#4/4 WASHINGTON at CALIFORNIA Old Conference Rivals Square Off To Start November

THE GAME: The Washington football team (8-0 overall, 5-0 Pac-12) puts its 11-game win streak on the line as the Huskies travel to Berkeley to face California (4-4, 2-3) Saturday at Memorial Stadium. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. PT and the game will air on ESPN. The Huskies maintained their No. 4 ranking in both major polls with a thrilling win at Utah last Saturday while the Golden Bears are coming off of a Thursday night loss at USC. After the Cal game, Washington plays back-to-back-games at home: Nov. 12 vs. USC and Nov. 19 against Arizona State.

QUICK SLANTS: The Huskies' current 11-game winning streak is the second-longest in the nation ... UW leads the nation in fumbles recoveries (12), turnover margin (+1.63 per game) and pass efficiency (196.69) and are fourth in fewest turnovers (6) and takeaways (19); and fifth in fewest interceptions (3) ... UW is also fourth in scoring offense and seventh in scoring defense (one of four teams in the nation in the top 10 in both, along with Alabama, Michigan and Ohio State) ... Dante Pettis broke the UW record vs. Utah with his 5th career punt return for a TD ... he's one of just five players in the FBS with two punt return TDs this season ... the Dawgs have allowed just seven points after a turnover this season while they've turned 19 takeaways into 69 points ... of the six times the Huskies have turned it over, they've gotten a takeaway on the ensuing drive four times ... Jake Browning, who ranks No. 2 in the FBS in pass efficiency (195.6) entering this week, broke the school record with 6 TD passes at Oregon ... with 28 TD passes in 2016, he's already easily surpassed his 2015 total of 16 and has thrown the second-most in UW history ... Browning ranks No. 3 in the nation in touchdowns and No. 4 in yards per attempt ... linebacker Keishawn Bierria leads the FBS with five fumble recoveries this season, tying the UW record ... the Huskies had a kick return for a TD (John Ross, 92 yds.) and a punt return for a TD (Pettis, 68 yds.) in the win over Rutgers ... only twice before in recorded history have the Huskies done that: 1940 vs. WSU (Ernie Steele had an 87-yd. KOR and an 83-yd. PR) and 2001 vs. Idaho (Roc Alexander, 95-yd. KOR; Charles Frederick, 87-yd. PR) ... Ross now has five scoring plays of 90 or more yards in his UW career – four kickoff returns and a 91-yard TD reception ... five true freshmen have played for the UW this season: DB Myles Bryant, WR Aaron Fuller, OL Nick Harris, DB Taylor Rapp and LB Brandon Wellington.

TELEVISION: The UW-Cal game will air live to a national audience on ESPN with Mark Jones (play-by-play), Rod Gilmore (color) and Quint Kessenich (sidelines) providing the commentary.

RADIO: The Washington IMG College Network, with its flagship station KOMO AM-1000 and FM-97.7, will carry the live broadcast of every football game on 17 Northwest radio stations. Longtime play-by-play man Bob Rondeau and color analyst Damon Huard are joined by sideline reporter Elise Woodward. The home broadcast of the game will also air on Sirius (137) and XM (197) satellite radio.

THE HEAD COACH: Chris Petersen, who has built a reputation as an offensive innovator who carried the Boise State football program to its highest highs, was finally swayed to take on a new challenge when he agreed to become head coach of the Huskies in December, 2013. In 2015, Petersen's Huskies, featuring one of the nation's youngest squads (74 freshmen and sophomores and only 14 seniors) and a schedule ranked by many as the nation's toughest (10 out of 12 qualified for bowls), rallied for the Dawgs' sixth consecutive bowl berth, which resulted in a victory over Southern Miss in the Heart of Dallas Bowl. A stout Husky defense (first in the Pac-12 in scoring and total defense) led the way as a freshman-laden offense showed steady growth en route to a 7-6 season record. Off the field, Petersen's impact on the program's academic success was clear as well. During the season (fall academic quarter, 2015), the football team posted a team GPA of 3.12, highest in team history, breaking the old record, set the previous spring. In his first season at UW, Petersen led the Huskies to an 8-6 record and a berth in the TicketCity Cactus Bowl. He became the fastest active FBS coach to reach 100 career victories – doing so in 117 games – and tied with Knute Rockne for fifth fastest all-time. Petersen's 'Built for Life' coaching philosophy has been embraced on and off the field by the Huskies in less than a year. Not only did UW produce three first-team and seven honorable mention All-Pac-12 players, but five players earned first or second team Academic All-Pac-12 recognition, including Danny Shelton who was named First-Team Academic All-American – a first for the UW since 1991. Petersen, 51, the only two-time winner of the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award (2006 and 2009), compiled an exceptional 92-12 record in his eight seasons as Boise State head coach (2006-2013), including two unbeaten seasons (13-0 in 2006 and 14-0 in 2009) and two BCS bowl berths. He won five conference titles and posted a 57-6 record in conference play. Petersen, who also won the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award in 2010, led the Broncos to 10 or more wins in seven of his eight seasons and to 12 or more in four straight (2008-11). In 2006, Petersen's first season in charge in Boise, he led the Broncos to their first undefeated season since 1958, when the school was a junior college. The 2006 season was capped by a 43-42 overtime win over Oklahoma in the Fiesta Bowl, a game remembered by many as one of the greatest in bowl-game history. That Boise team ended the year ranked No. 5 in the final Associated Press top 25 poll. The following season, the Broncos went 10-3 and finished out of the polls for what would be the only time in Petersen's first seven seasons. The 2008 squad went 12-1 and ranked No. 11 in the final top 25, finishing the regular season undefeated. In 2009, Petersen led the Broncos to their second undefeated campaign and another Fiesta Bowl berth. Boise State beat TCU, 17-10, in Arizona, becoming the first team from a non-BCS conference ever to win two BCS bowl games. The '09 Broncos checked in at No. 4 in the final AP poll. The 2010 season ended with a 12-1 record, a No. 9 final ranking and a win in the Las Vegas Bowl, the first of three straight trips to Vegas for Boise State. In 2011, BSU once again went 12-1, finishing with a No. 8 final ranking. Last season, Petersen's team went 11-2 and beat Washington in the Las Vegas Bowl, good for a No. 18 final ranking. In 2013, Boise State, which faced Washington in the first game at the newly renovated Husky Stadium, finished the regular season with an 8-4 record (Petersen came to the UW prior to the Broncos' bowl game). Throughout his teams' unmatched on-field success, Petersen also saw his Broncos succeed in the classroom. In 2011, Boise State was the only school to finish in the top 10 in both major polls and also receive a Public Recognition Award from the NCAA for finishing in the top 10 percent of the Academic Progress Rate (APR), the second of three straight such awards for the program. Boise State's APR was second in the nation in 2011 and 2012 and Petersen was recognized in 2012 for having the best APR for the two previous years among all FBS coaches. Known for his work with quarterbacks, Petersen tutored Ryan Dinwiddie, Jared Zabransky and Kellen Moore at Boise State. Moore set an NCAA record with 50 career wins as a starting QB while winning three conference player of the year awards. Moore was the only player ever to record four 3,000-yard seasons in both passing and total offense. His 142 passing touchdowns were second-most in NCAA history while his 14,667 career passing yards were fifth-most. He twice led the nation in passing efficiency and set an NCAA record for season interception percentage, throwing just three in 431 attempts in 2009. During his eight seasons seasons, 51 Broncos earned all-conference honors. Before taking over as head coach at Boise State, Petersen served as the Broncos' offensive coordinator from 2001-05. Petersen began his coaching career in 1987 as freshman coach at his alma mater, UC Davis. In 1989, he became the Aggies' varsity wide receivers coach. In 1992, Petersen moved to Pittsburgh, where he was quarterbacks coach. In 1993, Petersen moved back west to take over a QBs coach at Portland State, helping the Vikings to Division II playoff berths in each of his two seasons. In 1995, he took a job at Oregon as the receivers coach under Mike Bellotti, a position he held before moving to Boise as offensive coordinator in 2001. Born in Yuba City, Calif., on Oct. 13, 1964, Petersen graduated from Yuba City High in 1983 and went on to play quarterback at Sacramento City College. From there, he transferred to UC Davis, earning a bachelor's degree in psychology in 1988. He later earned a master's in educational psychology from Davis. At Davis, he set numerous school records, including the season standards for passing efficiency, completions, completion percentage, TD passes and total offense as well as the career mark for completion percentage. He still remains in the top 10 in Aggies history in numerous season and career categories and his season and career completion percentage records still stand. In 1986, Petersen was named the Northern California Athletic Conference Player of the Year and earned UC Davis' Colby E. Slater Award as the school's Male Athlete of the Year. He was also a captain and won the team's Jerry Norris Award (Most Valuable and Inspirational) and was inducted into the Cal Aggie Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997. Petersen and his wife, Barbara, have two sons, Jack and Sam.

100 WINS: With the 2014 victory over Washington State in the Apple Cup, UW head coach Chris Petersen reached his 100th career victory. At the time, it put his record at 100-17, meaning that it took him 117 career games to reach his 100th victory. Only four coaches in major college history did it faster:

- Gil Dobie (North Dakota State, UW, Navy, Cornell): 108 games
- George Woodruff (Penn): 109 games
- Bud Wilkinson (Oklahoma): 111 games
- Fielding Yost (Neb., Kansas, Stanford, San Jose St., Michigan): 114 games
- Chris Petersen (Boise State, Washington): 117 games
- Knute Rockne (Notre Dame): 117 games

Additionally, Petersen's 117 games were fewer than any ACTIVE FBS coach required to make it to 100 victories. Here were the top five, at the time:

- Chris Petersen: 117 games
- Urban Meyer: 118 games
- Bob Stoops: 122 games
- Gary Patterson: 128 games
- Steve Spurrier: 129 games

PETERSEN THIRD ON LIST: The 2016 NCAA record book lists the top active FBS coaches in terms of winning percentage (minimum five years at FBS) and the Huskies' own Chris Petersen is No. 3 on this list. Here are the top 10 FBS coaches by career winning pct. (FBS only), at the start of the 2016 season:

No.	Name, Current School	W	L	T	Pct.
1.	Urban Meyer, Ohio State.....	154	27	0	.851
2.	Jimbo Fisher, Florida State.....	68	14	0	.829
3.	Chris Petersen, Washington.....	107	24	0	.817
4.	Bob Stoops, Oklahoma.....	179	46	0	.796
5.	David Shaw, Stanford.....	54	14	0	.794
6.	Nick Saban, Alabama.....	191	60	1	.760
7.	Gary Patterson, TCU.....	143	47	0	.753
8.	Mark Richt, Miami, Fla.....	145	51	0	.740
9.	Dabo Swinney, Clemson.....	75	27	0	.735
10.	Les Miles, LSU.....	139	53	0	.724

PETERSEN'S FIRST FIVE: The NCAA Record Book also notes that Petersen won more games in his first season as a head coach (13-0 in 2006) than any coach in history and that his record over his first five seasons as a head coach (61-5) was fifth-best in history, ahead of the likes of Knute Rockne and Bud Wilkinson and behind coaching legends like Gil Dobie and Walter Camp. Here are the 10-best coaching performances over the first five years of a career:

Coach, Team(s)	Seasons	W	L	T	Pct.
Gil Dobie, North Dakota St., Washington.....	1906-10	26	0	1	.981
Walter Camp, Yale, Stanford.....	1888-92	69	2	2	.959
George Woodruff, Penn.....	1892-96	67	5	0	.931
Bob Neyland, Tennessee.....	1926-30	43	2	3	.927
Chris Petersen, Boise State.....	2006-10	61	5	0	.924
Knute Rockne, Notre Dame.....	1918-22	39	3	3	.900
Barry Switzer, Oklahoma.....	1973-77	51	5	2	.896
Elmer Henderson, Southern California.....	1919-23	36	5	0	.878
Bud Wilkinson, Oklahoma.....	1947-51	46	6	1	.877
Henry Williams, Army, Minnesota.....	1891, 1900-03	47	4	6	.877

COACHING STAFF: In the first three years of the Chris Petersen Era at Washington, there are been just two changes to the Huskies' full-time assistant coaching staff, both coming this past offseason. Seven of the nine assistants are in their third season at UW under Petersen (one of which was a holdover from the prior staff). Of the nine full-time coaches on the 2016 staff, six came to the UW from Boise State along with Petersen after 2013. Defensive coordinator Pete Kwiatkowski was on Petersen's staff in Boise in all eight seasons as head coach, including the last four as coordinator. Kwiatkowski, a BSU Hall-of-Fame defensive lineman, also worked at his alma mater from 1988 to 1996. Associate head coach and offensive line coach Chris Strausser spent 12 of the last 13 seasons prior to UW coaching in Boise (he coached at Colorado in 2006), meaning he was with Petersen seven of eight seasons at BSU. Running backs coach and recruiting coordinator Keith Bhonapha was also on Petersen's Broncos staff during Petersen's entire eight seasons, though he started as director of operations. He coached running backs his last five years at BSU. Assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and linebackers coach Bob Gregory came to Washington having spent the previous four seasons at Boise State. He was the defensive coordinator at California from 2002 to 2009 and, along with also having coached at Boise State in 2001, has also worked in the conference at Oregon. Former Oregon State quarterback Jonathan Smith, who turned in several top-class performances vs. the Huskies during his playing days, was quarterbacks coach at Boise State for Petersen's last two seasons. Previously an offensive coordinator at Montana, he continued in that role (along with QBs) at Washington. Defensive backs coach Jimmy Lake, who spent the 2004 season in the same position at Washington under head coach Keith Gilbertson, was Petersen's DBs coach in Boise the last two years there, having spent five seasons in the NFL before that. Lake added co-defensive coordinator to his title this offseason. Tight ends coach Jordan Paopao is entering his fourth season in that role, having worked as a Husky GA the previous two. The two newcomers to the Washington staff are not entirely new. UW alum Ikaika Malloe, who lettered as a Husky from 1993 to 1996, once worked as a graduate assistant at his alma mater. He joined the staff after last season, coming to Seattle from Utah State. New wide receivers coach Bush Hamden was an offensive quality control assistant for the Huskies in 2015. A former Boise State quarterback, he worked at Davidson, Arkansas State, Florida, Sacramento State, Maryland and Colorado before moving to Montlake. Three of Washington's four graduate assistant coaches are in their second season: former Boise State receiver Kirby Moore, former Stanford defensive back Terrence Brown and former Kansas State linebacker Hansen Sekona. The newcomer is former North Carolina offensive lineman Kyle Jolly.

THE YOUNG AND THE OLD: Washington was one of the country's youngest teams in 2015, as the UW roster included 52 freshman (both true and redshirt freshmen) and 24 sophomores, as compared to just 13 seniors. Not surprisingly, the Huskies returned a great deal of experience in 2016. In fact, not counting specialists (kickers, punters, long snappers, returners), a total of 33 different Huskies have started at least one game in a Washington uniform, 18 on offense and 15 on defense. However, the 2016 roster still includes just 13 seniors to go along with 41 freshmen and redshirt freshmen, as well as 28 sophomores.

HUSKIES vs. GOLDEN BEARS HISTORY: Washington and California are the only two teams that have played in what is now the Pac-12 Conference in every season since the league was founded in 1916. As that would indicate, they've played one another quite often. The Huskies hold a 53-39-4 record in the all-time series, which began in 1904. Last year in Seattle, Cal built a 27-7 lead over the UW and then held the Huskies off for a 30-24 win, a late interception on the Huskies' final drive sealing the victory. In 2014 in Berkeley, a 100-yard fumble return from Shaq Thompson and an 86-yard pass to John Ross were the key plays in a 31-7 Husky win. In 2013 in Seattle, UW earned a 41-17 victory behind 241 rushing yards from Bishop Sankey and 376 passing from Keith Price. Both accounted for two TDs. In 2012, the UW earned a 21-13 win thanks largely to second-half TDs from Austin Seferian-Jenkins and Sankey. In 2011 in Seattle, the Huskies held on a late goalline stand to preserve a 31-23 victory as Price threw for three TDs in the Pac-12 opener. In 2010 in Berkeley, the Huskies beat the Bears, 16-13, on the final play of the game, a one-yard run from Chris Polk.

TEAM NOTES

In 2009, the Huskies closed out their season with a 42-10 win over the Bears in Seattle. Jake Locker passed for 248 yards and three TDs and rushed for 77 and two more scores. In 2008, Cal won in Berkeley, in another season finale as Jahvid Best ran for 311 yards and four TDs on only 19 carries in a 48-7 Bears win. In 2007, the 37-23 Husky victory broke a streak of five straight Cal wins in the series. Prior to that five-game losing streak, the Huskies had won 19 consecutive games in the series, a streak that began with a 50-31 win in 1977. Before 2002, the last Cal win had come in 1976. Cal and UW first met in 1904, battling to a 6-6 tie in a game played in Seattle. In both 1915 and 1916, they played one another twice each year, with unbeaten Gil Dobie's Washington team sweeping the four games. In 1917, Cal broke the UW's 63-game unbeaten streak (still an NCAA record) with a 27-0 win in Berkeley. Other big games in the series include the 1937 game, when the unranked Huskies held No. 1 Cal to a 0-0 tie in Seattle. In 1991, the Bears probably came as close as anyone to beating Washington that national championship season, as Mike Pawlawski's last-gasp pass into the endzone was batted down in a 24-17 UW win. Washington has also posted four of its nine biggest comebacks in history against California. The biggest ever was in 1988, when the Dawgs trailed 27-3 before rallying to win, 28-27. In 1981, Washington was down 21-0 in the third quarter before coming back for a 27-26 victory. A 20-point comeback in 1993 (24-23) and a 14-point rally in 1999 (31-27) also rank on the list. In 2001, the Huskies trailed 21-7 in the first quarter, but came back to earn a 31-28 victory in Berkeley.

HUSKIES vs. BAY AREA SCHOOLS: Washington has a combined, all-time record of 107-81-8 vs. opponents from the San Francisco Bay Area. Washington is 53-39-4 against Cal, 42-41-4 vs. Stanford, 10-0 vs. San Jose State, 1-1 vs. St. Mary's and 1-0 vs. Santa Clara. The Huskies haven't played Santa Clara since 1935 and St. Mary's since 1947. Since 1977, UW is 57-16-0 vs. Bay Area teams: 26-5 vs. Cal, 23-11 vs. Stanford and 8-0 vs. San Jose State.

THE DEFENSE: Washington's defense was the strongest it has been in years in 2015, leaving a standard for this season that will be a challenge to match. Last year, the Husky defense finished first in the Pac-12 in scoring defense, allowing just 247 points, or 18.8 per game, the best average by the UW since 1996 (18.4 per game). The Huskies gave up 103 fewer points in 2015 than in 2014 (though, the UW played one more game in 2014). The Dawgs also led the conference in total defense (351.8 yards per game), opponent first downs (19.1 per game) and red-zone defense (79.5 percent). In the red zone, UW opponents managed just 17 touchdowns in 39 attempts (43.6 percent), best in the conference.

THE OFFENSE: Washington's offense finished last season on a high. Over the three-game win streak that wrapped up the 2015 campaign, the Huskies posted 52, 45 and 44 points, an average of 47.0 per game. Over the last four games of the season, the Huskies amassed 2,052 yards of total offense, or an average of 513.0 yards per game. Over the final three (Oregon State, Washington State, Southern Miss), the Huskies racked up 807 rushing yards (269.0 per game) and completed 55-of-75 passes (.733) for 698 yards, four touchdowns and just one interception.

RECORD COLLECTION: The Huskies have broken or tied a few school records over this season. The UW scored 40 points or more in six straight games (dating back to the 2015 Oregon State game). Never before had they scored 40 in more than four straight (1944). Against Rutgers, John Ross' fourth career kickoff return for a touchdown broke Jim Krieg's old mark of three while Dante Pettis tied Beno Bryant's career punt return TD record of four. Last Saturday at Utah, Pettis posted his fifth career punt return TD to take over the school record by himself. He's now just one shy of former Cal star DeSean Jackson's Pac-12 record of six. Against Idaho, the Huskies tied the school record for passing touchdowns (6; tied record set vs. UCLA in 1970) and Jake Browning tied the Husky record for individual passing TDs in a game, with five (shared with Keith Price, 2012 vs. Colorado; Jake Locker, 2010 vs. Oregon State; and Chris Rowland, 1973 vs. California). Browning broke that record with six TD passes at Oregon, taking sole possession of the mark. He also rushed for two TDs, giving him eight total, also a school record. Browning is on pace to break several other school records (pass efficiency, yards per attempt, among others). Additionally in that 70-21 Oregon win, the UW set modern (post-1945) records for points, touchdowns (10) and PATs (10) while linebacker Keishawn Bierria tied the Husky record for single-season fumble recoveries with his fifth.

THE PAC-12: Prior to the 2011 season, the Pac-10 Conference added Utah and Colorado to expand to the Pac-12. Washington, which along with California is one of two schools who have been in the conference since its founding in 1915, plays in the Pac-12 North, along with the other three Northwest schools (Oregon, OSU, WSU) and Stanford and California. Under current plans, each school will play all five division rivals, plus four of six teams in the other division each season. The first two seasons, the Huskies did not face UCLA or Arizona State. In 2013 and 14, the Huskies didn't face Utah or USC. Last year and in 2016, neither UCLA nor Colorado are on the UW schedule.

THE 100-YARD FACTOR: Since the 1947 season, Washington is 204-65-3 (.756) when a Husky player rushes for 100 yards in a game. The Huskies were 5-4 in such games in 2015 and are 5-0 this year.

HISTORY LESSON: Successfully rushing the football and winning go hand-in-hand for the Huskies. Since 1990, UW has rushed for 200 yards in a game 105 times. The Huskies' record stands at 88-16-1 (.842) in those contests. Since 1995, UW is 63-13-1 (.825) when rushing for 200 yards.

HUSKY STADIUM RENOVATION: Husky Stadium underwent a major renovation over from Nov., 2011, through Aug., 2013, as the entire lower bowl and south upper deck were demolished and replaced. The new facility features a new, state-of-the-art football operations center (weight room, training room, locker room, meeting rooms, coaches' offices) in the west end, much more premium seating options and a new playing surface. Husky Stadium had featured a track up until 2011, so seats that were once far from the field, particularly in the west end, are much closer to the action. UW is 20-7 at home since the re-opening of Husky Stadium.

ALASKA AIRLINES FIELD AT HUSKY STADIUM: The Oregon game on Nov. 5, 2011, marked the final game in Husky Stadium prior to major renovations that have now been completed. The Huskies re-opened their home field with a 38-6 win over then-No. 19 Boise State on Aug. 31, 2013. The 2016 season marks the 96th season of play in Husky Stadium. Original construction on the facility was completed in 1920 when Washington played one game in the new campus facility. UW's all-time record in Husky Stadium stands at 376-176-21 (.675).
