished the 2017 season ranked second nationally in pass efficiency rating (179.3), trailing only Heisman Trophy-winner Baker Mayfield of Oklahoma. Milton, who was eighth in the Heisman voting, threw for 4,037 yards and 37 touchdowns against nine interceptions and added 613 rushing yards and eight TDs on the ground. He was the engineer of a UCF offense that led the nation in scoring (48.2 ppg) as the Knights went 13-0 on the season.

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Ed Oliver • So. • DE • Houston • Houston, Texas

Oliver entered the 2017 season as an Associated Press Preseason All-America selection and further established himself as arguably the nation's top defensive player as a sophomore. Oliver registered 73 tackles in 12 games, despite missing significant portions of two games due to injury. Oliver had 5.5 sacks, 16.5 tackles for loss, two forced fumbles, a fumble recovery, three pass breakups and seven quarterback hurries. Oliver was named as a consensus All-America selection and won the Outland Trophy, as the nation's top interior lineman.

SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Tony Pollard • So. • RB/KR • Memphis • Memphis, Tenn.

Pollard was chosen as Special Teams Player of the Year for the second straight season as he managed to improve on his already-impressive numbers as a return specialist. Pollard led the nation in kickoff return average at 40.0 yards and was chosen as an All-America First Team selection by the FWAA and CBSSports.com. He also led the nation with four touchdowns on kickoff returns and has six TDs on kickoffs in his first two seasons. Pollard became the fifth straight Memphis player to be named American Special Teams Player of the Year.

ROOKIE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

T.J. Carter • Fr. • CR • Memphis • Nashville, Tenn.

Carter is the first Memphis player to be named as The American's Rookie of the Year. He has started all 13 games as a true freshman and had a team-high five interceptions with two fumble recoveries to account for seven takeaways in 2017. He was additionally chosen as an FWAA Freshman All-America selection.

COACH OF THE YEAR

Scott Frost • UCF

Frost was the clear choice as The American's Coach of the Year award after he led the Knights to a 13-0 season, including an 8-0 mark in conference play, capped by the American Athletic Conference title and a win against Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Frost, whose roster included more than 50 players from the Knights' winless team of 2015, brought UCF to a 6-7 record in his first year before turning in the perfect 2017 season. Frost was a consensus choice as the national coach of the year as he earned the FWAA Eddie Robinson award, the Associated Press honor, the Home Depot award and the AFCA accolade.

TEAM ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE AWARD

Cincinnati

UCF quarterback McKenzie Milton, who led the Knights to a perfect regular season, has been chosen as the American Athletic Conference Offensive Player of the Year while Houston defensive tackle Ed Oliver, who is a finalist for two major national honors, was named The American's Defensive Player of the Year by the league's 12 head coaches.

Memphis running back Tony Pollard was a repeat choice as The American's Special Teams Player of the Year, while Tigers cornerback T.J. Carter was chosen as Rookie of the Year. UCF head coach Scott Frost, who has the Knights ranked No. 11 in the Amway Coaches' Poll in his second year in Orlando, was the unanimous choice by his colleagues as The American's Coach of the Year.

Cincinnati was the winner of The American's Team Academic Excellence Award as the team with the highest cumulative grade-point average.

Milton enjoyed a breakout year as a sophomore on his way to Offensive Player of the Year honors. He enters Saturday's American Athletic Conference Championship against Memphis ranked second nationally in pass efficiency rating (182.9), trailing only Baker Mayfield of Oklahoma.

Oliver entered the 2017 season as an Associated Press Preseason All-America selection and further established himself as arguably the nation's top defensive player as a sophomore. Oliver is one of three finalists for both the Nagurski Trophy, as the nation's top defensive player, and the Outland Trophy, as the nation's top interior lineman.

Pollard was chosen as Special Teams Player of the Year for the second straight season as he managed to improve on his already-impressive numbers as a return specialist. Pollard leads the nation in kickoff return average at 44.2 yards - a mark that would shatter the NCAA's single-season record if it holds. He also leads the nation with four touchdowns on kickoff returns and has six TDs on kickoffs in his first two seasons.

Carter is the first Memphis player to be named as The American's Rookie of the Year. He has started all 11 games as a true freshman and has a team-high four interceptions with two fumble recoveries to account for six takeaways in 2017.

Frost was the clear choice as The American's Coach of the Year award after he led the Knights to an 11-0 overall record and an 8-0 mark in conference play, capped by the East Division title. Frost, whose roster includes more than 50 players from the Knights' winless team of 2015, brought UCF to a 6-7 record in his first year before turning in this year's perfect regular season.

Cincinnati was named the winner of the Team Academic Excellence Award for the third consecutive season. That honor goes to the conference team with the highest cumulative GPA of all student-athletes on the roster at the beginning of the academic year.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL PLAYOFF

The College Football Playoff (CFP) is a big success. Fans, including many who are new to the sport, enjoy it. The first College Football Playoff semifinals and national championship were the three most-viewed programs in cable television history.

Every Game Counts

The playoff preserves the excitement and significance of college football's unique regular season where every game counts.

Four Teams

The selection committee ranks the teams based on the members' evaluation of the teams' performance on the field, using conference championships won, strength of schedule, head-to-head results, and comparison of results against common opponents to decide among teams that are comparable.

Two Games, One Goal

The kickoff of the new year belongs to college football, with two semifinal games rotating annually among the Cotton Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Orange Bowl, Peach Bowl, Rose Bowl and Sugar Bowl. The two teams winning the playoff semifinals compete for the College Football Playoff National Championship. That game is in a different city each year, always on a Monday night.

Universal Access

Every FBS team has equal access to the College Football Playoff based on its performance. No team automatically qualifies.

Governance

University presidents and chancellors from all 10 FBS conferences and Notre Dame serve on the CFP Board of Managers and govern the administrative operations, with commissioners (the Management Committee) managing the event. A small staff in the playoff office in Irving, Texas, carries out the detailed responsibilities.

Selection Committee

A talented group of high-integrity individuals with experience as coaches, student-athletes, college administrators and journalists, along with sitting athletics directors, comprise the selection committee. Members of the committee are: Kirby Hocutt (chair), Frank Beamer, Jeff Bower, Herb Deromedi, Chris Howard, Tom Jernstedt, Bobby Johnson, Jeff Long, Rob Mullens, Dan Radakovich, Gene Smith, Steve Wieberg and Tyrone Willingham.

Selection Committee Responsibilities

- Rank the top 25 teams and assign the top four to semifinal sites.
- Assign teams to New Year's bowls
- Create competitive matchups
- Attempt to avoid rematches of regular-season games and repeat appearances
- Consider geography

Participants In New Year's Bowls

Both participants in the Orange, Rose and Sugar Bowls are contracted outside the playoff arrangement (Big Ten and Pac-12 to Rose Bowl; SEC and Big 12 to Sugar Bowl; ACC to Orange Bowl against the highest ranked available team from the SEC, Big Ten and Notre Dame). If a conference champion qualifies for the playoff, then the bowl will choose a replacement from that conference. When those bowls host the semifinals and their contracted conference champions do not qualify, then the displaced champion(s) will play in one of the other New Year's bowls.

When not hosting semifinals, the Cotton, Fiesta and Peach Bowls will welcome displaced conference champions and the top-ranked champion from a non-contract conference. The highest-ranked available teams will fill any other berths. The selection committee will make the pairings.

BOWL PARTNERSHIPS

The American Bowl Lineup

In addition to the College Football Playoff and New Year's Bowls, The American will have either a primary or secondary affiliation with 12 bowl games during its current six-year bowl cycle. The American works annually with its member schools and bowl partners to create the most sensible and attractive postseason matchups.

The Military Bowl presented by Northrop Grumman takes place at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium in Annapolis, Maryland, while the events and activities surrounding the game are based in Washington, D.C. The American Athletic Conference will face an opponent from the Atlantic Coast Conference each year in the current cycle.

The Birmingham Bowl takes place at Legion Field in Birmingham, Alabama. The American/Big East has partnered with the bowl since its inception in the 2006 season. The American Athletic Conference will annually face an opponent from the Southeastern Conference.

The Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl is played at Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg, Florida. The American Athletic Conference will supply a team to the bowl during each year of the six-year cycle. Conference USA will play in the game in 2015, 2017 and 2019, while the Atlantic Coast Conference provides the opposing team in 2014, 2016 and 2018.

The Boca Raton Bowl began in 2014 and will feature an American Athletic Conference team three times during the six-year cycle at FAU Stadium in Boca Raton, Florida. The American representative will play a team from either the Mid-American Conference or Conference USA in 2016.

The DXL Frisco Bowl will be played for the first time in 2017 as the former Miami Beach Bowl was relocated to Toyota Stadium in Frisco, Texas. An American Athletic Conference plays in the bowl each year.

The Hawai'i Bowl is played on Hawaiian Airlines Field at Aloha Stadium on the campus of the University of Hawaii. The American Athletic Conference will participate in the bowl in 2015, 2017 and 2019, facing an opponent from the Mountain West.

The AutoNation Cure Bowl made its debut in 2015 at the newly renovated Citrus Bowl in Orlando, Florida. An American Athletic Conference team will be paired against an opponent from the Sun Belt Conference. Net proceeds from the game will benefit the Breast Cancer Research Foundation.

The Lockheed Martin Armed Forces Bowl is played at Amon G. Carter Stadium on the campus of Texas Christian University. The American Athletic Conference sends a team to the bowl in 2014, 2016 and 2018. The opponent will be a Big 12 team in 2016 and 2018, with Conference USA as a secondary affiliation.

Annual Awards

The American Athletic Conference will name first and second all-conference teams, players of the year on offense, defense and special teams, rookie of the year and coach of the year. The awards are chosen by a vote of the league's 12 head coaches at the conclusion of the regular season. The awards will be announced Nov. 29, 2017. The American Athletic Conference All-Academic Team is comprised of players who have an overall grade-point average of 3.00 or better over the previous academic year and completed at least two semesters of academic work. The team is announced in August. The American Athletic Conference Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year was established to recognize student-athletes who have achieved success in the classroom and on the field. The winner receives a scholarship which may be applied to graduate or professional studies.
