No. 5 Memphis 67, No. 4 Tulsa 64

Records: Tulsa (19-12); Memphis (21-12)

Memphis advances to face No. 1 Cincinnati in Saturday's semifinals. The Tigers took two out of three games over Tulsa after splitting the regular-season meetings as each team defended its home court.

Memphis defense held Tulsa to a season low 25 points and zero three-point field goals (0-for-9) in the first half.

Tulsa F Junior Etou scored 13 points getting his 26th double figure game of the season, along with 12 rebounds.

Memphis G Kareem Brewton Jr. scored the game-winning shot at the buzzer, finishing with a game total of 15 points.

The buzzer-beater was Brewton Jr.'s second of the season. Brewton Jr. hit a game-winning 3-pointer at Temple on Jan. 13, 2018.

G/F Raynere Thornton grabbed 11 rebounds tying his season-high.

Tulsa forced 18 turnovers with seven steals.

Memphis as a team had double digit assists for the 26th time this season.
